MARS WINS THE STOCKTON.

THE MORRIS COLT DEFEATS MERRY MONARCH IN A GAME FINISH.

A Grand Struggle for Over a Quarter of a Mile Under Whip and Spur, with the Victory for Littlefield and Mars—Lady Violet Wins the Lassie—Mr. Lorillard's Speedy Dorfargilla—How the Races were Won and Lost on a Fast Track.

A crowd of generous proportions visited Monmouth Park yesterday afternoon and saw six very interesting races decided on a very fast track. The stake features, the Lassie for two-year-old fillies and the Stockton for three-year-olds, were won respectively by the Blemton Stable's superb filly Lady Violet and Messrs. John A. and A. H. Morris's game colt Mars, the former an odds on favorite, while as good as 6 to 1 could be had against the latter. The weather was very warm, and there was scarcely a breath of air stirring, the sun shining with tropical fervor at times during the afternoon.

The public expected that the crack Western filly Helen Nichols would try conclusions with Lady Violet, but she was withdrawn for some reason best known to her young owner, and as Raindrop, Daglito, Lady Richmond, and Clarinda were also scratched the field was small. The fleet but faint-hearted Minnehaha made the running for half a mile in company with Lady Violet. Then Miss Maude moved up, and Minnehaha dropped back beaten. Taral sat perfectly still on Lady Violet all the way home, and Mr. Belmont's filly romped in winner by three lengths. Miss Maude beat Mendicant as far for second money. Mr. Belmont missed the last special train, and did not have the pleasure of seeing Lady Violet win. Minnehaha, despite a drink of whiskey before the race, quit at her usual place. She is what the English call a speedy jade.

The withdrawal of The Pepper from the Stockton Stakes was inexplicable, as that good colt outclassed his field and appeared to have the $3,000 stake at his mercy. With the son of Billet out, the public divided into two divisions and played Merry Monarch and Sir Matthew, the pair going to the post equal favorites at comparatively short odds. Mr. Lorillard's Kilkenny was an additional starter, and he was nibbled at, but the most neglected horse in the race was Mars, when third to Tammany and The Pepper, and prominent running in other races entitled him to respect. As good as 6 to 1 could be had against the Morris representative at any time, Mars cut out the running from the start, and in the run up the homestretch was clear of his field, Merry Monarch and Sir Arthur heading the rush, Sir Matthew, Kilkenny, and Strephon bringing up the rear. Once around the upper turn Littlefield let Mars run in earnest, the pace for the first half having been very slow, and it became evident that the favorites would have to run some in order to head the son of Minerva. Strephon bumped into Sir Matthew and knocked him off his stride, and when Garrison asked him to make up lost ground the colt's speed had departed. Taral rode Merry Monarch out in pursuit of Mars, but although the son of Hindoo answered every call of his rider in the gamest manner imaginable, he found his match in Mars. A quarter of a mile from home Mars and Merry Monarch were both under the whip, and the crowd in the grand stand became wildly enthusiastic. Whips were flying all the way home, and although the pressure was terrific neither faltered nor swerved. Littlefield roused Mars with steel and spur, and at every blow the game colt responded in a way that made the backers of Merry Monarch wish that Mars was in Kamchatka. As the pair swept past the judges' stand Mars's bay nose was in front of Merry Monarch's tan muzzle, and all the good money bet on the son of Hindoo was safe in the strong boxes of the bookmakers. Littlefield deserves the highest praise for the masterly handling of Mars, and it is extremely doubtful whether the young man ever rode a better race. Both the Messrs. Morris saw the race, and were greatly pleased to see Mars run up to the form he has always shown in his work. Before leaving the farm in Maryland last spring Mars worked a mile and a quarter, in company with St. Florian, in 2:10. Kilkenny was a close third, while Sir Arthur and St. Matthews were the most prominent of the others. The last half mile was covered in 49 seconds and the last mile in 1:44¾.

Mr. Pierre Lorillard's handsome filly Dorfargilla, the Empire Stable's Berwyn, and others, in the maiden race for three-year-olds, were heavily backed, but when it came to racing Dorfargilla played with her opponents, taking the lead in the first hundred yards and winning hands down by two lengths, Adelbert beating Oxford as far for second money. Mr. Lorillard took a very large sum of money out of the ring on his filly. She is a very neat chestnut by Onondaga, out of Elsinore.

The surprising good odds of seven money could be had against Reckon for the handicap at one mile and a furlong, and after Speculation and Kirkover had alternated in the lead for half a mile, Reckon came on and won unchallenged by a length from Allan Bane, who beat Kirkover three lengths for second money. Speculation sweved badly in then up the backstretch, and it is plain that no light boy can do him justice.

There were three or four good things in the selling race at a mile, Arab, Gertie D., May Win, The Sheriff, and Flavilla all having supporters. Harlem and Experience made the running in close company until rounding the upper turn, where Experience ran out. Little Lambly then attempted to steal away with Harlem but Arab and May Win challenged the filly, and for a quarter of a mile the fight was savage. When all three were utterly fagged out Major Covington shot up with The Sheriff, followed by Gertie D. and Experience. A rattling finish ensued, the three finishing heads apart in the order named. Experience would undoubtedly have won had she not gone wide on the upper turn.

Yemen closed favorite for the selling race at five and a half furlongs, but Tormentor and a number of others carried considerable money. Capt. Browne, Gold Dollar, and Yemen had the race to themselves from the start. Gold Dollar, a 10 to 1 shot, winning by three lengths, while Capt. Browne beat Yemen a head for second place.

YO TAMBIEN'S GRAND RACE.

She Wins the Great Handicap and Makes a Western Record.

CHICAGO, July 14.—Two favorites, a pair of well-played second choices, and two outside chances won the races at Washington Park today. The track was fast. The event of the day, the Great Western Handicap, one mile and a half, worth to the winner $3,480, had a star field of nine starters. Verge D'Or, 111 (Griffin); Yo Tambien, 108 (Thorpe); Joe Blackburn, 108 (Overton); Lew Weir, 104 (Keith); Blue Banner, 104 (Madison); Come-to-Taw, 102 (Goodale); Zaldivar, 101 (Costello); Wadsworth, 100 (Haggett), and Jugurtha, 100 (Kunze), went to the post. The weight Yo Tambien was asked to concede to Wadsworth made the latter a close favorite at 3 to 2, while as good as 7 and 8 to 5 could be had against Yo Tambien. Joe Blackburn had some backing at 8 to 1, while the odds against the others ranged from 10 to 1 to 50 to 1.

The race was remarkable inasmuch as Yo Tambien made all the running, and after leading throughout, won under a hard drive by a length from Joe Blackburn, who ran well enough to win any great Western race previous to this afternoon. The 15 to 1 shot Jugurtha finished third, beaten four lengths. The time, 2:33¾, breaks the Western record for the distance, and only twice in the history of American racing has the record made to-day been equalled or excelled, Firenze having gone the route in 2:33, and Poet Scout in 2:33½. Age and weight analyzed, however, will show Yo Tambien's race to-day to be a greater performance than that to the credit of Poet Scout or Firenze. The fractional time is: Quarter, 0:29¾; half, 0:50; six furlongs, 1:16; mile, 1:42, and mile and a quarter in 2:09¾. The winner seemed none the worse for her remarkable run, and will probably appear again here, she being engaged in the Wheeler Handicap, to be run on the final day.

The winners of the purse races were: Dave Vela, ridden by Thorpe, at 7 to 1; Cicely, Costello up, the favorite, at 2 to 1; Clutie C., piloted by Kunze, at 4 to 1; Vallera, H. Penny in the saddle, the favorite, at 4 to 5, and Oregon Eclipse, ridden by McDonald, at 6 to 1.

Sternett & Warn, the owners of Eclipse, whose erratic running here has caused a great deal of gossip, have been notified by the Washington Park Club that no entry will be received from their hands here in the future, and that their horses must be removed from the grounds. It is probable that Eclipse will be now taken to Brighton Beach, as Monmouth Park is also closed against his owners. Freeman has been fined $250 for suspicious riding on Forest yesterday, while R. Williams has been set down for five days and fined $100 for breaking away from the post by Starter Sheridan. The Futurity candidate, the maiden colt G. W. Johnson, a brother to Huron, worked a sensational trial here yesterday, going a quarter in 22¾, the half in 48¾, and six furlongs in 1:16. He will be shipped East at the close of the meeting here.

J. P. Gray of Missouri bought to-day of Wilber F. Smith of California the three-year-old chestnut gelding Zaldivar, by Joe Hooker, dam Lena's First, for $6,000. Zaldivar's best race since coming from the far West was his second to Carsbad in the American Derby here.

MADDEN'S SMART TWO-YEAR-OLD.

Gypsy Earl, by Earl, Trots a Mile in 2:16 Flat.

LEXINGTON, July 14.—The most wonderful performance ever made by a two-year old trotter in Kentucky during July was that of the filly Gypsy Earl, by Earl, here this afternoon.

She went a mile handily in 2:26¾, the last quarter in 34 seconds. She belongs to John E. Madden, part owner of Robert McGregor.

THERE YOU ARE AGAIN.

We know where the money lies, and that's the reason that we sent Gonzales, Young Lottery, and Vernon at Gloucester yesterday, and they all won. It's become a matter of money in this country to-day, and wherever the money lies those who intrust us with their interests are sure to get a piece of it. It seems odd that while the many are winning barrels of money daily by following the Agency's selections, the few stick to their own ideas and, as a matter of course, drop their money. Be wise, call early to-day at the Agency's office, ground floor, 161 East 23d st., and enter your name as a subscriber. Ask the MANAGER to let one of the clerks show you a few score unsolicited testimonials—original letters, not copies—from gratified clients. There's no buncombe about the Agency's business; it stands on its merits. Terms as usual, $10 for six days' wires with promise of 5 per cent. on net winnings. Client's word as to amount won each week unhesitatingly accepted. Never more than one horse sent for a race. Out-of-town customers and those who cannot conveniently call address their orders with remittance to the BUSINESS MANAGER, P. O. box 2,305, New York city. Four-page prospectus explaining fully "HOW TO WIN ON THE TURF," with hints as to SAFETY PLAN, sent post free to all applicants. The P. S. I. Agency positively declines to furnish information on races to minors under any circumstances whatever.

REBUS ENLIVENS THE CIRCUIT.

He Puts in the Fastest Heat of the Year at Point Breeze.

PHILADELPHIA, July 14.—After waiting for a couple of hours to let the mud dry up, the grand circuit meeting went on at Point Breeze this afternoon on a heavy track. It got better as the day advanced, so that Rebus was able to put in the fastest heat of the year. This was for the Bingham House Stake, Linden starting favorite at even against his seven opponents. Linden had every chance to win the first heat, being at the pole and having a good lead to the third quarter, but Joe Jett came on and outfooted him in 2:20¾. Linden being hampered with boots that were too tight, the old ones were substituted, and the stallion went much better, but could do nothing with Rebus after the latter dashed away and led to be the wire, pacing the half in 1:07¾ and the mile in 2:15¾.

In the third heat Rebus got tangled early, and, after a terrific spurt to the head of the stretch, slipped up again, and Linden finally got a first to his credit in moderate time. Rebus made no mistakes in the fourth heat, and, after Linden had been driven into the ground to the third quarter, he proved an easy mark for the gelding in 2:17¾.

The horses were called out again in the twilight, but were sent back, as it was too dark to see them plainly. The 2:21 trot also goes over, Claudius having lost the heats trotted, the first in 2:24¾, being a new second for him. The 2:27 pace and 2:15 trot are also on for the last day. Summaries:

DEATH OF W. H. WILSON.

The Owner of Abdallah Park Passes Away at Cincinnati.

LEXINGTON, July 14.—W. H. Wilson, owner of Abdallah Park, Cynthiana, died at the Cincinnati Hospital this morning at 10 o'clock, the result of laparotomy performed on him yesterday afternoon.

He was 50 years old and one of the most prominent trotting horse breeders in Kentucky. He brought George Wilkes to this State, and by so doing increased the value of Kentucky trotters millions of dollars. He assisted to organize the Kentucky Horsebreeders' Association, and after others had run it almost hopelessly into debt, he was elected President. And, with his superior knowledge in a few years had it on its feet again. When its debts were paid he resigned. He built up a tremendous breeding establishment at Cynthiana. When fire destroyed his stable and nearly all his horses some ten years ago, leaving him deeply in debt and with only one horse left, by his untiring energy he succeeded in weathering the financial storm, and his establishment at Abdallah Park is one of the most complete and costly in the State. His leading stallions are Sultan, Simmons, and Ottoman.

Marcus Daly's High-priced Yearling.

LONDON, July 14.—Marcus Daly, the copper magnate of Anaconda, Mont., has paid £4,125 for a yearling colt by Hampton, out of Charity, by Darling. It is undecided whether the colt will be trained at Kingsclere or in America.

News from the Horse World.

A special train over the Pennsylvania road will leave the foot of Cortlandt street at 10 A. M. to-day for the benefit of patrons of the turf who desire to attend the sale of Mr Charles Reed's yearling thoroughbreds at Monmouth Park.

A racing-bred runner in Tennessee, by Bay Tom, dam by Planeroid, recently ran a quarter of a mile, under a pull, in 25 seconds. The dam also produced the filly Bush runner, to the sire of McCoy, a son of McCurdy's Hambletonian.

ALL START FROM SCRATCH.

TWELVE TEAMS RENEW THE FIGHT ON EVEN TERMS.

Unsuccessful Teams Have Been Strengthened, and Will Struggle Hard in the Second Half—The Decision of Protested Games—Pittsburgh at the Polo Grounds To-day and Chicago in Brooklyn.

The smoke of the first battle will have barely cleared away before the opposing forces face each other for the second onslaught. The wounded will be hurriedly carried from the field, the survivors of the conflict take a short breathing spell, and at 4 o'clock this afternoon the battlefields of the East will resound with the din of the struggle. The fact that all the teams start on even terms will no doubt arouse and increase the interest of patrons. No doubt the cranks of Boston, Brooklyn, and Philadelphia feel secure in the belief that their favorite teams can climb to the top and stay there. On the other hand, the clubs which languished in positions remote from the top have in many cases been strengthened, and their supporters may take renewed hope.

In the case of the New Yorks, Manager Powers has added four new men to the team, and, while it is yet too early to judge what the effect of the changes will be, there is reason to believe that eventually the result will be an improvement. Mr. Powers is at least determined that the New York team shall play lively, wideawake ball, and he will doubtless receive the hearty support of all friends of the game in this city. That he will continue to make changes until the desired result is attained is a certain proposition. There has been a scramble by the rear guard to strengthen, and the leaders, who will go on in practically the same form, will have more difficulty in winning games. For the first time in his career Anson ended a race lower than third, and the way in which the old man is grabbing new players indicates a determination to do better next time. The fight promises to be a very interesting one. As a result of the protested game of May 21, between Cleveland and St. Louis, being thrown in the latter's rules office, defeat and takes ninth place from New York.

During the first half of the championship season, which was concluded on Wednesday, there were four protested games, the action by the committee upon them being as follows: April 20, in a game at Indianapolis between the New Yorks and the Baltimores, the latter club left the ground before play was ended to catch a train for Boston. This contest was awarded to New York by the umpire, and his decision was sustained by the League. April 23, at Chicago, with the score 4 to 2 in favor of the home team against the Louisvilles, the crowd broke into the game and would not disperse. For this reason the umpire awarded the game to the Louisville club, and he was sustained in his action by the League Committee, May 10, in a scheduled game at Pittsburgh between the New Yorks and the local organization the visitors left the grounds, despite remonstrances from players and umpire, and would not play as scheduled. For this they forfeited to the Pittsburghs, and that decision also stands. The protested game, however, was set aside, and that was in the case of the Cleveland's against St. Louis. It was charged that the latter failed to put in an appearance on time, May 21, and the umpire gave the game to the Clevelands by a score of 9 to 0. The game was subsequently ruled by the League, however, when it was made apparent that St. Louis had been unable, through no negligence on their part, to reach the ground at the appointed time.
