KEEPING THE TRACK WARM.

FAVORITES CAPTURE FOUR OF THE SIX PURSES ON THE HILLTOP.

Harry Jones Lands on 8 to 1 Shot in the Opening Scramble—Airplant, Kirsch, Lucy Clark, and Panhandle Run True to Form.

Notwithstanding the marrow-piercing blast which swept the heights of North Bergen yesterday, six fairly good races were run on a track which had enough loam on the surface to break the concussion when the thoroughbreds bounded over it with giant strides. Mr. Caldwell was requested to send the horses off with as little delay as possible, and he did. Four favorites won, so the crowd that filled the betting ring fared well.

The first purse, for beaten horses, was captured easily by Lizzie T., at 8 to 1, the longest shot of the day. Ada B. second and Narka colt beating Rocket, the favorite, for third place. Penny hustled Airplant, favorite for the second race, home winner in a drive by a neck from J. McLaughlin, ridden by Howe. Penny's superior riding won the race. Kirsch, odds on favorite in the third race, was never headed. He won easily by a length. Blackburn, third choice, beat Persistence, second choice, for the place. Penny rode the Susie Fuller gelding, a 5 to 1 chance, in the fourth race, and the smart jockey landed the gelding winner in a drive by a neck. Cocoa, third choice, taking the place by a head from Trump, second choice. The fifth race was won by Lucy Clark, post favorite at 7 to 5, leading all the way, and beating Kenwood, second choice, easily by half a length. Panhandle, favorite at odds on, won the sixth race in a grappling finish by a nose. Harry Ireland beating Bullfinch a short head for the place. Summary:

The main was for $250 a side and $50 a battle. Utica birds won seven out of the twelve battles and the Uticans won a large quantity of the private bets placed on the battles. During the fight the bird John L. Sullivan, which for three years has not lost a fight, and which was owned in this city, was killed.

Skating at Central Park.

The skaters of this city were rejoiced yesterday to learn that the cold snap of the last few days had frozen the Central Park lakes to a sufficient thickness to warrant their being opened to the public.

There was skating on the big lake yesterday, and the devotees of this pastime who have been traveling up to Van Cortlandt Lake heretofore turned out in force at Central Park and enjoyed some good skating.

LOW PRICES FOR TROTTING STOCK.

Mr. Case Buys in Lexington Wilkes—Mr. Shults Gives $1,000 for a Yearling.

The sale of the Hickory Grove Farm trotters was continued at the American Institute building yesterday. Fifty-six head were sold for a total of $18,905, an average of $337.60 each. This makes the total for two days reach $52,755 for 160 head, and there is no denying the fact that Eastern buyers are becoming more careful every day. They want nothing but the most fashionable blood, and will pay the price for it.

Prices ruled very low all day, the top price being $1,100, which young Jackson I. Case gave for the ten-year-old George Wilkes stallion, Lexington Wilkes. Bidders were lethargic until a yearling filly by Guy Wilkes, 2:15¾, out of Leontine, 2:23¾, was led into the ring. This young thing represents fashionable breeding, and she was quickly carried along until $1,000 was reached, at which price she was knocked down to J. H. Shults of Parkville Farm. The yearling filly by Brown, 2:18¾, out of Quaere, by Sultan, also sold well, C. I. Shoop of Racine, Wis., taking her for $600. Residents of Racine have bought freely, and appear to be well pleased with their bargains. The stout little pacing stallion, Vandal Wilkes, 2:24, by Governor Sprague out of Vandalia, by George Wilkes, was cheap at $450, and the young mare, Highwine, by Nutwood, out of Alta, 2:23¾, by Almont, was a decided bargain at $725, the price paid for her by J. W. Daly of Mount Kisco Farm. A. B. Darling of the Fifth Avenue Hotel picked up a good one in Toluca, by Dictator, out of Katrina, by King Rene, $950 being the successful bid.

This is a summary of the sale:

The Splendid Sleighing Brought Out a Lot of Speed Yesterday.

Those residents of Brooklyn who own a speedy horse, whether trotter or pacer, are having great sport on the snow nowadays, the sleighing being first-class in Prospect Park and down the splendid Boulevard which reaches to the sea.

Yesterday the Park and roadway were thronged with merry parties, among those noticed being E. T. Bedford behind his new purchase, Gillette, 2:16; John F. Dingee, owner of Bella Wilkes, 2:18¼, who looked happy behind his most recent purchase, Billy A., 2:16¾; Phil Collins, driving his pacer Sam Byers; Capt. Marshall, behind his handsome team Maud and mate; J. T. Story, with his pacer Joe H., 2:26¾, having a merry brush with John Driscoll and his fast pony Slipaway; John Ireland, driving his fast bay gelding Cornell; Frank Rourke, with the most stylish black pony on the road; Freddie Bedford, son of E. T. Bedford of Kitty Patchen fame, with Chief; Sam Byers, with the bay gelding Charley Shirk; John Cornell, with Frank, 2:40; John C. C. Hubert, driving Boneset, and Louis Erdt passed everything with his pacer, Windsor H., 2:22¾. Mr. Powell drove a fine bay mare by Starlight, and Frank D. Beard sat behind Arrow, 2:13¾. Henry T. Boody, son of Brooklyn's Mayor, and President of the New Parkway Driving Club, was the subject of flattering comment as he flew by with his fast mare Sister Seer. J. F. Scholes found plenty of speed in his stallion Wisdom, and later was out with his speedy team. Phil Schmidt drove Flatbush, while Supervisor Barry, behind Mollie Mills, was the picture of happiness.

Morris Murphy seemed delighted with a full sister to his old favorite, Maud H., 2:09¼. Bob Jones drove his old-timer, Bob. Mr. Lawton was out behind his fast pacer that for two years helped him to capture the wine and mince pie which always awaited the first sleigh driver down the road. Joe Stout, the popular stable keeper of Lincoln place, was more than pleased with the clip shown by his favorite, Tommy Sheridan. Jim Ripley sampled Doctor, and Tommy Sheridan was on hand with James R., 2:20¾.

Dr. Fuller, without doubt the happiest man on the road, enjoyed the fresh air behind his handsome and fast pacer that can step a 2:20 gait. Mr. Funchion drove Morris; James Gormley, one of Parkville's prominent citizens, seemed contented with the performance of his filly Georgiana, by Epaulet; ex-Alderman Shields drove Tommy S., Poly Allen looked the glass of fashion with his swift pair, William E. Weeks was first out with Mr. W. S. Lawson's fast gray colt by Nutbourne, and later with the handsome filly Nyanza, by Quartermaster.

The fact that Byrne is making arrangements to accept the Presidency of the New York Club has brought the name of Charles H. Ebbetts prominently to the front as a fitting successor to Byrne in the management of the Brooklyn Club, and the general opinion is that Ebbetts would be a first-class man for the place. As Secretary of the club he has learned every detail of club management, and in every thorough manner, and his assistance to President Byrne has been of the most efficient character.

If Mr. Byrne finally decides to come to New York the chances are that John Ward will conclude to remain in Brooklyn and not endeavor to earn $6,000 or $7,000 a year practicing law. In that event Ebbetts and Ward would make a fine team for the Brooklyns.

A New Baseball League.

At the International Hotel last night the Middle States Baseball League was organized. The following cities were represented: Hoboken, Paterson, Poughkeepsie, and Waterbury. Easton, Pa., was represented by proxy. The following officers were elected: W. H. Whiteman of Reading, President; T. M. Franey of Waterbury, Vice-President; John S. Bailey of Hoboken, N. J., Secretary, and Alfred J. Paterson, Treasurer. After the election of officers, Hoboken, Paterson, Waterbury, Reading, Poughkeepsie, N. Y., and Easton were admitted to membership. The championship season will extend from June 1 to Oct. 1. The league will comprise at least ten clubs. Another meeting will be held in a few days to complete the circuit.

Atalanta Boat Club Election.

The forty-fifth annual meeting and election of officers of the Atalanta Boat Club was held last night at the arena in East Thirty-first street. President M. V. B. Smith occupied the chair. Treasurer E. J. Benson's annual report was received with great applause. It showed the club's assets to be $14,657.12, and liabilities $267.22. Capt. J. Van Raden made a lengthy report on the club's very successful season, it having won more races and prizes in the last year than ever before in the history of the club, the paired-and-tandem championship being included in the list.

The club won in all nineteen races and 110 prizes. The retirement of Capt. Van Raden, who announced that his business demanded his full time, was somewhat of a surprise to the members, he having filled the position with great success for a number of years. As an incentive to the young oarsmen a resolution was presented by H. MacLean to place hereafter upon the honorary list all members who should win a national race. The slate of officers for the ensuing year resulted as follows:

President, M. V. B. Smith; First Vice-President, Howard A. Maclean; Second Vice-President, George E. O. Chase; Treasurer, E. J. Benson; Secretary, H. H. Helmsell; captain, William C. Boescher; senior lieutenant, John A. Dempsey; junior lieutenant, Henry S. Cashion; commodore, David Banks. Trustees to serve two years—H. H. Helmsell, W. H. Westall, A. B. Heath, and B. Van Holland. Delegates to the Harlem Regatta Association—J. Davenport, E. Irvine, and E. Beane; to Hudson Regatta Association—W. H. Westall, A. B. Heath, and B. Van Holland, and J. Dempsey; to Passaic Regatta Association—H. E. O. Chase, H. B. Cashion, and J. Davidson; to National Regatta Association, T. Van Raden.

Champion Corbett's Plans.

CHICAGO, Jan. 10.—After May 1 James J. Corbett will become a citizen of Chicago. Today he signed a contract with the Corbett Theatrical and Pavilion Company, by the terms of which he will appear at every performance in a sparring bout with Johnny Donaldson. W. A. Brady will manage and have sole charge of the theatrical end. The season will open May 1. By the provisions of the contract Corbett can, if his proposed fight with Mitchell next October becomes a fixture, withdraw from the concern in ample time to properly train for the contest. Corbett will simply spar, and the exhibition will be of the highclass vaudeville order. Manager Brady will open an office in New York next week and begin to book his novelties.

Joe Goddard sticks with dogged determination to Corbett's trail. He is crazy for a fight, and thinks that his champion should meet the Californian when he puts up the money. He released the latter from his contract that they box four rounds at Battery D some night this week. He thought there would be at least $10,000 in the house. He released the latter until Jan. 20, and that he would not notice the Australian until he whipped his countryman, Peter Jackson. Goddard and Billy Madden will leave for the Pacific coast tomorrow. Corbett says there is no truth in the report he got from New York that he and Sullivan are about to go into partnership.

Instructor Leonard Says the Wrestling was a Farce.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE SUN.—Sir: You will confer a favor upon me by publishing the following criticism of the manner in which the wrestling match was conducted at the recent championships in Philadelphia.

The weighing in was done contrary to rule 15. The contestants were not allowed to see their competitors, but this was done in spite of my protest, without the presence of the competitors, thus violating rule 16.

The referee showed his general ignorance of wrestling in many ways, such as allowing falls where no match, according to rule 14, and rule 14 in that the several times ordered three bouts of six minutes each.

In the finals a heavy-weight contest was put in and carried through, although no notice was given that such a thing in the rules, and the referee was in advertisement or notice to that effect, thus violating rule 2. The Manhattan Athletic Club men refused to wrestle in the finals for First Prize, the second man refusing to continue to compete in games conducted in violation of every important rule laid down by the A. A. U.

Under protest of the Pastime Athletic Club I wish to add mine, that such contests should be conducted in a fair and genteel manner, but the rules were interpreted to suit, apparently, certain contestants.

It is farcical to style the winners as champions. To substantiate their claim to such titles they must show they are superior to men who were eager to compete with them, but who were unwilling to do so when such gross ignorance of the rules governing it rules governing it controlled the officials. Very truly,

BYRON LEONARD,
Instructor of Wrestling, Manhattan A. C.
