WOODCUTTER UNDER A PULL.

THE COLT BEATS THE CRACKS ON THE HILL IN HOLLOW STYLE.

Burnside Downs the Favorites in Another Race at a Mile—Periwinkle Gelding Scores One—Honors Evenly Divided.

A large attendance, heavy track, and lively betting were the features at Guttenburg yesterday. The talent had nothing to complain about, as three of the races were won by favorites, and the other three fell to horses more or less backed by shrewd investors.

Of the thirteen very ordinary maidens that started in the opening race, Ozone was the first tip that filled the air, and the gelding went to the post at odds of 6 to 5 against. Another tip on Flagrant, with Penny up, made him second choice at 4 to 1. Roseville rating third at 5 to 1, Mr. Caldwell sent the big field away in snug shape. Ozone ran a good third to the head of the homestretch, where Flagrant began to drop back from second place and Ozone passed Tennessee II., the leader. Clayton now had the race in his grip, and he landed Ozone winner handily by two lengths. Tennessee II., a 20 to 1 chance, getting the place from Lyceum, another outsider, by a neck. Flagrant finished in the rush.

After backing in so many of the winners planked their cash on Macauley to win the second race at odds of 7 to 5, Neptunus carrying a lot of money as second choice at 4 to 1. The sports overlooked Burnside, who went begging at 8 to 1, although Clayton had the mount and third filly Idle Kate in the pavilion. Clayton rode to win from the first girth. Holding the lead from flag all to finish, Burnside won by a length, Macauley second, three lengths in front of Landacer.

Seven started in the selling race at three-quarters of a mile. Latina, at 8 to 5 against, Sandstone, 2 to 1, and Periwinkle gelding at 6 to 1, carried most of the big lot of money bet on the race. Latina, Sandstone, and Periwinkle moved away in the front row. Sandstone moved out and led by two lengths at a furlong, and held the van well into the homestretch, when Periwinkle gelding challenged the leader and won by a length. Sandstone beating Athalie filly two lengths for the place.

The fourth race, at a mile, was a great betting event. The money backed on Woodcutter made the colt an odds-on favorite at 8 to 5. Al Farrow having the second call at 16 to 5, Penny sent Woodcutter out at the start, was never headed, and won under a pull by five lengths. Frances S. snatching the place from Little Fred by a neck.

Chancellor, at odds of 8 to 5, and Khaftan at 2 to 1, were the selections for the fifth race. Peril, a 5 to 1 shot, ridden by Weber, took the lead at the start and held it to the finish, winning by two lengths. Shotover beat Khaftan half a length for second place, the favorite finishing fourth.

Armiel, first choice at 7 to 5 against, in the sixth race, came in the last half furlong, and won by two lengths from Arizona. Chilhowie third. The summary:

A Horseman Suing the New York Central for $10,000.

Edward H. Cunningham of Boston began suit in the United States Circuit Court today to recover $10,000 from the New York Central and Hudson River Railroad Company for personal injuries he received last October by being thrown from a train while in charge of a shipment of horses being transported by the defendants from Buffalo to Albany.

News from the Horse World.

On behalf of the Saratoga Racing Association, D. J. Arkell yesterday signed a contract with J. H. Hampton, the well-known photographer of the Coney Island Jockey Club, to take snap shots of the winners at the summer meeting of the association, which will be held at the Springs this season.

BAYSIDE, Feb. 10.—C. H. Nelson, the Waterville breeder, is making numerous sales of fine stock this month, and the prices obtained are generally high. A mare by Alcantara, in foal to Nelson, was sold last week to a gentleman from St. Paul, at a fancy figure, and a couple of brood mares, one in foal to Brilliant, the other to Dictator Chief, were also disposed of, going to the Maritime Provinces. The mare Misty Maid, with a third heat record in 1890 of 2:31¾, was purchased by C. H. Richardson of Boston, who Mr. Morgan of New York took four colts ones from Sunnyside stables. Among the new arrivals at Nelson's farm is the four-year-old stallion Abbott's Nelson, by Nelson, dam by Gen. Knox, second dam the dam of Ben Morrill, 2:17, and Purity, 2:34. This young stallion will probably be driven by Mr. Nelson this season, and much is expected of him.

WILL THEY LOSE EASTERN PARK?

Chauncey Wants the Brooklyns (Limited) to Pay a Year's Rent or Get Out.

It was expected that everything had been satisfactorily settled in Brooklyn so that the two clubs would be consolidated to-morrow. A meeting of the directors and stockholders was held last Saturday, and they voted to ratify Wendell Goodwin's plan of consolidation. Yesterday, however, another obstacle was put in the consolidation's pathway. George W. Chauncey was the prime mover.

Mr. Chauncey is President of the Ridgewood Land and Improvement Company, from which the Brooklyns (Limited) leased Eastern Park last spring for a term of five years, at an annual rental of $7,500. Not a cent of that money has been paid for last season's use of the park, and as the last payment was due Dec. 1, 1890, Mr. Chauncey, on behalf of the Ridgewood Land and Improvement Company, has brought suit against the club to dispossess it of the lease of the grounds.

The case will be called for settlement next Monday morning. If the club does not pay the rental it will be good-by to Eastern Park and consolidation, for without the grounds the Brooklyns (Limited) have very little to offer. President Goodwin must see do some clear hustling to keep up the credit of the concern. It is pretty safe to say, from the stand that Chauncey has taken, that the Brooklyn Club next season will be found at Washington Park.

Mr. Chauncey refused to say anything about the matter yesterday. His affidavit before Justice Welsh in the Adams street police court, he said, follows:

"Deponent saith that he is President of the Ridgewood Land and Improvement Company, a corporation duly organized under the laws of the State of New York, and that said corporation is the owner in fee of the premises hereinafter mentioned on the ground set forth in the following petition:

"State of New York, County of Kings, City of Brooklyn, ss.: Ridgewood Land and Improvement Company, by Geo. W. Chauncey, President. The petition of the Ridgewood Land and Improvement Company respectfully represents and shows that your petitioner is a corporation duly organized under the laws of the State of New York, that it is the landlord of the Brooklyn Limited in respect to the premises now in the occupation of the said the Brooklyn Limited as tenant, and described as follows, to wit: All that four pieces of land situated, lying, and being in the city of Brooklyn, bounded as follows: On the north by Malters Parkway, on the south by Butler avenue, on the west by Powell street, and on the east by Vesta avenue, together with the buildings thereon erected. And your petitioner further shows that on or about the day of March, in the said Ridgewood Land and Improvement Company, as such landlord, leased the said premises to the said the Brooklyn Limited to be used for a term of five years, to commence on the first day of March, 1890, at the yearly rental of $7,500, payable quarterly in advance. That the said the Brooklyn Limited entered into the possession of the said premises, and has continued to do so to the present time by virtue of the said agreement, and that the Brooklyn Limited are justly indebted to the above-named landlord, in the sum of $7,500, due the 1st day of December, 1890, for the twelve months rent of said premises, which became due and payable on the 1st day of December, to wit: $1,875 due on March 1, 1890; $1,875 due June 1, 1890; $1,875 due Sept. 1, 1890, and $1,875 due Dec. 1, 1890, that he has demanded the said rent from the said the Brooklyn Limited since the same became due and payable, under said agreement, and that it has made default in the payment thereof, pursuant to the agreement under which the premises were leased, and that the said the Brooklyn Limited held over and continue in possession of the same without permission of the landlord, after default in the payment of the rent, as aforesaid.

Therefore your petitioner prays for a final order to remove said tenant, the Brooklyn Limited, from said premises, and your petitioner will ever pray, &c.

Dated Feb. 11, 1891.

RIDGEWOOD LAND AND IMPROVEMENT COMPANY,
By GEORGE W. CHAUNCEY.

STATE OF NEW YORK, COUNTY OF KINGS, ss.—George W. Chauncey, being duly sworn, says that he is the President of the Brooklyn Land and Improvement Company above named, and that the foregoing petition is true of his own knowledge except as to the matter therein stated to be alleged on his information and belief, and as to those matters he believes it to be true.

GEORGE W. CHAUNCEY.

Gore and Glasscock Shake Hands.

George Gore of last season's New York Players' League team and Jack Glasscock of the National League team met at E. B. Talcott's office and shook hands over the "bloody chasm." There did not appear to be any ill feeling between them. A Sun reporter had just emerged from the elevator when he saw them coming out of Mr. Talcott's office.

"Why, how's this? What's happened?" they were asked.

"Oh, nothing much," exclaimed Gore, "only Jack and I are going down for the cigars. We are coming back again."

Then they got into the elevator and went down to the cafe. When they came back Glasscock was called inside to see Mr. Day and Mr. Talcott. He was gone only a few seconds when Gore was called in.

"Wait for me Jack, I will be out shortly," said Gore.

"All right," was the answer.

"I did not want to stay in New York," said Glasscock to the reporter. "It was my desire to be nearer home, in Pittsburgh. Besides, I could have got more money there. But as the officials here wanted me to stay, I had to. I am sorry I ever signed a three years' contract, but if I had signed but for one year I would now be at liberty. No, I don't mind what the newspapers say about me. If I did, I would have been crazy long ago. I was asked to come down in my salary and I did so, no matter who says I did not. I guess I ought to know, as it affects me and nobody else. Now that I am booked to play in New York I shall do all I can to win games."

Mr. Day, President of the Players' League, said he felt no ill feeling against any player. Base ball is a business, it is my livelihood, and I know now that there is no sentiment connected with it. There must be harmony in the New York club, and I shall do all I can to bring it about. The only thing I am kicking on is that the salary I am to get has been incorrectly given out. It will be considerably more than $2,000."

Organizing a Semi-Professional League.

Efforts are now being made to organize a semi-professional base ball league for this locality, and it is expected that at a meeting to be held on next Tuesday that everything will be so arranged as to make it a reality. A preliminary meeting was held last Tuesday, at which the Senators, Flushings, Orchards, Allertons, and Cuban Giants were represented. Applications were received from several other clubs, which will be considered at a later date. It is expected that the championship season will be opened on May 1. The membership of the League will be restricted to either nine or eight clubs, and a salary limit will be appointed. In order to do away with an objectionable feature that has been characteristic of all semi professional leagues it is the intention to have each club furnish a bond to the amount of $500 to the association, so that a player will not be allowed to play this Sunday in one club and another Sunday in another. Each club will be allowed to carry 15 players, including a manager.

Manager Bright of the Cuban Giants has just engaged Clarence Williams to play shortstop and captain the Cuban Giants. Manager Bright says that his players are all in good condition for the coming season. The team will open on the Haverstraw grounds on May 23. He has already filled dates with clubs for the second and fourth week in each month from May to September. The Orchards will probably enter the new Semi-Professional League. Clubs desiring games for Saturdays and holidays in Haverstraw, N. Y., can address Manager Bright at 153 Prince street, New York.

Signing Players for Next Season.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 12.—George Keefe, who played with the Buffalo Brotherhood team last year, has accepted terms, and will play in Washington the coming season. Before signing Keefe was subjected to a severe lecture from Director Scanlon as to what was expected of him, and the left hander promised to put forth his best efforts to justify the opinion recently expressed by Catcher Tom Daly in the effect that he regards George Keefe as the best left-handed pitcher he ever saw behind. Pitcher Rakely has also accepted Washington's terms. He will come at once to Washington, and remain here until the playing season begins.

Before starting for Secretary Young promulgated the following bulletin:

Contracts for 1891—With Cleveland, Charles L. Zimmer; with Milwaukee, George W. Davis; with Pittsburg, E. H. Ritchey and M. L. Baker; with Denver, George Tebeau; with Louisville, E. M. Daily, H. L. Taylor, J. K. Ryan, W. F. Wolf, T. J. Shinnick, and W. H. Weaver; with Columbus, J. L. Sneed.

Terms Accepted—By Milwaukee, S. M. Dungan; by Omaha, G. G. Cherrott; by Washington, William McGuire; by Philadelphia (A. A.), A. Weyhing; and R. Chamberlain; by Boston (A. A.), Cornelius Mack and Morgan Murphy.

John B. Day Elected President of the New York Club.

Jersey City was invaded by base ball magnates yesterday morning at ½ o'clock, not to establish a team in that town, but to incorporate the New York Club. This was because New Jersey is more liberal in its treatment of corporations than New York. Taylor's Hotel, which has been the scene of many base ball meetings, but none of them so important as this one, was the place the magnates sought. There were present John B. Day, Jim Mutrie, Frank S. Talcott, James E. Sullivan, and Andre Henry E. Bacon.

The incorporation papers were filed the company to be known as the National Exhibition Company. The following Board of Directors was elected: John B. Day, E. B. Talcott, J. W. Spalding, C. T. Dillingham, Robinson, Cornelius Van Cott, and James E. Sullivan. The directors then elected John B. Day President and E. B. Talcott Secretary and Treasurer.

Messrs. Day, Spalding, and Talcott were appointed an executive committee to look out for the interests of the new club, and they were authorized by full power to make contracts and engage and release players. The secretary was ordered to have the company's seal made. It will be a metallic disk with the name of the company inscribed, with the words "Incorporated Feb. 12, 1891."

Base Ball Notes.

Will O'Neill, who pitched last season for the Westfields, N. J., club, please send his address to THE SUN!

The Star Athletic Base Ball Club of Newark have organized for the season with a strong team, and are open for engagements with all semi-professional clubs giving suitable guarantee. Address New York avenue and Adams street, Newark.

William Keiser, who played with many of the local semi-professional clubs, is open for an engagement to play first base for Sunday games only. He can be addressed care of THE SUN.

John Burdock, the veteran second baseman, says he has been taking good care of himself and has been working all winter. He would like to hear from managers in need of a second baseman. His address is 810 Vanderbilt avenue, Brooklyn.

It seems probable that Brooklyn will next season have an A. A. C. base ball contest. Three clubs are necessary, and two are now assured. The Prospect Harriers will fight for honors, and Judge Tighe yesterday announced that the Varnau Boat Club would also be represented.

It is probable that a strong semi-professional club will be organized in Harlem to be known as the Invincibles. It is said that the following players have agreed to play on the team: Costello, late with the Johnstown Diamonds; Keefe, late with Troy; Siefke, who played with the New York National League and Brooklyn Association clubs; Powers, late with the Brooklyn Association club; also McCann, Keiser, Morris, and Kelly, all local players.

Manhattan Athletic Club Billiards.

The result of the games in the Manhattan Athletic Club championship scratch billiard tournament on Wednesday night was: S. F. Stratton, 150; C. W. Moore, 116. Second game—C. H. Steinway, 150; G. W. Moore, 140.

In the first game last night Dr. A. L. Sanney beat N. W. Anthony by 1 [illegible].

Second game—E. B. Apgar, 150; G. W. Moore, 127.

BASE BALL TROUBLE IN LOUISVILLE.

Its Club to be Sold at Auction to Satisfy the Warring Stockholders.

LOUISVILLE, Feb. 12.—The Louisville Club is to be sold at public auction in a few days and the affairs of the club, which have been in a very tangled shape for nearly two months past, have at last been amicably adjusted, and the warring factions have come to an understanding which promises to bring order out of chaos. Major Thomas and Thomas Bateman, Secretary and Treasurer of the club, had a long conference this morning, and it was practically agreed that the Major would either join with the "syndicate," as the majority faction is known, or organize a syndicate himself for the purchase of the club. Whatever rivalry there may be in the effort to get control of the club will be entirely friendly and both sides will do everything they can to get a good price for the club. There is no doubt that it will be a paying investment next year, and that properly managed it ought to be worth at least $[illegible].

It was sold to the syndicate several months ago for $[illegible], but the money secured the clubs which constituted principally of loans made by them to the club.

In regard to the present understanding Thomas J. Bateman said this morning: "We have all come to an understanding, and the Falls City Bank has agreed to take back the club and foreclose the mortgage in the legal way. We have offered to take Major Thomas in with us on our bid, but he has not yet decided what he will do in the matter. He may decide to organize another syndicate and buy up the club. In either case I think Mr. Parsons will be re-elected President. If the club brings $25,000, as it should, why, the new owners will be unable to pay off all the debts and we will get back all the money we put up. Of course if the club is sold by reason of foreclosure, the old corporation ceases to exist, and the stockholders will neither get back what they put in, nor share in the profits. It is pretty safe to say, from the stand that Chauncey has taken, that the Brooklyn Club next season will be found at Washington Park.

Mr. Chauncey refused to say anything about the matter yesterday. His affidavit before Justice Welsh in the Adams street police court, he said, follows:

"Deponent saith that he is President of the Ridgewood Land and Improvement Company, a corporation duly organized under the laws of the State of New York, and that said corporation is the owner in fee of the premises hereinafter mentioned on the ground set forth in the following petition:

SHOOTING.

Unknown Gun Club Men at the Traps.

The trap shooters who go to Dexter Park, L. I., with the intention of receiving their full value of sport for the time and money expended are seldom disappointed, as yesterday's results again proved. The eighteen members of the Unknown Gun Club, which were holding their regular monthly shoot, enjoyed themselves thoroughly, for the contests in the different classes were sharp, the birds were strong of wing, weather, wind, and light favored the marksmen and the number of shooters and spectators present left an liberal nest to the match. Old Long Island rules, adopted by the club, were strictly enforced, the gun to be fired only below the waist, and the bird left on the ground one barrel could be used only. Of course the second barrel was brought into play repeatedly to save the pieces from the pot hunters, but a bird falling under second fire was invariably scored a miss.

The prizes consisted of the club badge and four money prizes, four man tying for the medal and first money for six killed. Dr. Schwartz, although suffering from an attack of rheumatism in his right arm, outshot his three competitors and secured first prize. Six men tied for second money and in the shoot-off Langenberg came to the front, one of the veterans in the club, who had but little difficulty in outstripping the rest of his class. Markhoff won third money, and the fourth prize was divided between Conklin and Schumacher.

The scores in the regular shoot, club handicap rises, old Long Island rules, seven birds each man and the results of the shoot-off at the traps are as follows:

Ryan, 28 yards, 6; Johnson, 28 yards, 6; Langenberg, 25 yards, 5; Hemering, 22 yards, 2; Vroome, 25 yards, 3; Behling, 25 yards, 4; Von Bladen, 24 yards, 3; Kiesling, 25 yards, 3; Markhoff, 25 yards, 4; Schmidt, 22 yards, 5; Vagts, 25 yards, 3; Pfohlmann, 25 yards, 4; Deetjen, 21 yards, 2; Markhoff, 21 yards, 4; Dr. Schwartz, 25 yards, 6; L. Hyde, 20 yards, 0; Skidmore, 24 yards, 5; Schumacher, 21 yards, 3.

Ties for first prize and the club badge, three birds, then miss and out—Dr. Schwartz, 3; Johnson, 2; Leinkan, 2; Hyde, 2.

Ties for second prize, miss and out—Von Bladen, 3; Ryan, 2; H. Knebel, sr., 2; Langenberg, 1; Skidmore, 0; Cahill, retired.

Shoot-off for third prize same conditions—Markhoff, 2; Kohling 1; Pfohlmann, 0.

Hitting the Bull's-eye.

Messrs. Steffens and Tamm of the Turtle Bay Rifle Club, not being satisfied with the outcome of the two-men team race arranged by the club recently, challenged the winning team, Messrs. Plate and Ochs, to a 40 shot match, offhand, on the Zettler 25-ring target, possible 1,000 points. The contest took place on Wednesday evening at the club's range, 146 East Forty-second street, and Plate and Ochs were again the winners. The scores of the marksmen were as follows:

Plate—246, 242, 237, 237—952. Ochs—248, 237, 237, 228—950. Total, 1,902. Steffens—233, 228, 235, 232—929. Tamm—233, 227, 236, 230—926. Total, 1,855.

The regular practice shoot of the Miller Rifle Club took place at the club's shooting gallery, 46 Steuben street, Hoboken, on Wednesday evening. The regular 2-ring target, 10 shots each man, offhand, for first prize, were taken on the following results: Jennings, 24; Fischer, 24; H. Miller, 24; C. Helsted, 23; F. Liehl, 23; Capt. Dewey, 23; H. Hencker, 22; D. Peters, 22; J. Carlior, 22; F. Steinke, 22; W. Taylor, 22; J. Hughes, 22; J. Nelson, 21; Counsel, 20.

One of the first events after the opening of the outdoor rifle shooting season will be a 100-bullseye match for a handsome trophy to be won by President R. Walter of the Eastern Rifle Club, and H. Ulrich, President of the Harlem Rifle Club. Mr. Keyes challenged the presiding officer of the Zettlers on Wednesday evening during the prize shoot of the Harlem Club, and the challenge was promptly accepted. The match will take place at the Cypress Hills range, under the following conditions: One hundred shots each man, offhand, on the German 25-inch target, 25 yards, 5 shots in the bullseye, 200 yards, the loser to pay the shooting expenses. Mr. Keyes has the privilege of handing the day. Mr. Walther having declared his readiness to shoot at any time.

Fine Prizes for High Scores.

The Harlem Rifle Club's prize shoot, which was in progress for three days at their headquarters, ended on Wednesday night in a somewhat surprising manner, for during the last two hours of the contest the old Essex Indian, J. Coppersmith, appeared on the range, and, after a short and decisive struggle, managed to reach first place in the contest for the Zettler rifle, and also captured the second premium for the five best scores. J. A. Boyken, to whose hard work much of the meeting's success is due, was second, and E. Fischer of the Millers was fifth. The prizes, names of the prize winners, and their scores were as follows:

Prize shoot, open to all, three shots each man, best three scores to count; 25-ring target, one-sixteenth inch rings, quarter-inch centre, two-inch bull's-eye; entries un limited. $25, J. Coppersmith, Essex Indians, 73, 74, 74—221; $17.50 each, C. Hilland and L. Hach, Zettler Rifle Club, 72, 72, 74—218; each $12, J. A. Boyken, Harlem Rifle Club, 72, 72, 73—217; $7 each, F. Fischer, Miller Rifle Club, 71, 72, 72—216, and G. Zimmermann, Bull's Head Rifle Club, 72, 72, 72—216; $5 each, R. Walther, Zettler Rifle Club, 70, 71, 73—214, and H. Hedges, same club, 71, 71, 72—214; $4.67 each, G. D. Wiegman, Essex Indians, 70, 70, 74—212; William Haney, Harlem Rifle Club, 68, 70, 74—212, and Dr. Ulrich, Zettler Rifle Club, 70, 71, 71—212. $4, W. J. Tucker, Harlem Rifle Club, 69, 71, 71—211; $3.50 each, G. G. Zettler, Zettler Rifle Club, 70, 70, 70—210, and Dr. Ulrich, Zettler Rifle Club, 69, 70, 71—210; $3 each, S. THE ENGLISH CHAMPIONSHIP MATCH.

John North Playing Strongly in His $5,000 Game with Champion Roberts.

The great match between John Roberts, jr., the English champion billiardist, and John North began splendidly, so the English newspapers report, on Feb. 2 at Egyptian Hall, North playing with unexpected brilliancy and steadiness. Roberts conceded North the enormous odds of 12,000 in 24,000 points at the 18-inch barred game.

John North is a Bristol man, and he has proven his prowess as a player by defeating Mr. J. Prall, champion at the 18-inch balkline game, in a match. On the first day of the match North had scored 930 points to Roberts's 216. On the second night he scored 1,070 to the champion's 966, playing a superb game. The scores stood at the beginning of the third day, with North's allowance: North, 14,000; Roberts, 3,846.

Billiard and Pool Notes.

WOULD-BE AMATEURS MUST GO.

That Seems to be the Opinion Among the Big Club Officials.

It becomes more evident each succeeding day that the various athletic clubs of the metropolis have been and are now earnestly intent on the grand work of purifying athletics, and that the members of the different organizations have never for a moment relaxed their vigorous efforts in the direction of weeding out professionalism and placing all branches of amateur sport on an amateur foundation. The New York Athletic Club proved the sincerity of its convictions by limiting the value of medals to a point that will no doubt disgust the "amateur" boxers and precluded their participation in future amateur boxing contests. A $20 medal, in its original state or melted, has not the attraction for a purely "amateur" boxer possessed by a $65 gold watch or nugget, and is insignificant when displayed alongside of $50 in greenbacks. The action of the New York Athletic Club was emphatic, and stands out as prominently as a broiled beefsteak before a hungry tramp.

Upon reading the New York A. C. proclamation the general officials of the Manhattan A. C. announced in one voice that the New York A. C. was simply carrying out views long held and frequently expressed by themselves, and that as a matter of fact there was nothing new in it. This placed the Manhattan A. C. officials before the public as reformers, and everything went along joyously until suddenly F. W. Janssen spoke:

"Do you know that the athletes of the Staten Island Athletic Club grow faint and weary when they hear these other clubs trying to take the credit of inaugurating reform in the matter of athletes' expenses, &c. Why, the Staten Island Athletic Club was the first organization to make a
