

her blessed, who has restored him to his Father's love.

More than nineteen centuries ago the Angel Gabriel saluted the humble Virgin of Nazareth, "Hail, full of grace, the Lord is with thee, blessed art thou among women." During all the centuries lisping children, strong men, gentle women, religious people and devotees of the world, saints and sinners; all have been repeating the same salutation: the refrain is taken up in heaven and will continue to echo throughout a perpetual May in that kingdom, where Mary is Queen.

St. Anthony's Monthly.

Give us Men.

Give us men!

Men from every rank;

Fresh, and free, and frank;

Men of thought and reading,

Men of light and leading,

Men of royal breeding,

Men of truth, and not of fiction,

Men of faith, and men of action,

Give us men! I say again,

Give us men!

Give us men!

Strong and stalwart ones:

Men whom highest hopes inspires,

Men whom purest honor fires,

Men who trample self beneath them,

Men who make their country wreath them,

As her noble sons,

Worthy of their sires!

Men who never shame their mothers,

Men who never fail their brothers,

True, however false are others.

Give us men! I say again,

Give us men!
