WESTERN SERIES ENDED,

AND THE BATTLE WILL BEGIN IN THE EAST TO-MORROW.

Cleveland Lost a Game Yesterday, and Brooklyn Dropped the Third Straight at Cincinnati—Chicago and New York Play Two Games at the Polo Grounds To-morrow, and St. Louis and Brooklyn Meet at Eastern Park—Other Games.

The features of yesterday's play were Pittsburgh's feat in tying Boston for second place and the fact that Cleveland finally lost a game, the lowly Senators throwing down the Forest City men. Brooklyn's third successive defeat at the hands of Cincinnati would seem to indicate that Comiskey's men have again struck a lively gait. The Eastern teams will probably be glad to shake off the dust and defeats of the Western diamonds and return to their own stamping grounds. Yesterday's games resulted:

Cincinnati, 8; Brooklyn, 1.
Chicago, 4; Boston, 2.
St. Louis, 9; Philadelphia, 8.
Pittsburgh, 7, Baltimore, 5.
Washington, 3; Cleveland, 2.

CINCINNATI, 8; BROOKLYN, 1.

CINCINNATI, Sept. 3.—A crowd of 2,432 lusty-lunged souls saw the Cincinnatis maul the Brooklyns once more to-day, and Sullivan pitched his seventh successive winning game. Not a defeat has been credited to him yet. There was no kick about this victory. Only two of the visitors were able to make safe connection with his speedy balls, and the sole run made was a four-bagger. Burns, who made two of the three hits, was powerless when he faced the big Boston fellow with the bases full. Haddock's delivery was easily solved.

Brouthers circled around in the first inning on a terrific drive over Browning's head. That narrow lead was wiped out at once. Eight of the local men faced Haddock, and three of them got home. In the third inning Sullivan commenced by striking out Haddock. Ward got his base on balls. Latham's failure to hold Vaughn's throw spared Griffin, and made a double steal good. Then O'Brien struck out. Brouthers came up with memories of his crack to the club house, and he got a pass for a first-class passage to first. Sullivan then settled down and fooled Burns into another strike out. After that only two Brooklyn men reached a base. The score:
