LADY PULSIFER IN FRONT.

ROVERS MAKE UPSETS THE TALENT IN THE HANDICAP.

She was the Outsider in the Betting at 40 to 1—Ben Harrison Breaks Down—Success and Fernwood Run a Dead Heat.

An uneasy feeling prevailed in the betting ring at Guttenburg yesterday, and the bookmakers were reduced to forty-nine, the usual number doing business at the track heretofore reaching sixty or more. Several who also do business at Clifton kept their weather eyes open, owing to a rumor that those against whom warrants had been issued would be arrested wherever found in the State. The only excitement in the ring was occasioned by a little scrapping match that occurred before the second race between Bookmaker J. Duffy and a betting man named Barton. Barton struck Duffy, but before Duffy could retaliate Barton was grappled by special officers and led out of the grounds.

The track was in a somewhat dangerous condition for racing, the bed under the top layer of loam and sand being hard and icy, so much so that glittering particles of ice flew up occasionally when the horses were galloping.

The race of the day was the World Handicap at a mile, the first of the series, with $1,000 added money. The talent lighted on Pearl Set, with Taylor up, as their choice, at even money. Ben Harrison, ridden by Bergen, having a strong following at 3 to 1. Rancocas, Sir George, Pearl Set, and Ben Harrison were in the front bunch at the start. Rancocas set the pace out in the light before reaching the backstretch, where Woodcutter and Lizzie headed Rancocas. At the bend for the upper turn Ben Harrison, who was fairly well up under a strong pull, broke down badly in his ailing fore leg, and was utterly out of the race. Then came one of the rankest tumbles of the winter. Bookmaker Lovett's mare Lady Pulsifer, the outsider in the field at 40 to 1, winning the race a length in front of Bill Daly's Lizzie, a 15 to 1 shot. Pearl Set, the favorite, losing second place by a neck. Mutuals on the winner paid $56.50 for $2 straight, and $38.25 for place.

The race at a mile and a quarter was a heavy betting event. Fernwood, the favorite, at 8 to 5, and Success, at 4 to 1, made a grand finish, nose and nose, in a dead heat. Iceberg, at 4 to 1, third. For the run off it was 4 to 5 Success and even money Fernwood. Success led the pace all the way, winning easily by four lengths.

Ten joined in the opening scramble of five furlongs, Hilda was favorite at 11 to 5 against Lamar, second choice at 3 to 1, with Red Light next in favor at 4 to 1. Taylor landed Red Light winner by four lengths, Lamar taking second place from Hilda by half a length.

Seven started in the second race, Frances S. going to the post an odds-on favorite. Alderman Mac leaving the scene second favorite at 9 to 5 against. Taylor sent Frances S. home in a canter, four lengths in front of Alderman Mac. Maggie C. gelding, at 20 to 1, third.

Objection, Capulin. Red Elm, and Addie T. carried about all the money bet on the third race at odds of from 2 to 1 to 7 to 1, in the order named. Penny took the trick with Capulin by a length and a half, Louise, at 20 to 1, snatching the place from Red Elm by a head.

Chancellor was backed at odds of 7 to 5 to win the last race, Spaulding rating next at 2 to 1, a tip on Cheeney making him third choice at 4 to 1. Spaulding won by a length and a half from Louise, a 10 to 1 shot. Quibbler third. Chancellor and Cheeney utterly failed to put in their claims for any part of the money. Summaries:

Proposed National Bicycle Road Race.

The January meeting of the Rochester Wheelmen's League was held early in the week. There were present delegates from all the association clubs, who, by a unanimous vote, decided to appoint a committee to consider the advisability of holding the next New York State division meet in Rochester. Among other important business considered was the idea proposed by E. J. Irving for the holding of a road race between Buffalo and Rochester. The following views were expressed at the league meeting as follows:

"Having conceived the idea of inaugurating a national bicycle event, I respectfully suggest that your body, possessing the power and capabilities to do so, make arrangements for a handicapped road race from Buffalo to Rochester, or vice versa; that the race take place in the early part of June next, and be open to all amateur bicycle men in America. Such an event would rouse wider spread interest, and would result in bringing together a galaxy of racing men never before seen in a contest for road racing honors.

"Little difficulty would be experienced in the success ful installation for prizes in view of the fact that the affair is to be a national one, and the distance seventy-four miles, a sufficiently long and trying contest. In view of such a race a number of bicycle manufacturers have volunteered to contribute to the prize list."

As road racing seems to be a prominent feature this season, the adoption of Mr. Irving's idea would secure entries from wheels all over the country, who could not fail to make the event an interesting one. So well was the matter realized that it is very probable that the League will see that such an event is officially made an annual feature.

An Offer From the L. A. W.

The road improvement committees of the New York and Connecticut divisions of the League of American Wheelmen announce that in their efforts to clearly describe the miserable conditions of roads, &c., in the surrounding towns, they will award between now and May 1 the sum of $100 for the best collection of photographs of poor roads. They will make the awards as follows: One prize of $50 (gold) for the best collection of not less than three photographs; one prize of $30 (gold) for the second best collection of not less than three photographs, and one $20 in gold for the third best collection of three photographs. The object of this is to stimulate amateur photographers to assist the roads improvement committee of the L. A. W. in their efforts to secure better roads. Any photographs taken by photographers for competition will be received by T. E. Potter, 278 Potter building, this city, and C. L. Burdett, Hartford, Conn.

GOV. STANFORD'S TROTTERS.

A Brief Review of the Consignment Now En Route from California.

The consignment of trotting stock, the property of Senator Leland Stanford of Palo Alto Farm, California, now en route for this city, is of especial merit and will undoubtedly bring buyers from all parts of the country on Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday of next week. The American Institute building has been secured once more by Messrs. P. C. Kellogg & Co., and there they will conduct the sale as in former years.

The lot numbers over 100 head, and among them will be found many sons and daughters of the dead Electioneer, Piedmont, Ansel, Nephew, Whips, Clay, Faills, Will Crocker, Bentonian, Woolsey, and other sires. Senator Stanford has never sent his culls to the New York market, as The Sun's 2:20¾; Egotist, 2:22¾; Gov. Stanford, 2:23¼; Benton, 2:23¾; Arbutus, 2:24¼; Electrician, 2:24¼; Morea, 2:25; Conductor, 2:25, and several others in the 2:30 list were sold here undeveloped. The present consignment is rich in individual merit as well as in breeding, and those in search of Electioneers had better grasp the present opportunity, as it will probably be the last occasion on which any of the progeny of that famous sire will be offered. Many of his get have not been handled for speed, but among those catalogued there are some sure-enough trotters. The four-year-old colt out of thoroughbred Mamie C. by Hercules, and therefore a brother to Armoor (2:24¾), is a big fellow 16 hands high, who has shown quarters in 38 seconds. One can scarcely go wrong on his kind. The eight-year-old horse Leyton, out of thoroughbred Miss Peyton by Glengarry, showed a mile as a five-year-old in 2:26¾, and was in training up to the time he left the coast. The three-year-old colt out of Pisanetta by Planet is bred in almost the same lines as the famous Palo Alto, and he gives promise of becoming a race horse and a trotter, having shown quarters in 42 seconds as a two-year-old. Then there is the bay stallion Vincenzo, foaled in 1885, out of Victoria by thoroughbred Don Victor. This fellow has shown a mile in 2:24¾, and was second in a race at Napa in November last in 2:25, and again in 2:26¾. Piedmont has a sterling representative in the chestnut horse Carlisle out of Isabella by Hyndyk's Hambletonian. This horse, now seven years old, took a three-year-old record of 2:28¾, and as a five-year-old won a race in 2:26¾, 2:26¾, 2:26¾. This is said to be no measure of his speed, and Marvin expects him to beat 2:20. Magra by Ansel is a chestnut mare out of Mary, by Miller's Sir Clair, she is six years old, and trotted a trial in 2:31 last year and showed quarters in 35 seconds. Lot 107 is a full sister to The Seer, 2:20¾, being by General Benton, and out of Odette by Electioneer. She has shown quarters in 36 seconds. Lot 110 will interest followers of the running turf. She is the running mare Flush, five years old, by Will Crocker, and her dam is thoroughbred Hayything, by Alarm, who is also the dam of Tournament, the great three-year-old colt that placed over $39,000 to the credit of Senator Hearst in 1890. Flush is unbroken.

The whole catalogue might be reviewed, but intending purchasers should visit the American Institute building before the sale, when the horses will be shown on the eighth of a mile track. The horses will arrive here on Thursday and will be taken to their quarters at once.

Billiards and Pool.

The billiard and pool tournaments now in progress between the members of the Berkeley Athletic Association in their club house are creating much interest, the handicaps being well adjusted to the playing abilities of the different contestants.

In the billiard tournament, first round, Dr. Syms (10) defeated Armory, 200 to 149; Worcester (10) defeated Spackman (scratch), 200 to 154; Holbrook (40) defeated Pierson (50), 200 to 198; Thorne (40) defeated Hertzel (100), 200 to 110, and White (25) defeated R. Syms (100), 200 to 104. In the second round the winners were Armory, who beat R. Syms 200 to 154, and Dr. Syms, who won from Worcester by 200 to 138. In the third round but one game has so far been played, Thorne defeating Armory by 200 to 174.

In the pool tournament, which is also handicap, the games in the first round resulted as follows: Thorne (55), defeated F. J. Smith (35), 200 to 158; Jessup (50), defeated Fiske (70), 200 to 187; Mattheson (70) beat Davis (50), 200 to 188; Dr. Syms (scratch), beat G. T. Smith (50), 200 to 155; Lefferts (20), defeated De Rusey (70), 200 to 163; McClintock (35), beat R. Syms (50), 200 to 181; Merritt (0), beat Stevens (70), 200 to 97; and Armory (50), beat Billings (50), 200 to 176. In the second round McClintock won from G. T. Smith by 200 to 193; Davis beat Thorne, 200 to 156; Billings beat Merritt, 200 to 156; and Thorne beat De Rusey, 200 to 119.

Frank Ives has been trying to make a match at 14-inch balk line pool for $500 a side with Margioli, but the latter refuses to play.

A very interesting game of continuous pool was played a few evenings ago at Maurice and John's billiard room on Lexington avenue. The contestants were F. J. French and Andrew Alcorn. The former won the handicap pool tournament at this place in 1889, while Albert won first prize in the last tournament, French being barred. French offered to concede Albert the odds of 50 points in a 1,000-point game. The latter accepted the offer, and the men met, with the result that French proved to be far the best player, he winning by 1,000 to 847.

Albert Powers, the ex champion at continuous pool, has again challenged Charles H. Mannike for the championship and $200. The latter has accepted and the game will be played about the first of next month in this city or in Brooklyn.

The Riverside Team Won the Trophy.

PENSACOLA, Jan. 20.—The biggest shooting event that has been held in this county for some time past came off to-day on the grounds of the Freehold Club. It was a team shoot. Four teams of 12 men representing the Dayton Club, the New Brunswick Club, the Freehold Club, and the Riverside Club of Red Bank took part. The prize was a handsome silver punch bowl, with silver cups and tray. Each club paid an equal share for the purchase of the prize. The conditions were as follows: Five traps, 20 clay birds to a man. American Association rules to govern. A representative of each team was chosen for judge, and Carroll Von Langarke was chosen referee. The men shot in squares of four from each team. The result was as follows:

Riverside Team—S. M. Cooper 18, John Cooper, 18; Oscar Hesse, 18; Ed W. Throckmorton, 16; James Cooper, 17; H. C. Wintermute, 17; F. Seale, 18; William H. Little, 14; M. F. Cornwell, 14; A. A. Coleman, 18; Al Irvine, 13; J. B. Bergen, 11. Total, 186.

Dayton Club—Dr. Carroll, 18; Geo. Snook, 18; C. McDonald, 17; J. Blackwell, 17; F. V. Van Dyke, 16; John Barclay, 15; D. Vanderveer, 14; Jacob Smith, 14; John Stryker, 11; P. D. Emmons, 13; J. V. Emmons, 18; E. C. Guick, 10. Total, 179.

New Brunswick Team—James Cladden, 18; E. M. Fettis, 17; E. Van Ness, 16; V. R. Vorhees, 18; I. Hoagland, 16; H. H. Stevens, 15; O. H. Oakley, 14; J. A. Bliss, 12; J. V. B. Smith, 12; A. L. Mundy, 11; L. M. Hite, 10; H. B. Smith, 10. Total, 167.

Freehold Team—J. F. Conover, 18; J. Heyer, 18; A. J. Buck, 15; John Dubois, 15; J. W. Dauber, 15; I. D. Norton, 14; W. S. Burtis, 14; C. Snyder, 12; Elias Vanderveer, 12; H. Davis, 12; Charles Shepard, 12; H. Hance, 11. Total, 166.

The betting before the match was in favor of the Riverside team, but on the first 50 birds of each team the Dayton club got 3 in the lead and were the favorites, some of the Riverside men, who thought their club would win, got 3 to 1 for their money, and there was lots of it to be had.

Light-weight Boxers Unhappy.

The question as to who rightfully is entitled to the boxing light-weight championship of America seems to be a matter admitting of a great deal of dispute. James Rice of the Varuna Boat Club was declared the champion at the recent meeting of the Amateur Athletic Union, but Leeds, the Atlantic City dodger, has a host of friends who believe that he was properly entitled to the distinction. Now comes two more young men who are ambitious to secure the title. They are Hugh Winters of the Bridge Athletic Club and William Maloney of the Standard Athletic Club. Like in the case of Rice, who defeated Leeds, Mr. Carry got the verdict over Winters, but the losers in both instances claim that the test was hardly a fair one. To settle the question the following letter has been sent to the editor of THE SUN:

"A number of gentlemen who are interested in sparring think it would be a great card for some one of the athletic clubs to offer a special trophy for a bout between Hugh Winters and James Rice. The many admirers of Winters feel confident that he can beat Rice, and if the Varuna Boat Club could be induced to interest themselves in this matter and complete arrangements to bring the men together at the club's next special tourney, a very lively and delectable menu would thus be served on the card of good things. However, if the above proposition fails to meet the views of the club officials, what is the matter with another bout between William McGarry and Winters for 'blood,' and incidentally 'satisfaction?'

"Winters's admirers will vouch for the prompt acceptance of either of the above propositions if the offer is made. We feel confident that he will not disappoint them as to the result of the decision at the conclusion of the four rounds.

A. A. GRAVE."

The Sun's Individual Bowling Championship Tournament.

Last February when Joe Thum announced that he was ready to receive application from bowlers who wished to compete in the individual championship tournament, the knowing ones did not give him any encouragement, predicting a failure for the tourney. Thum, however, started his tournament, and it proved a success from the start. The venture had been tried numerous times but always failed, but in this case large crowds gathered at his alleys in Greenwich street to see the battles among the maple sphere rollers. The only drawback to the tournament was that a few of the players were outclassed and had no business whatever to compete against their strong opponents. The players who competed were Kalsdorf, Schwacke, Muller, Paulsen, Keller, Heinhurst, Bullwinkel, Ries, Winters, Ritter, Frercks, Lehrbach, Thyne, Barkeare, and Stevens. Ever since Lehrbach won the championship he has been challenged time and again, but in every match he has proved his claim as champion.

Joe Thum, however, does not believe in these match games, and is preparing for another championship tourney, but only among the strongest players. He has named it THE SUN'S individual championship tournament, and expects it to outlast that of last year. Almost but fifteen players will participate, the winners to receive gold medals besides other prizes. Each contestant will have to pay an entrance fee of $10, from which the prizes will be distributed.

The games will not begin until the Academy tournament is settled, which will be in about three weeks.

The third game in the Academy tournament on Monday night was won by the Erskeville team. The score:

Delmont Still America's Champion Short Distance Roller Skater.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 20.—Frank Delmont still holds the fastest one-mile roller skating record in this country, having defeated J. S. Snowden in the Mechanics' Pavilion in 3:03¾. The race was for a purse of $1,000 and the championship of America. Snowden is the long-distance champion, having only a short time ago skated 295 miles in twenty-four hours. Delmont has been the short-distance champion of America, but in this last contest he lowered his previous record of 3:09¾. The world's best record for 3:00¾, made in London. In this race Snowden had the lead for the first seven laps, when Delmont, by a great spurt, went ahead ten feet. Snowden closed up the gap, and kept abreast of his rival until they were on the last lap. Then Delmont spurted again, and brought up to the tape two feet ahead.

Jim Hall is Coming Over to Fight Fitzsimmons.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 20.—According to reports brought by Joe Harris, the Melbourne bookmaker, Jim Hall, the Australian champion middle weight, is eager to fight Fitzsimmons. Harris arrived from Australia yesterday, and was very angry when he heard last night for the first time that Fitzsimmons in giving his record to reporters had left Orchard out of the list of victims Jim Hall in Sydney. Harris offers to bet $5,000 that Hall whipped him in 34 rounds. Harris says that Hall is the greatest middle weight in the world, and can whip Fitzsimmons any time he pleases. The reporting of Harris's friends were indignant, and claimed that he was "thrown down," but it was a joke, for the opposition decided to "lift him higher," and he was chosen Secretary, by acclamation. In that position he will be of more service to the organization than with the money bags of the club. Perhaps it was thinking he was chosen financial Secretary and Pat McKenna Sergeant-at-Arms, that Rice was rejected Captain. It was decided to apply to the Amateur Athletic Union at the next meeting of the Board of Managers for Hall's membership in the national athletic body. It was also decided to hold an athletic entertainment shortly, and the committee was appointed for the purpose. A committee was appointed to secure a new club house, the present quarters occupied by the club being found totally inadequate for the rapidly increasing membership of the club.

COLORED BOXERS IN THE RING.

The Salvator Athletic Association's Tournament in Jersey City.

The preliminary bouts of the colored boxing championships of the Salvator Athletic Club were decided last night at the Oakland Rink in Jersey City. The referee was Pat Cahill. The events resulted as follows:

BANTAM CLASS, 105 POUNDS.

Fred Johnson of the Hoboken A. C. and Fred Ricco of the Salvator A. C. were the opposing twain. The latter looked a giant compared with his pigmy opponent. There was a shower of blows during the entire bout, many of which fanned the air. However, Johnson did the most leading and was declared superior by the referee.

The second pair in this class were James Curtis of the Nonpareil A. C. and John Gardner of Jersey City. They flew at each other like a pair of Maryland game cocks, and the storm of blows never abated until Gardner was sent heels up through the ropes in the latter part of the second round.

Sam Marshall of Jersey City and Fred Ricco of the Salvator A. C. came together in the third bout. Ricco's swings were too much for Marshall, and he quit at the expiration of the second round. This victory makes Ricco eligible to compete in the finals.

FEATHER-WEIGHT CLASS, 115 POUNDS.

The opening bout was between Henry Morris of Jersey City and John Davis of New York city. Both came to the scratch reluctantly at the call of time. The Gothamite played possum. He let the Jerseyman lead once. That was all. The latter received his quietus by a right-hand jab, and it was many seconds before he felt
