SPORT ON THE BALL FIELD.

THE AMERICAN ASSOCIATION SEASON WILL OPEN TO-DAY.

How Yesterday's Games Resulted—The Jersey City Club Badly Defeated by the Brooklyn (N. L.) Club—The Newarks Defeat the Boston League Club.

Had the lads from Manhattan College played their usual game at the Polo grounds yesterday they might have made a pretty respectable showing against the New York (N. L.) Club, but Holland's poor pitching and the wretched playing of Wild, Reilly, and O'Leary gave the National League champions a comparatively easy victory. The playing of the New Yorks generally was good. Sam Crane had a trial at first base, and gave every evidence of becoming a valuable man in the position. Glasscock had his batting clothes on, scoring nearly half of the hits made by the New Yorks. The score:

BROOKLYN (P. L.), 13; BUFFALO, 4.

It was rather cool yesterday afternoon on the Eastern Park grounds in East New York, and the spectators had to be on the move in order to keep warm. Murphy, the visiting pitcher, gave the Brooklyns a little trouble, good chance to do some batting, as he simply threw the ball up to them, but they were unfortunate in placing the ball safe. Base Ball Notes.

Z. Z. Z.—A letter addressed to him at Boston will reach him.

McPermott has a lame arm, but he thinks it will wear away in a few days.

The prediction is made that Sam Crane will fill the bill exactly at first base for the New York (N. L.) Club.

The New Haven management is red hot for another game for next Saturday if the Board of Arbitration is satisfied.

The Jersey City Club are badly in need of two good pitchers. They are slackening with Turner and Carney, and may get both.

The New York (N. L.) Club are weeding out their stock of players. They will release Outfielder Murphy, Sielke and Dooley.

Ron Ferguson, the veteran umpire, and old Jack Nelson were spectators at the game on the Eastern Park grounds yesterday.

Professor Hall, of the Harvard freshmen nine was defeated by technology '92 in a closely contested game to-day by 11 to 6.

Wheeler, the Jersey City left handed pitcher, is not by any means pitching successfully. He has been hit hard in his last two games.

Cook, the Jersey City catcher, will have to get the ball down to second a little quicker, or he will never be able to throw a base stealer out.

Esterbrook says that he can play better ball now than he ever did before on the Jersey City Club, and he would just about come in handy for that team.

The Columbia College Varsity base ball team will go to South Orange to-day and play the Seton Hall nine this afternoon. To morrow they play Trinity College at Staten Island.

Manager Mutrie was looking over his flags yesterday. He has eleven, which he has won in fifteen years. Clark who was standing by said: "Jim, we will make it thirteen for you next fall."

The Brooklyn (A. A.) team were to have played the Princeton College team at Princeton yesterday, but Manager Kennedy cancelled the game, so that his players could have a day's practice before the opening championship game this afternoon.

Manager McGunnigle said yesterday afternoon that the trip to the South has put his players in a better condition than he even anticipated. Barring Corkhill the players are all in a good condition for the opening game, to ship game at Boston on Saturday.

A Sun reporter asked Manager Mutrie last night whether Jack Farrell had been released. "No," said Jim emphatically, "but he will be, I think he will be, though. It appears that Farrell left town very suddenly, and nobody knows where he is located."

Saturday will be the opening day of the Staten Island Athletic Association grounds. The grounds at West New Brighton will be in first-class condition for the events. The base ball team of the S. I. A. C. will start their opening game with the Columbia College boys at 4 o'clock.

One of the carpenters employed on the grand stand at Eastern Park escaped from a serious accident yesterday. He was at work on the upper stand and somehow slipped off the floor of the stand, which he was nailing and he fell to the floor of the lower stand, a distance of about eighteen feet. When picked up he was conscious and complained of a little pain in the whole. Outside of being shaken up he was not seriously hurt.

When Burdock was hit by Williams at Ridgewood on Sunday, he played the game through and did not think it was a very serious hurt. But when he got home Mr. McLean, the physician, examined the arm yesterday, he said that a small bone had been broken and advised Burdock not to play for the next two or three weeks.

Manager Jim Mutrie is receiving many congratulations on the team which he has got together. Jim is therefore happy, and is more confident that his men will win the pennant. The showing during the champion shipment, Denny Bassett, Glasscock, and the other players have shown up so well that Jim's friends have nearly shaken his arm off.

The American Association are the first to open their championship season. They will begin work to-day, while the National League, Players' League, and Atlantic Association play their first championship games on Saturday. The Brooklyns will open at the Eastern grounds to-day with Philadelphia. Louisville will meet the Syracuse Club. The other games scheduled are Rochester vs. Athletics at Philadelphia, Louisville vs. St. Louis at Louisville, and Columbus vs. Toledo at Columbus.

Next Saturday the two bitter rivals, Jersey City and Newark, come together for the first time this season. The game will be played at Newark, and as is generally
