A Narrow Margin for New York.

Middletown, Aug. 12.—The New York Club defeated the Asylums on the grounds of the New York State Homeopathic Hospital for the Insane to-day, in one of the most closely contested games ever seen here. It was the first time the Asylums have been defeated this season. The same men who have played on the home team all the year were at their old places today. The game was witnessed by 2,000 persons, including a large number of patients from the hospital. In place of Tiernan, Charley Tierney of Goshen played right field. The only errors made in the game were a wild throw to first by Lyons and a muff by King when covering first. The battery work of both teams was excellent.

Meltzer also scored after the first inning. The Asylums were first at the bat. Murray hit the first ball pitched for a single to centre field. He went to third on Launt's hit to right, and came home on Beghan's hit in the same place. For the New York, Burke made a two-bagger to left field and took third on Lyons's sacrifice. D. Lyons reached first on called balls, stole second, and he and Burke scored on O'Rourke's hit. The score:
