TWO DEFEATS FOR NEW YORK

AND CINCINNATI HAD BUT LITTLE TROUBLE AT THAT.

Boston Loses, but John Ward Adds Another Victory to His Credit—Cleveland Wins Two Games from Philadelphia.

Two more weeks of play and the Brooklyns would have had a good chance to win the first series, but as only three more days remain before the first championship terminates, the Bostons have nothing to fear. As the Philadelphias lost two games yesterday, Ward's men are sure of second place. The scores yesterday were:

Cincinnati, 10; New York, 1; first game.
Cincinnati, 10; New York, 4; second game.
Brooklyn, 7; Pittsburgh, 5.
Chicago, 2; Boston, 1.
Cleveland 7; Philadelphia, 5; first game.
Cleveland, 8; Philadelphia, 2; second game.
Louisville, 7; Baltimore, 1.
Washington, 6; St. Louis, 1.

THE NEW YORKS LOSE BOTH.

CINCINNATI, July 9.—They are not the New Yorks of old, although at times there were movements among the Nadjys that recalled past days. The New Yorks found no Reds in a desperate mood. They had frittered away one game to the Baltimores, and, smarting under the caustic arraignment of their weaknesses, they were out for everything in sight. Not for weaks has the outfield played with such vim. Tip O'Neill tore around in left and made screaming catches of hits from the bats of Lyons and Richardson, while the Gladiator, who failed to make one sale rap while the symposium of batting was in progress, proudly acknowledged the cheers he received for a nice across-centre and killing a corker from Lyons's tat. The visitors were whipped twice. They brought rain in May and clouds this trip, but 3,884 persons came out with umbrellas to see the double header.

In the first Rusie was only a mark. The Reds took a lead at the start, and the New Yorks was never in the hunt after that. They made lots of hits off Dwyer, but they were scattered, and tares quick double plays were disheartening. Doyle provided the ammunition for two of them. He did not play the snappy ball that made him famous. The bids stole bases on him easily, the only man caught being Capt. Comiskey, who was safe on third before Doyle dropped on him. Hits were bunched on Rusie. He sent McPhee and Holliday to first in the first inning, and hits by Latham, O'Neill, Comiskey, and Gentins netted four runs. McPhee's single and O'Neill's ran to centre for the circuit gave two more. The last cluster resulted from Holliday's single, Comiskey's triple, Genins's double, Vaughn's single, and a couple of battery errors. The visitors escaped a shut out when Rusie led off in the seventh with his third big. After Burke's foul out he was forced by Tiernan. Lyons fell down, and stumbled when turning toward second. He was caught and run down, but Tiernan scored before that event. After an intermission they went at it again. "Cannon ball" Ed Crane seemed to think Ennis's organs of vision were affected. He sent O'Neill and Browning to first on balls, and McPhee's hit, thrown wildly by Crane, Holliday's single, Comiskey's double, and Richardson's miss of Genins's grounder gave the Reds five runs, only two earned. They made another body in the seventh when, after McPhee's gift, five successive hits were made. Tiernan went around for New York. He was hit, got second on Genins's fumble, third on a passed ball, and home on Ewing's fly to Browning. With two out in the seventh, Burke hit cleanly, and stole third on a delivery to Holliday. Tiernan got a pre out, Lyons came along with a two-bagger and Doyle and Ewing made singles. The rally stopped with three runs, Genins making a fine stop of the orator's hot grounder. The scores:

BROOKLYN, 7; PITTSBURGH, 5.

PITTSBURGH, July 9.—Experiments are not often successful with our sluggers in the way of trying the merits of a young pitcher, particularly when the youngsters have to go up against such terrors as Johnny Ward is taking around the country. This afternoon these men from Brooklyn handled here, and young Thompson's debut in the East End was made to pitch ball to them. The experiment was a failure, but it does not show that Thompson is not a good and promising pitcher. One game does not make a summer by any means, and to test a youth by making him face the Brooklyn team does not prove the you h to be a failure. Where the experiment was bad lay in the fact of putting Thompson in against such a strong team as the Brooklyns, and on a Saturday when 3,500 people were there.

The young man couldn't get the ball across the plate, and that was the difficulty. He may have been nervous, and if he was it was only to be expected. But it was to fortune for the visitors that Thompson was there, or else they would have been beaten, just as sure as we live. After they had made four runs in the third inning the pitcher's organs of vision were affected. He sent O'Neill and Browning to first on balls, and McPhee's hit, thrown wildly by Crane, Holliday's single, Comiskey's double, and Richardson's miss of Genins's grounder gave the Reds five runs, only two earned. They made another body in the seventh when, after McPhee's gift, five successive hits were made. Tiernan went around for New York. CLEVELAND 7; PHILADELPHIA, 5—FIRST GAME.

CLEVELAND, July 9.—Over 4,000 persons cheered this afternoon until their throats were as dry as a smoked herring. The cause of it all was the appearance of Wilson in a Cleveland uniform. The home team went for the Philadelphia pitcher and tossed and mauled in enough runs to win the first game. Scales and Burkett made brilliant fielding plays. In the second game Clarkson had the visitors at his mercy, and never pitched a more effective game in his life.

By bunching four singles and a sacrifice hit in their fourth inning the team of the New Jersey Athletic Club scored three earned runs and worsted the ball tossers of the Staten Island Athletic Club in the championship game on the New Jersey oval, at Bergen Point, yesterday afternoon. Two thousand excited partisans of the clubs saw the contest. "Doc" Curtis broke the index finger of his right hand in the fifth heat, but caught on the game. But for an error by Chauncey on a desperate play in the fifth inning the Islanders would have been shut out without scoring. They put up an almost perfect field game, while the Jerseymen perpetrated a quartet of primrose-lined miscues. Several thousand dollars changed hands on the result. The score:
