COL. CROSBY MUST PAY.

A Former Partner in a Government Contract Wins a Suit for $8,223.24.

Recorder Smyth, as referee in a suit of David V. Howell, a Government contractor, against Col. J. Schuyler Crosby, has given a decision in favor of the plaintiff for $8,223.24. The suit grew out of Howell's building a pier and foundation for a lighthouse on Stratford Shoals, Long Island Sound. To get the contract he had to have bondsmen, and Col. Crosby agreed to furnish them on condition that he receive the money paid on the contract and pay all expenses out of it. Of the balance he was to retain forty per cent., Howell was to have another forty per cent., and twenty per cent. was to go to Emile von Trentini, a Bavarian nobleman, who was to be bookkeeper. This was in 1875. In December, 1876, just as the contract was completed, Howell got a letter from Col. Crosby announcing the writer's departure for Florence, where he was to serve his country as Consul, and adding that von Trentini would settle the account between them.

Howell had already received about $2,000, and when he reached New York he was told that he must take an old schooner and some tools for the remainder of his share in the profits, which amounted to $24,471.74. The schooner was represented as worth $5,000 and the tools $3,000. Afterward they brought at auction $1,000 and $300 respectively. Howell had accepted the settlement under protest, and upon Col. Crosby's return to this country in 1882 he brought suit, which the Colonel allowed to go by default, the court returning a judgment for $6,831.62 in 1888.

Last year Col. Crosby, who in the interval since the bringing of the suit had been made Governor of the Territory of Montana, moved to have the judgment opened, and the case was finally put in the hands of Recorder Smyth as referee.

Col. Crosby, who is one of the committee appointed by Mayor Gilroy to do the honors during the naval parade here, is now in Washington. His defence throughout the case has been of the character of a general denial.

WAHLE'S CHARGES DISMISSED.

Mayor Gilroy Exonerates the Charities Commissioners from Blame.

Mayor Gilroy announced his findings yesterday on the charges contained in the report of the Commissioners of Accounts alleging mismanagement on the part of the Commissioners of Charities and Correction. There were ten charges in the report, every one of which is dismissed, the Mayor declaring that there was nothing to sustain them and pronouncing some of them ridiculous.

The charges were: Excessive ferry rates, waste of grease, extravagant use of extras, inefficiency in the system of delivering meats, worthless method of bookkeeping, improper care of books to record supplies, defective method of weighing meats, increase of cost per capita at the workhouse and Blackwell's Island, and mismanagement of the New York Asylum for the Insane at Central Islip.

The investigation of the administration of the Charities Department was begun by Maurice F. Holahan, when he was Commissioner of Accounts, and continued by Charles G. F. Wahle, who succeeded him, and who drafted the report which the Mayor has dismissed. The report covers a period ending Jan. 1, 1891, and was filed with Mayor Grant on the last day of his term.

In summing up the accusations Mayor Gilroy says:

"In regard to this whole matter it seems to me that these charges should have been presented to my predecessor in ample time to have been acted upon by him. I can conceive of no good reason for retaining from the close of the year 1890 until the close of the year 1892 these charges without presentation; and I cannot find anything whatever in the communication from the Commissioners of Accounts, when read in the light of the answer made by the Commissioners of Charities and Correction, to justify such charges."

AGAINST CHRISTIAN ENDEAVORERS.

The Cleveland Presbytery Disapproves of Them—Briggsites Win a Victory.

CLEVELAND, April 12.—The Cleveland Presbytery, which met in this city to-day, disapproved of the Young People's Society of Christian Endeavor for the Presbyterian Church. This society was started by another denomination, and it was thought that it tended to injure interest in Presbyterian affairs. One pastor said he had abolished the society altogether in his church. As the National Convention of the society is to be held in Cleveland this summer, and as the movement against it has begun here, it is thought there will be another wordy war in religious circles.

Another matter that came up was the heresy case of the Rev. Dr. Sprecher. It had been referred back by the Ohio Synod to give Dr. Sprecher an opportunity to say something about his belief in the authenticity of the the Scriptures. Dr. Sprecher refused to say more than he already had, and the Presbytery dropped the case at once.

Then the selection of Commissioners to the General Assembly at Washington next May was made, and the Briggs faction scored a decided victory. The Commissioners will be the Rev. Dr. J. N. Mcgiffert, Ashtabula; the Rev. J. R. Williamson, Cleveland; John Buchan, and Daniel P. Eels, Cleveland. They are all liberals.

A Moonshiners' Den Discovered in the Heart of Brooklyn.

Some of Revenue Collector Nathan's deputies discovered a moonshiners' establishment yesterday in an old building at 179 Remsen street, Brooklyn. The birds had all flown when the descent was made, but there was abundant evidence that they had recently been at work. The illicit outfit was found on the second floor, and consisted of a copper still, a boiler and thermometer, and there were besides three barrels of molasses, one barrel of spirits, nine empty barrels, and an overcoat, in the pocket of which there was a copy of a yesterday morning's paper.

Young Husted's Death Not Caused by His Playmates.

Deputy Coroner Weston performed an autopsy yesterday on the body of the boy Samuel R. Husted of 246 West 124th street, who was believed to have died from the effects of a beating inflicted by two of his playmates, Martin Buckley and Frederick Mullady. Dr. Weston decided that the boy died of spinal meningitis, but that his illness was not caused by the beating he received. Buckley and Mullady will be rearraigned in the Harlem Court to-day.

Alexander and Salmon Held for Extortion.

The examination of City Marshal John Salmon and his partner, John V. Alexander, charged with extortion and larceny in connection with their raid on the Hotel Aberdeen on April 5, was concluded in the Jefferson Market Police Court yesterday. Judge Grady held the men in $1,000 bail each for the action of the Grand Jury on the charge of extortion. Their examination on the charge of larceny was put over until Friday afternoon. Both men, being unable to furnish bonds, were again locked up.

WON BY THE BOY DEFENDANT.

Young Philip Koenig May Now Contemplate His Maturity Without Dread.

When Judge Dugro opened Part I. of the Supreme Court yesterday morning the sealed verdict of the jury in the case of Henry Weiss, who is suing fourteen-year-old Philip Koenig for $5,000 damages for slapping his son, Charley Weiss, Philip's playmate, thereby causing his death from meningitis, was opened, the jury found for the defendant, dismissing the case against Koenig, the youngest defendant who has appeared for many years in a New York court.

Philip's father is a butcher, and it is not thought that the money could be recovered from him were Weiss to obtain judgment, but Weiss's idea was to obtain judgment to hold over until young Philip Koenig came of age. Then if he owned property, Weiss intended to levy upon it.

Lawyer Henry M. Regua, Jr., 237 Broadway, counsel for the plaintiff, said yesterday that he did not think the case would be appealed. He added that this was the first case of the kind that ever came up in this State, and that he thought it the first of the kind in the United States.
