WANTED—Board for gentleman, wife, and nurse, seashore or country, within one and a half hours from the city; state location and price of rooms, distance from station, &c.; references required. Address, immediately, DR. STANDEGER, 53 West 33d st., New York city.

YOUNG GENTLEMAN will engage board for entire summer on shore of Long Island Sound, Manoroneck preferred; no inland places need respond. Address, stating terms and full particulars, E. S. JAFFRAY, 54 Pine st., N. Y.

He—"What do you object to in this suit?" She—"You—the suit is all right."

Our Spring Suits are not simply unobjectionable—they are fairly captivating. While attempting a choice, one is reminded of the old song:

"Oh! I could be happy with either,
Were t'other dear charmer away."

Fancy Worsteds, Tweeds, Homespuns, Cords, Serges, and not a loud or vulgar pattern among them. Good stuffs, carefully cut and tailored, sold for enough to insure satisfactory results, $15 to $30.

Throughout the summer you are liable to have such reminders as came this week—that light Overcoats are indispensable. A good coat costs little enough, if got at the right place.

The Shoes and the Hats and the numberless wearables denominated "Furnishings" would like to be advertised to-day, but they must risk being asked for or spied in window or showcase.

Stores open this evening.

Public Notices.

COMMISSIONER OF STREET IMPROVEMENTS OF THE TWENTY-THIRD AND TWENTY-FOURTH WARDS.
PUBLIC NOTICE.
Notice is hereby given that the Commissioner of Street Improvements of the Twenty-third and Twenty-fourth wards of the city of New York will, at his office, No. 2,022 Third avenue, in said city, on Tuesday, May 31, 1892, at 10 o'clock A. M., hear and consider all statements, objections, and evidence that may be then and there offered in reference to the contemplated change and revision of lines in the Twenty-third and Twenty-fourth wards, in pursuance of the provisions of chapter 577 and 721 of the Laws of 1887, and of chapter 545 of the Laws of 1889, the general character and extent of the contemplated changes being as follows:
First—A new plan of drainage for Sewer District 37B, showing sewers in Inwood avenue, part of Cromwell avenue, Wolf place and Jerome avenue, from Featherbed lane to Wolf place, and from Elliot street to the Harlem River.
Second—A new plan of drainage for Sewer District 38, bounded on the south by summits south of Union street and Wolf street; on the east by Bremer avenue, Ogden avenue, and Undercliff avenue; on the north by the junction of Ogden and Undercliff avenues, and on the west by the Harlem River.
Third—A map or plan showing location, width, course, windings, classification, and grades of avenues and streets lying between Elliot street, Inwood avenue, Featherbed lane, and Jerome avenue, in order to render more definite and certain a part of the map filed by the Board of Parks March 29, 1888, in the office of the Register of the city of New York.
Maps and profiles showing the contemplated changes are now on exhibition in said office.
LOUIS J. HEINTZ,
Commissioner of Street Improvements,
Twenty-third and Twenty-fourth Wards.

IF you don't want to catch cold "catch" one of our light-weight Top Coats that we are selling for $12;
we manufactured them this season to retail for $15, $16, and $18.
We are also closing out nearly 1,000 Suits marked to sell from $18 to $25; price now $15.
Wouldn't it be a good purchase for you to buy one of each? The price for both is only a trifle more than the original price of one.
