A Chance for the Arbitration Committee.

PHILADELPHIA, May 6.—At its next meeting the Board of Arbitration will be called upon to decide a very nice question, whether the spirit and letter of the National agreement has been violated by the Washington Athletic Association club, early in the season. Charles A. Mason, president and manager of the Athletic Club, signed a contract for a preliminary exhibition game with the Philadelphia Professionals, to be played at Washington, April 7. Mr. Mason claims that the Philadelphia team was to have been composed of the best players available, and that the game was arranged with a view to securing a good gate, the proceeds of which were to be devoted to the relief of the Johnstown sufferers. The Philadelphia club, however, was not in a position to do itself justice, and the game was a very tame affair, the Washington club winning by a score of 17 to 3. As the game was for charity, Mr. Mason claims that the agreement was not a violation of the National agreement, and he has so stated to the Philadelphia club. The Philadelphia club, however, claims that the game was a violation of the agreement, and that the Washington club should be fined for playing it. The matter will be brought before the Board of Arbitration for decision.

Base Ball Notes.

Manager Burdock is on the lookout for a catcher.

At the Union Grounds—Junes, 10, third nine Pastimes.

At Mount Kisco—Harry Steels Association, 4; Joe Smith Association, 0.

Steve Brady says that he had either to give up his business or base ball management, as the former was being ruined, and he preferred to keep his business.

Yesterday's rain prevented the game at Ridgewood. This afternoon the Cuban Giants will play the championship game on that ground with the Brooklyn team.

A visit to secretary Bradley's office yesterday found that gentleman absent. The only information gained was that he will return on Saturday or Monday.

Rex Sutton will be seen in this vicinity again, after a number of years. He is playing with the Hartfords, and they will be the Jersey City's opponents at Oakland Park this afternoon.

After forty-nine circus hats taken the departure from Oakland Park it was found that it, on the ground, is pretty sun shaw, and it will take a few days before things will be put in condition again.

Alex Rave, May 6.—Brady who played right field on the New Haven team last season, and who had been retained by the management this year for this season, was released to-day. He has not been playing ground ball.

The married men of the Massasoit Club of the Nineteenth Assembly district will play the bachelors of the same organization a game of base ball to-day at Brooklyn Hospital for the benefit of the Nathanan Hospital.

The New York (N. L.) club will play the Brooklyns at Washington Park to-day. To-morrow the game that was postponed yesterday on account of rain will be played at the same place. Both games will be called at half-past 3 to-day, and ladies will be admitted to the field and grand stand free.

The Newspaper Base Ball League are all ready for the opening game and the great battles between the compositors and the newspaper men in the city will be looked forward to with interest. The initial game will be played next Tuesday at Ridgewood between Tu Sun and Times teams, and the rivalry between the two will be keen. But look out for us, is Tue Sun's players cry. The score in the game is not likely to be one to nothing, as some people seem to think, but there is a decided difference in the performances of the two teams, fifteen runs being scored in every inning. Notwithstanding this, however, they play a fair game, and as the teams are evenly matched it is like throwing up a cent to see who will win.

Worcester, May 6.—The combination of circumstances which has threatened to break up the Worcester club last year no longer exists. The team will stay in Worcester, and Worcester men will manage its affairs. Arrangements to that effect having been completed this afternoon, President Brodie of the Association and Mr. Munson of the New Haven club have done some very lively hustling during the day and as a result satisfactory arrangements were made with a new representative to take charge of the affairs. The new officers of the association are: President, J. J. Kennedy; Secretary and Treasurer Waldo A. Simmons; Directors, George E. Bigelow, Frank Ginn and Edward Monitor. Just how the chasm has been bridged over no one is willing to divulge the only explanation offered being that the arrangement is satisfactory. The wheels trouble grew out of an attempt to put a team into the field without taking the men who were to furnish the funds into full confidence. The interest in the game has suffered materially but not permanently, and if the team plays good ball it will be liberally patronized.

To-morrow afternoon at The Sun—Six. Many wrong impressions have been since a recent publication of an article concerning an alleged Xavier base ball club giving names and positions of players and requesting rivals to send in their teams. Every possible effort has been made to discover the author of this entirely false statement, but without success, and in order to prevent its extension to more complete confusion it is deemed necessary to issue an emphatic contradiction. No Xavier ball club has yet been organized although three nines of the Xavier Base Ball Association, consisting of nearly fifty applicants for places on the team, which is to be selected by a committee already appointed for that purpose, have not been played this season, which were participated in by a Xavier club having any right to the name because, as there is no such club in existence it is difficult to understand how any one can assume the power to issue or accept challenges. For the benefit of those connected with, or interested in, Xavier Base Ball Association, it may be well to understand that as soon as the players of the Xavier Base Ball club have been regularly appointed a proper announcement will be made by the officials. Frank A. Black, President Xavier B. B. Association, 30 West Sixteenth street.
