SAW HIS FATHER KISS MRS. LEE.

Reasons Why Mr. Lee and Mrs. Wanzor Bring Suits for Divorce.

Several witnesses were examined yesterday by Justice Bartlett in the Supreme Court, Brooklyn, in the case of Frank D. Lee, who is seeking a divorce from Emilie L. Lee on the ground of her intimacy with Moses G. Wanzor, a sugar broker in Wall street. Mrs. Wanzor is also seeking a divorce on an allegation of her husband's association with Mrs. Lee, who is now living at 283 State street, Brooklyn, in a furnished house provided, it is said, by the sugar broker.

The witnesses called yesterday included the agent of the State street house, who said that Wanzor became security for Mrs. Lee's rent, and a coal dealer, who testified that Wanzor bought coal for Mrs. Lee. A private detective testified that it was the sugar broker's custom to spend his evenings at Mrs. Lee's house, and Harry T. Wanzor, a son of the co-respondent, said he had seen his father kissing and hugging Mrs. Lee at Iselin in the summer of 1888. The trial was not concluded.
