New York Markets.

FRIDAY, June 17.—FREIGHTS and MEAT—The market was dull and prices were weak and unsettled.

COTTON—Spots closed 1-16c. lower in fact, it was not much of a market. The opening was slightly dearer, on a stronger report from Liverpool, but as that market weakened and recedes we were asked six points lower. Then came rumors and predictions of drought at the south in which the not weather gave some relief, and on a demand to cover contracts there was a quick recovery of 12@13 points, but it receded today, spot cotton more active for export and prices received 1-16c. higher, including uplands 7 9-16c., no sales, and Orleans 7¾c., with sales of 700 bales; the latest actions in futures, with sales of 100,400 bales:
