A GREAT BASE BALL TEAM.

THE MAKE-UP OF OUR CLUB FOR NEXT SEASON.

Everything is Now Settled with the Exception of Signing the Agreement—The Players Will be Protected Even If They Have Nothing to Say—Results of the Games Played Yesterday—Notes.

New York was happy yesterday; at least its thousands of base ball enthusiasts were. Not since the closing days of the season of 1889, when the first rumblings of war were heard, have they felt so hilariously jubilant as they were after having read the announcement in THE SUN yesterday morning that there would be but one club in this city next season. The many who had dropped base ball entirely during the last season, having lost all interest and local pride on account of two clubs, were up in arms once more, just as ready as of old to enthuse over a really good game between clubs which would represent cities and not factions. They realized that the good old days would return again, and that they could lose all control of themselves in wild paroxysms of delight, swinging aloft their hats and canes, and yelling at the top of their lungs over some great play or other that during the past season passed unnoticed by the small crowds.

The majority of the down-town business men talked of almost nothing else but of the settlement of the fight. In the Stock Exchange the members almost to a man were infinitely pleased that affairs had come to a head. They were not content with talking and congratulating one another, because they would have the opportunity of enjoying the greatest of national sports again, but they got up ditties on it to the pitch and chorus of "We are all as happy now," which were Mr. Talcott's words, announced in THE SUN, in signification of the fact that the war was ended. Mr. Talcott had one of the busiest days he has ever known. Whenever he made his appearance in a crowd of Wall street men he was immediately greeted with the aforesaid refrain. And the most pleasing part of it was that each time the tune and words, excepting the chorus, was different, in consequence of which Mr. Talcott was not so wearied as he might otherwise have been. Everybody on Change corralled him and told him that he had done the right thing in compromising.

There will be no more meetings of the parties concerned until Oct. 22, when the general conferences will be held at the Fifth Avenue Hotel. Every stitch of work, excepting the signing of the necessary papers, has been done. The players who will play on the New York team next year have been decided on. "Buck" Ewing looms up in sight once more in this consolidation of the two clubs, and he will be a greater man than ever when next season opens. He has a cool, level head, and he has not been loudly proclaiming what he would do and what he would not do. He wanted a compromise, and he has got it. Just as soon as the general conference on Oct. 22 is over, Ewing will have the entire charge of the consolidated New York team.

The make-up of the team has not been correctly stated yet, although a morning contemporary made an attempt at doing it. THE SUN is enabled to give it, however, the information coming from a perfectly reliable source. It is as follows:

Pitchers—Rusie, Welch, Keefe Sharrott.
Catchers—Ewing, Buckley, Clarke, Murphy.
First base—Connor.
Second base—Richardson.
Third base—Denny.
Short stop—Glasscock.
Fielders—Tiernan, Gore, Johnston.
Extra men—Sassetti, Whistler, and possibly two others yet to be determined upon.

Notwithstanding all reports to the contrary, Glasscock will play short stop. In the picking out of the team no sentiment has been or will be shown. Denny will be put on third base to start with, but should he not play any better than he did during the latter part of the past season he will be relegated to the bench. In that case Danny Richardson will be put on third base and Sassetti on second. Sharrott will be kept as he promises to become a first-class pitcher. Pat Murphy will be held, as President Day has a three years' personal contract with him. Connor has insinuated that he would not be willing to play, but it is very likely that he will. But if he does not, Whistler will cover first base. The latter is one of the coming star players. No player has ever made more rapid strides toward the apex of fame than he.

"I can tell you," said Mr. Talcott yesterday, "New York next year will have the strongest team of ball players ever gotten together. You can depend on that."

"What was the basis of settlement?" he was asked.

"That I am not at liberty to tell."

"Will any more meetings be held?"

"No, sir. Why should there be? There is no object for even one more. Everything is settled and we all understand one another."

"Will the players on both teams will not be kept next year, will they?"

"Oh, no. We would not keep all of our players even had there not been a compromise. Their work was not good enough, and consequently we would have strengthened the weak spots."

"Will you make a direct statement as to whether the players who did not leave the National League for the Players' League will be kept on all the consolidated teams?"

"I do not care to express any opinion concerning the matter just at the present time. There are, however, some great players in the National League, and they cannot be ignored. In this settlement the players will be looked after, and I don't think they will have cause for complaint. Everything will be arranged for the best interests of players and capitalists. Yes, Ewing will have charge of the players."

President John B. Day was seen by a SUN reporter at the Holland, his new residence on Fifty-seventh street. He said: "I will go no further meeting until the general conference," he said, "as everything has been fixed."

"Has it been decided on what grounds you will play?"

"Not as yet. The Players' League officials think Brotherhood Park is the better place. I have never been over there, and so know nothing about it. I am willing, however, to let others decide on the grounds. The vacated ground's will be sublet to the Manhattan Athletic Club."

May Not Play Ball Again.

Dave Orr of the Brooklyn (P. L.) club was stricken with paralysis at the Ward House, Denver, on Tuesday. He had intended to play with the club against the local team, but the shock came before the game. His left side is paralyzed. It will be several days, according to the last despatch, before he will be able to move, and still longer before he will be able to leave the house. Attending physicians say that the chances for the ultimate recovery are good. As soon as he can stand the journey Orr will be sent to his home in Brooklyn. His wife has joined him. He is not likely to play ball again.

The Business Boys' Athletic Club.

The Business Boys' Athletic Club held their first meeting last evening. Many of the leading business houses of the city were represented. The first business of the evening was the election of temporary officers as follows: William J. Macarthy, president; John F. Carlin, treasurer; Gabriel Leone, secretary. Applications were received from many prominent athletes. The meeting was a very successful one, over thirty members being enrolled. The club will hold its next meeting at the residence of the President, on Lexington avenue, on Monday evening. All young men who are interested in the formation of a Business Boys' Athletic Club are respectfully invited to join. For further particulars concerning initiation fee and dues address Secretary Conrad Reiss, Post Office Box 1,293, New York.

The Riverside Wheelmen Dance.

The club house of the Riverside Wheelmen was tastefully decorated last evening upon the occasion of the club's first ladies' night which inaugurated the naval winter festivities for which the organization is noted. Dancing occupied the members and visitors until a late hour.

FOOTBALL.

Things Beginning to Hum Among the College Men.

PRINCETON, Oct. 15.—The University of Pennsylvania to day sent a football team to Princeton to beat the university eleven. At first it seemed as if the visitors would, for the Princeton men were much lighter. The game was the hardest fought and the roughest ever played between the two colleges. Four men had to be carried off the field, having received severe injuries. Princeton suffered most in this respect. The men badly hurt are Adams, '92, Hayden, '93, and Gallwey of Princeton. Capt. Poe got his leg hurt slightly, but continued playing. King, '93, took Adams's place, and Riggs, '92, Gallway's, and Davis, '93, Haydens. King played a great game for Princeton, making several phenomenal runs and two of the touchdowns. As soon as the game commenced Bowser of Pennsylvania began the sing game, his tactics were immediately adopted by his associate players much to the disgust of those present. Princeton remonstrated with the Pennsylvania captain and the umpire, but this had no good results. As a consequence Princeton played a rough game, and the visitors were pretty well worried when time was called.

During the first half Pennsylvania had the ball close to Princeton's goal line, but by hard and skillful work we carried back each time. Pennsylvania not being satisfied with slugging, next resorted to a foul method of playing. Poe objected and Thayer refused to change his tactics. Then Poe asked for the dismissal of the Pennsylvania umpire but this was refused. After ten minutes' delay an agreement was effected and play was resumed, long runs by King, Thomas, and Spicer, with short rushes through the centre brought the ball within three yards of Pennsylvania's line and Spicer made the first touch down two minutes before the time of the first half was called. Poe missed the try for goal.

Princeton opened the second half with the Y trick and by hard rushes carried Pennsylvania's line. Spicer and King made the next two touch downs. Time was called with score 16 to 0 in Princeton's favor.

VOLUNTEERS VS. ST. PAUL'S ACADEMY.

The Volunteer football club of Harlem defeated the eleven of St. Paul's Academy of New Jersey in a game of football in Central Park on Tuesday afternoon. This is the third consecutive victory for the Volunteers this season. The game, which was most hotly contested, abounded in brilliant plays. In the first half neither side scored. Finding that the rush line of the St. Paul's was much heavier than that of the Volunteers, the latter had to resort to spinning tactics. In this respect they were ably assisted by the fierce and brilliant rushes of Capt. Caris. The tackling and backing of Reinacker and Kottman was simply remarkable. The score was: Volunteers, 22; St. Paul's, 0.

NEW YORK UNIVERSITY VS. BERKELEY SCHOOL.

An interesting game of football was played on the Berkeley oval on Tuesday afternoon between the New York University and the Berkeley School teams. The University team outplayed the schoolboys and won the game by a score of 34 to 0. The field was quite muddy, and the game only lasted thirty minutes. Alton, captain of the Berkeley team, made the touch-down for them and kicked the goal. Eight touch downs were made by the University team but only one goal kicked. Evans made three touch downs, Abbott three, and Young two. Young kicked the only goal.

TUFTS DEFEATED AT ANDOVER.

BOSTON, Oct. 11.—The Tufts College eleven was defeated 4 to 0 at Andover this afternoon in a very exciting game. The Andover men placed a very rough game, though no one was seriously hurt. Neither side scored in the first half. At the beginning of the second half Andover gained a touch down on a fine rush by Colt. No goal was kicked and the score was 4—0. The work for the remainder of the game was hard and interesting, but the score was not affected.

YALE BEATS TRINITY.

TRINITY COLLEGE, HARTFORD, Oct. 15.—The first home game between Trinity and Yale was played to-day. In first half Yale was held to two touch downs, but notwithstanding Trinity's pluck and grit, Yale increased her score in the second half by six touch downs and two goals. The features of the game were Harvey's run of the entire field and Hubbard's roll of ten yards. Score, Yale, 40; Trinity, 0.

THE WILLIAMS COLLEGE TEAM WINS.

WILLIAMSTOWN, Oct. 15.—The Williams football team defeated the Lansaires of Troy to day by a score of 142 to 0, besides furnishing them a left guard and a centre rush to Cornell's team for the game. The early arrival of the Trojans made the game so late that the second half was only seventeen minutes long. This is the largest score Williams ever made.

HAMILTON VS. SYRACUSE.

UTICA, N. Y., Oct. 15.—The Hamilton College eleven defeated the Syracuse University eleven in a game of football to-day—56 to 0. The college has a crack eleven, trained by Rowry of Princeton. They play Union College here on Oct. 25.

FOOTBALL IN PROSPECT PARK.

A mixed team of footballers from the Polytechnic Institute and the Adelphi Institute defeated the newly formed Flatlands club in Prospect Park yesterday. Shaw made a touch down for the mixed team, scoring 4 points to 0.

A GREAT SCORE, THIS.

BOSTON, Oct. 15.—The champion football score of the season thus far was made yesterday in the Junior interscholastic league. The Cambridge Manual Training School eleven beat the Nobles eleven by a score of 115 to 0.

Billy Myer will Meet Jack McAuliffe.

Billy Myer, the Illinois "cyclone," notified the Metropolitan athletic club of New Orleans yesterday that he would accept the club's offer to meet Jack McAuliffe for a purse of $5,000 and an outside bet of $2,500. McAuliffe has stated all along that he would meet the "cyclone" on these conditions and even went so far as to sign his name to a contract binding him to the agreement. The northern man challenged a representative of the Mississippi Valley athletic club to the terms of agreement. The battle will be fought around Mardi Gras time, when it is expected a great number of South ern sporting men will be in New Orleans.

LAST DAY AT MORRIS PARK.

FAVORITES REDEEM THEMSELVES BY WINNING FOUR OF THE RACES.

Diablo Captures the Fall Test Handicap—St. James Upsets the Talent in the Echo Stakes—Kirkover Lands the Farewell.

Splendid weather and a large attendance were the features of the last day of the fall meeting at Morris Park. The track was heavy and the fields of horses were small. Several of the finishes were close and well fought, and on the whole the sport was enjoyable, but it would have been more so with less scratching.

With Sallie McClelland out of the first race, Eclipse was made the favorite, Reilly having a strong following at fair odds, with Madstone third in favor. Bergen moved Madstone out in the last quarter, winning away out in the light, with Eclipse second.

The talent selected Annie to win the Stonewall Welter Handicap, the second event, and the filly, under Bergen's riding, won in a driving finish, half lapped by Bradford. In the next race, the Echo Stakes, for three-year-olds, backers of favorites met with a disastrous upset. They played Rosette, with Barnes in the saddle, at very short odds. St. James, at 6 to 1, won the race, the favorite coming home last.

Diablo made it pleasant for the talent in the Fall Test Handicap after they had backed him all around the ring at short odds, by moving forward in the last half furlong and pulling the money out of the mud two lengths in front of My Fellow.

Kirkover increased the wealth of the regulars in the Farewell Stakes, for two-year-olds. He was heavily backed at odds on, and, running as leader in the tandem race from the start, won handily by a length from Terrifier.

The extra race of heats at one mile and a sixteenth was a farcical affair. Firenze was on the card as a probable starter, and as she had been scratched in the Fall Test Handicap, it was hoped that she would start in the extra. But Can Can and Eleve were the only starters. Can Can was the strongest sort of a favorite, and she ran as though imbued with the idea that it would be the proper thing to end the meeting in the first heat, which she did nicely by distancing Eleve with plenty to spare.

THE FIRST RACE.

Elmstone, Madstone, Reilly, Eclipse, and Ballarat moved away in good shape. Elmstone setting the pace, and Reilly taking the lead before reaching the quarter, Madstone moved on in the next furlong, and, leading a procession, won by three lengths, Eclipse second, four in front of Reilly, third.

Sweepstakes of $15 each, with $750 added, of which $100 to second and $50 to third; five-eighths of a mile. Empire Stable's br. c. Madstone, 4, by Vanderbilt—Nina Turner, 122 (Bergen) 1
Sennett & Warren's b. c. Eclipse, 2, 99 (Weber) 2
C. Reed & Sons' ch. f. Reilly, 2, 96 (Decker) 3
Ballarat and Elmstone also ran.
Time, 1:18¾.

Post Betting—Against Eclipse, 9 to 5; Reilly, 3 to 1; Madstone, 3½ to 1; Ballarat, 4 to 1; Elmstone, 15 to 1. Mutuals paid $27.70, $11.50, and $6.95.

THE SECOND RACE.

Bradford set the pace from an even start, Annie giving the leader a race throughout. Bradford led at the eighth at the last furlong, but Annie closed up in the finish, Bergen landing her a winner in a drive by three-quarters of a length. Bradford second, two lengths in front of Lakeview, third.

Stonewall Welter Handicap, for all ages, of $20 each, with $1,000 added, of which $200 to second and $100 to third; three-quarters of a mile.
C. Reed & Sons' b. f. Annie, 3, by Mr. Pickwick—Bonnie Wood, 108 (Bergen) 1
W. B. Jenning's b. h. Bradford, 6, 135 (Taral) 2
T. P. O'Hara's b. c. Kirkover, by Atilla—The Squaw, 111 (Barnes) 3
Mr. Sass, Park Ridge, Silver Prince, and Serapis also ran.
Time, 1:15¾.

Post Betting—Against Annie, 6 to 5; Lakeview, 4 to 1; Silver Prince and Park Ridge, 6 to 1 each; Bradford, 7 to 1; Mr. Sass, 10 to 1; Serapis, 50 to 1. Mutuals paid $11.95, $6.10, and $14.50.

THE THIRD RACE.

Punster, Jr., Gunwad, St. James, Busted, Insight, and Rosette were well in line at the start, Insight getting the quarter first, but soon fell back. St. James taking up the running, with Insight second, Gunwad and Punster, Jr., also in the bunch. The race was hot and close to the finish, where Punster, Jr., and Gunwad were unable to move out of the press. St. James won by a neck from Punster, Jr., Insight, half lapping, third.

Echo Stakes, for three-year-olds, of $50 each, with $1,000 added, of which $200 to second and $100 to third; selling allowances; one mile and a sixteenth.
Boyle & Littlefield's ch. c. St. James, by St. Blaise—Nellie James, 116 (Weber) 1
D. T. Pulsifer's ch. g. Punster, Jr., 102 (Decker) 2
Keystone Stable's b. f. Insight, 93 (Stevenson) 3
Gunwad, Busted, and Rosette also ran.
Time, 1:48¾.

NOTABLE SALE OF THOROUGHBREDS.

Race Horses from the Stables of Messrs. Withers, Galway, and Ashe.

Col. S. D. Bruce wound up his series of fall sales yesterday morning in the saddling paddock at Morris Park. The horses disposed of consisted of draughts from the stables of Mr. D. D. Withers and Mr. James Galway, including such well-known performers as King Eric, Sluggard, Adamant, Montague, Major Domo, Chieftain, and Cynosure. The sale attracted many representative horsemen, and when Col. Bruce put up Tomboy, the first horse offered, Pierre Lorillard, G. B. Morris, W. C. Daly, James Shields, W. B. Jennings, Dr. Carter, P. C. McLewee, D. A. Honig, G. Walbaum, E. Garrison, and Pittsburgh Phil were present, all looking for bargains. Pittsburgh Phil has been quite a liberal purchaser at the late sales, and next year, besides running a book, will have a strong stable of horses. The pick of Mr. Withers's lot was King Eric, but the fact that he had not been raced lately made would-be purchasers a little shy, and he was knocked down to G. Walbaum for $3,800. The sister of Mr. Galway's lot was Montague. A reserve price of $3,500 was placed on him, but Pittsburgh Phil went $10 above this and secured the horse.

After Col. Bruce's sale Mr. Easton disposed of the horses belonging to B. Porter Ashe, including Geraldine, one of the fastest sprinters that ever looked through a bridle. After some spirited bidding she became the property of T. W. Shreve for $4,000. The sales were made in the following order:
