Why let money "slip through your fingers" without getting its full value? Why pay $5 for a Derby when we sell as good a hat for $3? Why pay $7 or more for patent leather shoes when we sell the best "Blucher" for $5.50? Why pay fancy prices for shirts, underwear, neckwear, gloves, &c., when we sell these things in excellent qualities at moderate figures? Why go to a tailor for clothes when our rightly made garments fill the bill and cost a third less?

Stores open this evening.
