THE TALENT IN GOOD FORM.

THEY SELECT FOUR OF THE SIX WINNERS AT BRIGHTON BEACH.

Lord Dalmeny too Fleet for Count, Jack Rose, and Milt Young—Tormentor Runs Five Furlongs in 1:01 and Defeats Chesapeake—Hippona, Sandowne, Temple, and Early Blossom the Other Winners.

The success of four favorites put the talent in good humor at Brighton Beach yesterday. Chesapeake and Little Jake being the first choices to fall by the way. There was a good-sized crowd present, and between betting on the races and discussing the arrest of W. C. Daly, a full account of which will be found in another column, time did not hang heavily on their hands.

Lord Dalmeny, Jack Rose, and Milt Young were all heavily supported for the six-and-a-half-furlong race, for which the largest purse of the day was hung up. Count and Lord Dalmeny made the running until well into the stretch, where Walker shook the latter up, and he drew out and won handily by a length. Count was second, and Jack Rose third. The last named was badly crowded a hundred yards from the finish, or he would have landed in second place. Milt Young had to run around his field, and may be expected to form better the next time he faces the flag. There was a great deal of interest in the five-furlong scramble in which Tenny, Chesapeake, Tormentor, and other fast sprinters were named to start. Tenny was withdrawn, leaving Chesapeake an odds-on favorite. Dalsyrian, chased by Chesapeake, showed the way to the stretch, Tormentor third. Once squared away for home Tormentor closed rapidly on the leaders, and Midgley was all at sea on Chesapeake as soon as he attempted to ride and whip at the same time, the big gelding swerving across the track and leaving Dalsyrian. Tormentor came on alone and won by a length in the fast time of 1:01, Chesapeake second, as far in front of Dalsyrian. Chesapeake is too much of an armful for any 90-pound boy.

Carmody cut a good thing loose in the opening race. Hippona, against whose winning 10 to 1 was quoted at the opening, landing the purse in a romp. Tioga was second, and Little Jake, the favorite, third. Sandowne, on the strength of his good race against Morello, was installed favorite for the two-year-old event, and it was only a romp for the son of Spendthrift to land the purse. Sport was second, and Lyrist, at long odds, third. Temple outclassed his opponents in the scramble for three-year-olds, and, piloted by Sims, he won with the utmost ease, the Adalgisa colt second, and John Wankie third. The last race was put an exercising gallop for the favorite, Early Blossom. This fleet daughter of Pizarro and the four-year-old filly Luray made all the running, Early Blossom winning in a canter by two lengths. Luray beat the Billet Doux colt as easily for second money. Gloriana was a close fourth. Bob Sutherland spoiled a number of starts, and Mr. Bowe very properly left him at the post. Johnny Lambley had the mount on the ugly-tempered horse, and when he attempted to pull him up after galloping around the track in the rear of the field the horse ran into the gateway leading to the timers' stand and tore a gash in his shoulder. The blood poured from the wound, and Bob will hardly bother the starter again this meeting.

OMNIBUS DAY AT MONMOUTH.

Two Great Stake Events and Four Other Races Will Be Run.

The feature at Monmouth Park to-day will be the Omnibus Stakes, at one mile and a half, one of the richest prizes of the year for three-year-olds, worth $19,500 to the winner. Tammany is in with the top weight of 129 pounds, Mars following with 127, Yorkville Belle next with 124, and The Pepper with 117, while Kilkenny and Huron will be dangerous competitors, to say nothing of Pickpocket and Shellbark. With Garrison in good form on Tammany, and Tarai riding The Pepper, this pair will carry the bulk of the money of the talent between them. The Pepper has the best of the weights, and as his owner likes his colt's chance, and many believe that Tammany cannot carry twelve pounds more than the son of Billet and win, The Pepper will undoubtedly have a strong following.

The Criterion Stakes for two-year-olds, at six furlongs, comes next in importance, and Dr. Rice, with the top weight of 130 pounds, will have to be a good colt to show his heels to Lovelace, Hammie, and other fleet-footed youngsters in the field of ten named to start.

The four sweepstake event have filled with enough entries of good quality to make the sport first-class all through the programme, and many will be there to enjoy it. The entries in full follow:

TERRIBLE ACCIDENT ON A RACE TRACK.

Seven Jockeys and Horses Fall—Four of the Jockeys Seriously Hurt.

GLOUCESTER, Aug. 15.—An accident which may result in two deaths occurred this afternoon on the Gloucester track in the first race. The race was a dash of four and a half furlongs, and there were eleven starters. As the horses were rounding the turn entering the homestretch Sir Jim was in the lead, with Hurry Away, the favorite, running second. The others were closely bunched behind. Suddenly Hurry Away stumbled and fell, and a half dozen other horses and their jockeys fell in a heap like so many tenpins. The horses, strange to say, were not injured, but picked themselves up and scampered away.

The jockeys, with the exception of Plankuchen, who rode Cavalier, were lying spread out on the track insensible, Moore, the colored rider of Joe B., soon revived, but the other riders are nearly all in a critical condition. They are Horton, who rode Patrick; Brooker, the rider of Catherine, McGlone, rider of Hurry Away, Cleary, rider of Wild Fire colt, and Morrissey, who was mounted upon Come On.

Cleary is the worst hurt of the lot. The colt stepped upon his face and disfigured him fearfully. He is delirious and had to be put in a straitjacket. He may die. Patrick rolled over Horton, and the latter is badly hurt, but is thought to be out of danger. Morrissey was taken to the Cooper Hospital, Camden, and is still unconscious. He has a severe contusion of the head, is injured internally, and hurt about the hips. His condition is serious.

Brooker was badly stunned, and Moore escaped with a severe shaking up. Plankuchen felt his head, but escaped injury. McGlone had a shoulder badly hurt and was severely bruised. The accident created great excitement among the two thousand spectators, but the programme was carried out.

Following is a summary of the day's racing:

First Race—Four and a half furlongs. Brainard first, Sir Jim second, Sorrie II third. Time, 0:52¾.

Second Race—Five-eighths of a mile. Rear Guard first, Richard T. second, Bright Eyes third. Time, 1:04¾.

Third Race—Five-eighths of a mile. Elmstone first, Queen O'Or second, Tormant third. Time, 1:03.

Fourth Race—One mile. Allan Archer first, Ned second, Golden Reel third. Time, 1:44¼.

Fifth Race—Six and a quarter furlongs. Mamie B. B. first, Lost Star second, Gloster third. Time, 1:21¼.

Sixth Race—Six and a quarter furlongs. Watch Me first, Count Me In second, Wallace G. third. Time, 1:21¾.

THE HARNESS RACES AT CHICAGO.

Ora Wilkes Wins the Columbia Stakes—San Pedro Leads the Pacers.

CHICAGO, Aug. 15.—No sensational performance marked the opening of the Northwestern Breeders' Association's meeting at Washington Park to-day. The weather was pleasant enough to attract over 4,000 spectators, and the track was fast. Ora Wilkes won the Columbia Stakes for two-year-olds after losing the first heat to Wilkes Maid through a break. She was a big favorite, and in the second heat beat Tuscarora, a 30 to 1 shot, by half a length. The time, 2:25½, was fast for a two-year-old.

Gift O'Neer had practically a walkover for the Futurity Stakes. After trotting six heats the 2:28 class was not finished. Josephine was favorite at $100 to $40. She won the first heat handily, while J. S. nipped the second from Dan S. It was even money J. S. for the third heat, but Max drove him off his feet to the three-quarters and won from Dan S. by a length. Laughran W. was fifth, but was placed last for running. Max took the fourth heat easily from Dan S., the latter being set back last. Prince H. and Louisville were drawn. The former put himself, and Louisville was taken sick. For the fifth heat it was Max, $50; field $30. Max led to the three-quarters, with Josephine second and Laughran W. third, but the mare died away, and in the stretch Laughran W. came fast and won cleverly. Only the four first winners appeared for the sixth heat. This time Johnson sent Max to pieces. Laughran W. and J. S. both broke badly. Josephine led until very close to the wire, when J. S. passed her and won by a head, with Josephine a head before Laughran W. J. S. was set back and the heat given to Josephine.

The 2:30 pace was won easily by San Pedro in straight heats. Summaries:

Yo Tambien is Coming East.

Chris Smith, the young New Yorker whose filly, Yo Tambien, the crack of her age in the West, is regarded as little short of a phenomenon by turfmen, sends words to Secretary Hugh D. McIntyre of the Brooklyn Jockey Club that he will bring the great daughter of Joe Hooker and Marion to Gravesend this fall. Yo Tambien has won eleven races out of twelve starts this year. The only time she was beaten was in the Merchants' Stakes at Latonia, where she gave that good colt, Bashford, fifteen pounds. Bashford won by half a length, but he had to run mile and a furlong in 1:53¾ in order to beat that filly.

The Yearling Filly Winola Paces a Quarter in 33 Seconds.

POUGHKEEPSIE, Aug. 15.—The horsemen here to-night to attend the meeting of the Trotting Horse Breeders' Association, which begins at the Driving Park to-morrow, are all talking about the time made to-day by Winola, a favorite Wilkes yearling filly pacer. William Snyder of the Eldorado Stock Farm drove Winola a quarter of a mile in 33 seconds.

Piccolo Leads a Fine Field of Horses.

ST. PAUL, Aug. 15.—The last week's racing at the Sioux City course began to-day with the running off of six races on a fast track. Three of the six favorites were beaten. The feature of the day's sports was the form shown by the Englished-bred mare Piccolo, a daughter of the great Petrarch, in the mile and twenty yards handicap, she beating one of the best fields of the meeting in clever style and fast time. The winners were:

Sir Walter Raleigh, ridden by S. Griffin, at 4 to 1; Long Odds, Sergeant Op, favorite at 6 to 5; Piccolo, ridden by Freeman, at 3 to 1; Hopeful, Freeman in the saddle, favorite at 5 to 2 on; Tobacklart, ridden by Sargent, at 5 to 1, and Maud H., G. Williams up, favorite at 5 to 3 on.

Joe Goddard Against the World.

In a letter to the Police Gazette from Mechanicsville, Billy Madden says:

"I understand Jake Kilrain will meet my new champion, Joe Goddard. If such is the case, Goddard, on his arrival in New York, will meet Kilrain in a contest of four rounds in the Academy of Music or in Madison Square Garden, any time after the 15th of September that will suit Kilrain. I have forwarded a letter to the Coney Island Athletic Club asking them to put up a purse of $25,000 for a contest between the winner of the Sullivan and Corbett contest and Goddard. If they do not send a favorable answer, Goddard shall fight any man in the world for $5,000 a side and the largest purse I am going to New Orleans and will meet Joe Goddard there.

The Yachtsmen at Rockaway.

The annual regatta of the Rockaway Sportsmen's Field and Yacht Club was held yesterday afternoon in Jamaica Bay, off Rockaway Beach. The course was from the judge's boat, anchored off the club house, to and around Red Can buoy, northeast to and around stakeboat off Ruffle Bar, and south to judge's boat. The yachts in classes A and B sailed over this course twice, while those in classes C and D went over it but once.

Tennis at Bar Harbor.

BAR HARBOR, Aug. 15.—The annual Mosely Hall tennis tournament began here to-day. But little progress was made, owing to the finals of the Kebo Valley tournament having to be played. In the first match of to-day Harold McCormick of Princeton defeated J. B. Reed of Harvard after a close match by the score of 6—7, 7—5, 6—3, after which rain prevented further play. During the afternoon the finals of the Kebo Valley competition postponed from last week, were played between R. W. Candler of Columbia against W. S. Thomson of the University of Pennsylvania. Thomson won, 9—7, 4—6, 6—2, 6—0, after a fairly good match.

A Wager Decided.

The testimony of Johnny Eckhardt, "Brooklyn Jimmy" Carroll, Billy Dacey, who seconded Siddons on that occasion, and The Sun reporter who was at the fight, goes to show that Siddons was punched against the ropes in the last round of his fight with Eddie Pierce, with his knees near the floor, but not touching it.

Charles Appleby, owner of the "Rudge Triplet," and Newman, and Frank Erland took a bicycle trip to Tarrytown yesterday morning, returning to New York in time for dinner. In the afternoon Appleby and Frank Erland left for Saratoga and Lake George. They will be joined at each station by friends of Appleby, who is captain of the Adelphi Club (Long Island) bicycle team, and for the fall race.

THE RUNNERS AT SARATOGA.

BROWN BEAUTY BEATS THE FAVORITE FOR THE SARATOGA STAKES.

Watterson Lands the Trenton Stakes and is Bid Up $2,500—Mabel Glenn Shows Her Heels to Santa Anna in the Handicap.

SARATOGA, Aug. 15.—Charming weather, even for Saratoga, called out a big attendance at the track to-day, the ladies making up one-third of the assemblage. The field was rather light, but nevertheless speculation was brisk. The fifth race was split, making six on the programme, which more than made up for the lack of quality and numbers in the Iroquois, a fixed event which is a legacy from the old Saratoga Association.

Badge pressed Kimberly close in the betting in the first race, Anna and Rico being played mainly for place honors. Rico, Kimberly, and Anna, heads apart, made the running for three-quarters of a mile, Badge two lengths back, and hard held. At the lower turn Anna went to the front, leading in the stretch, where she was collared by Badge, the latter winning easily, and Kimberly a poor third. The two-year-old race, second on the programme, found One favorite, and his stable companion, False Abrens, second choice. No declaration was made by Owner Timmens. Rose Washington was played for a good thing, and after making nearly all the running, came near landing the stake. False Abrens winning under the whip by a good neck. One a head better than Rose Washington. The Ida B. colt ran a fair race. Lowlander was a steady favorite in the third race, with Santa Anna second choice. Of the other starters Inferno and Charade were held at shorter prices than Mabel Glenn, she being an outsider. All ran in a close bunch, Lowlander showing the way to the last turn, where Mabel Glenn went out in the light, and, stalling off a determined challenge from Santa Anna, won handily by a length. Charade a poor fourth. Lowlander was not persevered with when he was beaten.

The Iroquois Stakes did not excite much interest, and there was light play on the four starters, Ronald having the call, with Brown Beauty the next best supported. The order for seven furlongs was Ronald, Panhandle, Brown Beauty, and Glee Boy. Then Panhandle cut the pace, while Brown Beauty in the stretch challenged Ronald, the latter going to places, and enabling the filly to win by a length. Glee Boy in spite of a severe drive, beat Panhandle for third honors. Watterson was an odds favorite in the fifth race, which he won by a narrow margin from Busteed. It cost Owner Oxx $2,500 to keep his horse. Watterson was entered for $1,500, and bid up by M. T. Downing, owner of Busteed, to $4,000. Logan was a good third. Taylor's riding of Lemon Blossom was not brilliant. The last race was also won by a favorite, in Worth. He went to the front when called upon, and had something to spare at the finish. Taylor had to ride Belwood hard to beat Versatile for place honors. Summaries follow:

News from the Horse World.

L. W. L.—Sunol's record is 2:08¼. This has never been beaten.

Albert Cooper has his hands full just now, as, in addition to the old horses, he has nineteen head of yearlings all at hard work. Some of the youngsters are showing a remarkable turn of speed.

Number 8 of "Goodwin's Official Turf Guide," an invaluable book for turfmen and followers of the turf, is out to-day, and may be had at any news stand or from the programme boys at the race tracks.

Jack Joyner with the Blemton string, Snip Donovan with D. T. Pulsifer's, Albert Cooper with Foxall Keene's, and J. W. Christie have arrived at Sheepshead Bay. The horses from these stables are now doing strong work over the track.

The stables at Gravesend and Sheepshead Bay track are rapidly filling up with horses from Monmouth Park. Col. Ruppert's entire string arrived on Sunday. Ajax has been ailing some time, however, and an attack of influenza has now developed.

Messrs. P. J. Dwyer & Son and M. F. Dwyer's yearlings have arrived at Gravesend from Red Bank. They are a grand-looking and highly bred lot of youngsters. The entire lot are suffering from distemper in its most malignant form. The trotter to Hanover in P. J. Dwyer & Son's stable is a perfect counterpart of his mighty brother.

QUICK SELLING PICTURES.

Portraits of the Candidates Going Off Like Hot Cakes.

Pictures of candidates are proverbially slow sellers. There is hardly a man in the trade who would care to undertake to sell 10,000 portraits of any great man. One reason is that the market is usually glutted with cheap prints that are bought for a song, even though they satisfy nobody. The differentiating quality of the pictures sold by the Campaign Publishing Company at 793 Broadway is their excellence both as works of art and as portraits. Hence the rapidity with which they are selling and the confidence expressed by the company that they will sell at least 1,000,000.

If they dispose of half that number they will divide $50,000 in awards to those who make the best predictions as to the result of the Presidential election by naming the winning candidate and approximating most nearly to the total number of his popular vote. The best prophet will receive $10,000, the next best $5,000, the next $1,000, the next $500, the next $400, the next $300, the next $200, the next 25 each $100.

To be entitled to compete in this contest a person must buy a picture for one dollar, and submit at the same time an estimate as to the result of the Presidential election. Name, address, and guess of the picture buyer will be carefully recorded, and at the close of the election it will be an easy matter to select the successful prophets.

A great many people have already bought pictures on these terms, and the number of buyers increases each day. Another inducement to purchase, besides the value of the pictures and the probability of securing a large sum of money, is the gratification of the benevolent instincts of purchasers, who know that they are contributing to the sick baby funds of the large cities of the country. If half a million pictures are sold this portion of the receipts, known as the Baby Mckee-Baby Cleveland Fund, will amount to $25,000.

A daily division of receipts is made, and the dues of the picture purchasers and sick baby funds are deposited with the Bank of the Metropolis, which holds them in trust for the beneficiaries until the end of the Presidential election. Thus, every picture buyer is perfectly secure of being paid whatever donation he or she may earn.

Agents easily make large commissions selling these pictures.—Adv.

THE HORSE AND CARRIAGE TRADE.

Business Improving in Horses and Vehicles—The Time for Bargains.

The improvement in the horse and carriage trade the past week has been encouraging all along the line, and from now on until the regular fall season begins a steady increase in business is looked for. Bargains in carriages suitable to all seasons can be found at all the well-known houses. In the horse market buyers have been numerous, and the general condition of the market has exceeded expectations and is gratifying to dealers. Van Tassell & Kearney's Tuesday and Friday sales have been well attended. Following are standard quotations in the local horse market: Carriage pairs, $750 to $1,800; good drivers, $350 to $800; saddle horses, $500 to $1,200; horses suitable for ladies and buggies, $150 to $200; truck horses, $150 to $350; business horses for light work, $125 to $300; railroad horses from $150 up.

All spare time in the carriage trade is being devoted to preparations for the fall trade; still, the regular trade has not been neglected. At Van Tassell & Kearney's mammoth repository buyers will find the usual fine display to select from at prices to suit.

J. M. Quimby & Co. of Newark, opposite the D. L. and W. R. R. depot, have made a few additions to their fine assortment of carriages of all descriptions. One feature of their business is the repairing department, which is quite extensive.

Flandrau & Co., at Broadway and Fifty-first street, who turn out some of the finest equipages in the market, have on hand the best grade carriages, suitable for both city and country. They expect that their extension brougham, which will be one of their specialties for the fall, will eclipse their previous efforts in that line.

Edward Callanan's Son, 1,522 Broadway, who leads in reductions, has still a few rare vehicles left, among which are second-hand victorias that have been but little used. The usual additions have been made to the regular stock.

At 265 and 267 Canal street Studelaker Bros. Manufacturing Company have made great reductions in all departments. Their display of fancy traps is one of the most complete in the city. Their Fountleroy trap is popular in New York and elsewhere.

J. A. Birch of Burlington, N. J., has always on hand a complete stock of carriages of all makes. Manufacturing carriages are worth a visit. The choicest bargains can be found in his harness department.

Bradley & Co., 14 Warren street, has renovated his stock, besides making several additions. The display of light wagons in fancy colors is very attractive.

Bargains in shop-worn buggies can be found at Thompson's, 79 and 81 Wooster street, at prices to suit all classes of trade.

FATHER BILL DALY ARRESTED.

He Beat Two Boys with a Buggy Whip and Spent the Night in Jail.

W. C. Daly, better known as Father Bill, and familiar to turfmen all over the continent by the latter cognomen, was arrested at his home, near Gravesend, on Sunday night, charged with brutally beating James Keefe and William Houlihan, two tiny boys, said to have been apprenticed to the hard-fisted turfman, who hoped to make jockeys out of them.

Bill thought he would have no difficulty in obtaining bail at Coney Island, and sent for several prominent horsemen, including J. H. McCormick and William Lakeland. The lads Keefe and Houlihan were badly cut and bruised, and the Justice refused to admit Daly on bail, and Father Bill asked tearfully whether he would have to stay in the lock-up all night. The Justice said it looked that way, and the pride of Hartford slept in the Coney Island jail with Sunday drunks and a horde of disorderly women as companions in adjoining cells.

Yesterday morning when Daly's case came up, the boys, who are only 12 years of age, were put on the stand. The Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Children conducted the prosecution and the case was remanded for a few days, the boys in the mean time being locked up as witnesses. While Daly was released on bail, his counsel, Joe Howe, says that he will press the charge against Daly to the bitter end.

Daly brought out McLaughlin, Garrison, the Lambleys, and other good jockeys. He is said to be worth $250,000 or $300,000. He is a noted task master, and this is not the first time he has brutally beaten boys in his charge. Wholesome hickory wins is what he used to punish Keefe and Houlihan.
