NOW OR NEVER, 20 TO 1 SHOT.

HE WINS THE TURF, FIELD, AND FARM HANDICAP ON THE HILL.

Khaftan also Surprises the Talent in the Sport Handicap—Michael Dwyer's Joe Wins a Costly Little Selling Purse.

The thousands of racegoers who tossed their money to the bookmakers at Guttenburg as freely as though it grew on the bushes fared pretty well yesterday. Three favorites won, and the other purses were captured by horses that the talent should not have permitted to run loose.

Ten started in the opening dash of seven furlongs. Romance was a popular favorite at 6 to 5 against. Emeti filly, a 10 to 1 shot, took the lead in a close race at the head of the homestretch, and won by a neck. Spendall, also at 10 to 1, beat Extra (3 to 1) a length for the place.

Michael Dwyer's colt, Joe, entered at a valuation of $300 in the second race, a scramble of five furlongs for selling platers, was played at odds of 6 to 5, with Jay-Qu-Et second in demand at 5 to 1. Joe led at the start, but was held back in the front row to the turn into the homestretch, where he came again and won easily by four lengths from Jay-Qu-Et. Sam Morse, at 30 to 1, losing the place by a neck. The first bid on the winner was $1,000. Mr. Dwyer smiled and raised the bid $5, getting his colt back at an advance of $705. It was the second time during the week that Mr. Dwyer had to pay to keep Joe.

The third race, a selling sprint at a mile, was won easily by a length and a half by Missalve, first choice at 11 to 10 against. The Sheriff, at 15 to 1, beat Puzzle (second choice at 3½ to 1) a head for the place. The winner was bid in at $1,505, an advance of $505 on the entry price.

Khaftan, third choice at 4 to 1 against, won the handicap at six furlongs, in a sharp struggle at the finish, by a length from Charley Post, first choice at 3 to 1 on. Lizzie, the favorite's stable companion, came third.

The surprise of the day came in the Turf, Field and Farm Handicap. Five started. Now or Never, after a long vacation, was a 20 to 1 shot. Now or Never ran fourth in the sprint race to the last furlong, and then tackled Text, second choice at 6 to 5, beating the colt handily by half a length. Sparling, favorite at 11 to 10, lost second place by a head.

J. H. McCormick's golding Firefly was a strong tip for the last race, and went to the post an even money favorite. Firefly won handily by a length from John Daly (15 to 1). Ariel, at 6 to 1, losing the place by a length. Summary:

A MODIFIED KENTUCKY DIFFICULTY.

Turfman Barney Treacy and Starter Ferguson Slug Each Other.

LEXINGTON, Ky., May 2.—Late last night the well-known breeder and turfman, B. J. Treacy, had a difficulty in his office with Starter James B. Ferguson.

The facts did not come to light until this afternoon, and when it became generally known at the race course there was much gossip over it. Besides his duties as starter, Ferguson handicaps the horses here in the overweight races of that class, and it appears that Treacy took offence at the weight apportioned his horse in a race the other day. When they met last night they came to blows. Ferguson caught a lick in his left eye that still shows the effect of the concussion, while Treacy's face is said to be severely bruised.

Each Score Two Goals at Lacrosse.

There was a spirited game of lacrosse played yesterday on the grounds of the Staten Island Athletic Club between the S. I. A. C. team and Lehigh University. It was a fierce fight from start to finish. It was the Staten Island team's first game and the men were hardly in condition. The collegians were in fine form. Body checking was the feature of the game. Whiting, the new player for the S. I. A. C., seemed to be rather light in comparison with the rest of the players. King did good work for the S. I. A. C., so did Moses. In the first half of the game Banks made two goals for Lehigh, and R. Matthews one for the S. I. A. C. In the second half after some desperate playing, McClain shot the ball through the goal for the S. I. A. C., and when time was called the score was a tie, two goals each. The teams lined up as follows:

S. I. A. C.	Positions.	Lehigh.
H. A. Mathews	Goal	Buckley.
Miller (Capt.)	Point	Hunt
Frowa	Cover point	Raymond
Post	First defence	Macfarland
Moses	Second defence	Denman, '92.
Lanier	Third defence	Denman, '94.
Eschbe	Outer	Miller
McClain	First attack	Vanderhorst.
King	Second attack	Semple
Whiting	Third attack	Van Cleve
Curry	Outside home	Gertsen.
R. Mathews	Inside home	Banks (Capt).

The Sewanhakas on Deck.

The Sewanhaka Boat Club opened their rowing season yesterday in royal fashion at the boat house, foot of Tenth street, Brooklyn. The organization starts out with the brightest prospects it ever enjoyed. The entertainment was a shade better than its predecessors. The members were happy, and they didn't care who knew it. They were ably assisted by their brother oarsmen of Long Island and Gotham.

The programme included Avery and Grimes in a clever boxing bout, Wilson and Ames in a burlesque bout with the gloves, Prof. Fredericks and some fencers, Champion Johnny Gorman, Star A. C., and Billy McGarry, standard A. C., in a rattling bout with the gloves. Charles Beiger, Varuna Boat club swung the Indian clubs finely; Matt and Jim Rice, Pacific Athletic Club gave a good boxing bout.

Among the guests present were: Juan Bacon of Barcelona, Spain; Antonio Torres Martinez of Barcelona, Dr. Amelie Pulg, Hugh Ward, E. O. Tolby, Frank Handry, R. C. Maley, Bernard Marlin, Adolf Buhman, John Haggerty, J. Shaugnsy of the Ravenswood Boat Club, and many others.

A Good Time at the Varuna's House.

It was "opening day" at the Varuna Boat Club house at the foot of Fifty-seventh street, Bay Ridge, yesterday. The affair was one of the most extensive and thoroughly successful which the famous organization ever held. Every conceivable kind of rowing craft was pressed into service during the day. A four-oared crew consisting of Charley Stokum, Ira Baird, Edward Baird, and W. H. Sprague went over the club course in great shape. They ought to make a good crew in the junior class with proper training and coaching.

The menu was extensive and in marked contrast to the usual fare at occasions of this character.

There was several interesting boxing bouts, the one between Mike Leonard and his mentor, Johnny Stuart, being especially meritorious. Johnny undertook to exhibit his charge's prowess, and thus gave the boys a line on the coming fight on Tuesday with Jack Skelly at the Varuna-National show. Mike is down to weight and as hard as nails.

Recitations, songs, addresses, and the toasts to the future prosperity of the Varuna Boat Club were repeatedly given during the celebration.

There Was No Sore end Round.

LAPORTE, Ind., May 2.—The fight between Lee C. Allen of Chicago and H. C. Hanmer of Michigan City, middle weights, which was to have come off at Tyner on Thursday night, was stopped by the Sheriff and a posse at the end of the first round, before either contestant had gained any advantage.

Hanmer had Allen down in the second round, and as assistant were arrested and jailed, the others escaping.

About two hundred sports from Michigan City and Chicago were present. Carney, Allen's second, is matched to fight Dick Keating on May 26 for the heavy weight championship of Indiana.

HUENEME WINS THE RACELAND STAKES

Sallie McClelland, Backed Off the Boards, Falls in the Stretch.

LEXINGTON, May 2.—Again the weather favored the Kentucky Association races here, and a large crowd witnessed some fine sport this afternoon on a track a little too dusty to be fast.

The fourth race was the feature of the day, it being the Raceland Stake for three-year-olds, at a mile, worth $2,000 to the winner. Twelve started. Greenleaf was the favorite and was backed down to 2 to 1 with Hueneme, 122, Overton up, a strong second choice, he going to the post with 3 to 1 against him. Melody and Woodvale made the running till the stretch was reached, and then Hueneme and Mirabeau quickly followed by Brookwood, had a hot race to the wire, the finish being Hueneme, first, a neck; Mirabeau, second, a head before Brookwood, third. Time, 1:49¾. The winner belongs to Clay & Woodford. He is a fine looking brown colt, by Imp. Billet, dam Virgie D. Mirabeau paid 6 to 1 for the place.

The opening scramble was a selling purse at five-eighths of a mile, and had six starters. Eugenie, 105, Freeman up, with 7 to 1 against her, won in a driving finish by a length; Portlaw second, a length before Lepidera third. Time, 1:02.

The second race, a purse for maiden two-year-old fillies, at half a mile, had eleven starters. Strathmaid, 110, Hunt up, a 3 to 1 favorite, won as she pleased by a length and a half. Greenwich second, lapped out by Wagner third. Time, :51 seconds.

The third race, a purse for three-year-old fillies, at three-quarters of a mile, provoked more that usual interest for a purse race on account of Sallie McClelland being a starter. It was her first start this season, and she was plunged on right and left, so that she went to the post at 3 to 1 on, and carrying lots of money even at those odds. She was a good fourth when entering the head of the stretch and it looked as if she could win easily when she was jostled by Miss Hawkins and thrown down. She rolled over in the dust, breaking her saddle off, but Anderson, her jockey, escaped unhurt. The filly was a bit lame when she got in. Chalmers, 107, Overton up, then came on, and after some urging won by a length; Pennyroyal second, three lengths before Miss Hawkins, third. The odds on Ethel were 4 to 1.

The fifth and last race, a purse at nine-sixteenths for two year-olds, was an easy thing for the 3 to 1 favorite, Lord Clifton, 102, Sutton up, he winning by a length. Contest was second, the same distance before Jack Richelieu, third. Time, :57¾ seconds.

CRICKET.

A Good Game at Prospect Park.

The Manhattans, with help from some other Prospect Park clubs, played a good game on the former's wicket yesterday. The game was chiefly noted for Bloxsom's stand for 57 (not out), made, however, with some chances. Arthur Smedley did the best bowling, taking 8 wickets at a low cost. The score:

Cosmopolitan Club Match.

The Cosmopolitans of New York journeyed out to Clifton yesterday and played the opening game of the season between two teams captained by J. L. Reid and C. A. McCully. The wicket was very lively and the batsmen had a little the best of it, considering the match was the first of the season. G. Myers, c. L. Foghill, J. Seizmier, and C. A. McCully all did good work with "the willow." Reid's team finally won by 32 runs. The score:
