THEY TERRORIZED STAMFORD.

Arrest of Three Men Who Are Supposed to Have Committed Many Robberies.

BRIDGEPORT, May 13.—This afternoon there were lodged in the county jail in this city three men who have been terrorizing the residents in the vicinity of Stamford. When they left the train they were chained together, and were in charge of Sheriff Bolster and other Stamford officials. Judge Downs of the Stamford court had committed them to the county jail to await trial at the next term of the Superior Court on the charge of highway robbery. For several days the men had been committing various acts of depredations on residents in the vicinity of Stamford. On Thursday afternoon they appeared in the vicinity of the residence of Mrs. William Bishop, who lives near the reservoir in North Stamford. After a consultation one of them went to the door and asked Mrs. Bishop for something to eat. She was alone in the house, and when she told the man she had nothing for him he grabbed her by the arm and dragged her into the yard. She cried loudly for assistance, but there was no help. Her strength had about given out and her assailant was forcing her toward his two companions, who had remained in the road, when around the corner of the house came a large watchdog, kept on the premises. Mrs. Bishop's cries had attracted the attention of the dog, and he came to the help of his mistress. He savagely attacked the man who had attacked Mrs. Bishop, securing a hold on the man's leg. With a cry of pain the man released the almost fainting woman and beat the dog off.

Meanwhile Mrs. Bishop had reached the house and securely fastened the doors and windows. The men loitered around for a short time threatening to kill Mrs. Bishop. They took the road in the direction of New Canaan, and had gone but a short distance when they met Marketman Crimm of East Norwalk driving along on his way to New Canaan. When the horse was opposite them one of them grabbed its head. The other two advanced toward Mr. Crimm and demanded money. Quick as a flash Crimm drew a revolver from under the seat and levelled it at them, threatening to shoot if they came a step nearer. The man holding the horse's head let go, and with the other two got out of the way quickly.

When Evans Weed, a farm hand employed on the Bishop farm, returned home, several hours after the men had left that place, he found Mrs. Bishop nearly prostrated. She told him the story, and he hitched up a team and started in pursuit. The men were located near New Canaan, and a posse of officers surprised them and placed all under arrest and took them to Stamford, where the hearing took place to-day.

Yesterday morning Railroad Agent Frank T. Palmer opened the station at Sound Beach and found things in the office in great confusion. The place had been entered and ransacked, but only a few railroad tickets and a small sum of money were taken. The station at Riverside, only about a mile away, was also entered the same night. The burglars had found little of value there, and took away only a few stamps and a small sum of money.

There have been scores of petty burglaries, assaults, and thieving going on in the vicinity of Stamford for some time. The authorities have been unable to find the perpetrators. The men who assaulted Mrs. Bishop gave their names as Connor, Cox, and Reed, but otherwise refuse to make statements about themselves. It is thought they are part of the gang which has been at work in that part of Fairfield county, and the police are congratulating themselves in capturing them.

To Open the Coaching Season.

The formal opening of the coaching season will take place next Saturday, when the Coaching Club will make its annual spring drive. The drive to Lake Hopatcong has been abandoned, and it is not unlikely that the first trip will be made to Mr. Frederick Bronson's farm, near Verona, at Verona, Conn., where the party will remain over Sunday as Mr. Bronson's guests. The old Pioneer coach will be used, and the party will probably include Col. William Jay, Mr. E. D. Morgan, and Mr. F. K. Sturgis. Mr. J. Roosevelt Roosevelt, the secretary of the club, will sail with Mrs. Roosevelt for England on Wednesday. He expects to be absent until late in the summer.

The annual parade of the Coaching Club will take place on May 27.

She Caught Her Husband Kissing.

Mrs. Annie Cornell of 504 East Fourteenth street caught her husband kissing Mrs. Lizzie Dristle of 70 Cannon street, who came to visit her on Friday night. The wife promptly struck her guest over the head with a frying pan, and in the Essex Market Police Court yesterday Justice Taintor held the former for trial on a charge of assault.
