CINCINNATI (N. L.), 8; NEW YORK (N. L.), 5.

CINCINNATI, June 26.—"Fire Alarm Tony" led the Reds to victory this afternoon in one of the most exciting games of the year. It was a contest full of sensations. There were stops, catches, and throws of the lurid order, and every one of the 1,508 spectators in attendance had sore throats when it ended. When Sir Antonio Mullane, who has had a sort of roaming commission all the season, walked into the box for his first pitching he was received with cheers. The first two balls were strikes, and the third was lifted a high foul into the air by Tiernan, which got away from Harrington. The muff was fatal, for the Trenton I'st sent a terrific fly into right. It landed on the top tier of the circus seats. "Little Nic" walked over them like an acrobat, but Tiernan was nearing home before the ball reached the infield. Everybody eyed the lusie when the youngster walked out. This was Rhines's rival. Before the afternoon waned the fans were of the opinion that the Cincinnatis phenom was good enough for them. The score:

CHICAGO (N. L.), 11; BROOKLYN (N. L.), 5.

CHICAGO, June 26.—Those Brooklyn base ball players are just simply strawberries and ice cream for Capt. Anson and his family. The old man took another mess of them this afternoon, and he chewed them up with the same apparent relish that a well-bred Berkshire chews acorns. They came three in a hill to the old man all afternoon, and when he had devoured the whole lot his chest swelled out with just pride. It was "ladies' day" out at the Lenzux grounds, but it was so hot that not a great many of the gentle cranks availed themselves of the privileges extended to them. But it was not too hot for good ball, and it was just the kind of weather old "Anse" likes to be out in. The score:

NEW YORK (P. L.), 10; PITTSBURGH (P. L.), 9.

PITTSBURGH, June 26.—The Players' League people put up a villainous game of ball to-day. In fact, no worse could have been. If it had been ordered ahead of time, Robinson at last convinced Manager Hanlon that he was unfit to play ball, and Fields was put in at second. He filled the position well, but his absence from left held virtually lost the game. Maul allowing everything to go by. He did try to get a couple of balls. But it was no go, and he gave it up and waited for the ball to stop rolling, and then he went after it. Sometimes he got back in good time, but he usually returned with the speed of a messenger boy bringing the announcement of "the death of your mother-in-law." Miner pitched a good game, and if he had had the proper support would have won it. The score:

CLEVELAND (P. L.), 7; BROOKLYN (P. L.), 2.

CLEVELAND, June 26.—Ward's men tried hard to come up and look smiling in to-day's game, but it was like pulling teeth to do it. None of them could find the key to Crauler's pitching, and their hits were like hen's teeth, few and far between. Then, too, Andrews and McGeachy made a couple of bad muffs with men on bases, and that gave Cleveland runs that the local men were not entitled to. Ward and McGeachy were the only two men in the Brooklyns that could hit a little bit. Ward rapped out two nice lines, and McGeachy's hits were both clean. Cleveland was never headed in the game, and never got into a place that looked the least bit squally. The score:
