WIGLEY'S BILL MEDAL.

The National Quoiting Trophy Won by the Yonkers Expert.

The twenty-sixth annual competition for the Bell quoit medal furnished several hours rare sport yesterday afternoon on the grounds of Proudman's Eclipse Hotel, West Chester, under the auspices of the Grand National Curling Club of America. The matches were played on the natural sod, with quoits not exceeding eight inches in diameter. There was no restriction as to weight, and the players displayed a remarkable diversity of taste in this respect. The motts were fixed eighteen yards apart. Twenty-six aspirants turned up to try conclusions for the historic trophy, and the contestants with their followers, and the guests and members of the promoting club, were lavishly entertained by the committee while the preliminaries were being arranged.

The opening ties showed many of the veteran players in line. Ex-Vice-President George Grieve, who captured the medal at New York in 1878 and again last year in the Utica tournament, wielded his four-pound quoits with unimpaired accuracy. Robert Curry of the St. Andrew's Club, who won at Milwaukee in 1885, fought his way cleverly through three ties and then withdrew. The Yonkers contingent were brimful of confidence in the superiority of their champion, Thomas Wigley. The only time he tried previously was in 1891, and he then won it in impressive style. He uses seven-pound quoits, although a small, light-framed man, and plays very carefully.

David Foulis, the popular ex-secretary of the club, received quite an ovation when he won the opening game, but he got no further, as a severe strain obliged him to forfeit to Wigley in the next round. Alderman William Greenhalgh of Yonkers, another of the old timers, was more fortunate, as he drew the coveted bye in the second round; but he went down before the deadly pitching of ex-President Thomas Nicholson in the third tie. Nicholson in turn succumbed to Wigley after a trip of heart-breaking ill luck. The bye went to G. Grieve.

The 1891-92 winners, T. Wigley and G. Grieve, were brought together in the final round, and rarely has such a game been seen on a quoit ring. Wigley was first to score a point, but his opponent responded in kind as persistently that "seven up," "eight up" and "ten up" were reached amid the greatest enthusiasm. Grieve got away to thirteen, but Wigley then scored rapidly until the game was called to 15 in his favor. Grieve closed up again until his score stood 13 to his rival's 20. As they took the decisive pitches in semi-darkness the excitement among the spectators was intense. All four quoits dropped almost on the mott, but the point was in Wigley's favor, and he was declared the winner. Not a little of his success was due to the coaching of James Burdon of Pittston, Pa. Burdon is a noted player on clay, and when he went out in the first round on the unfamiliar natural sod he attached himself to Wigley's fortunes. The first man to congratulate the winner was the defeated favorite, Grieve. Summaries:

Curlers Organizing for the Next Campaign.

The twenty-seventh annual convention of the Grand National Curling Club of America passed off uneventfully on Wednesday at Union Square Hall. The following clubs were represented: Caledonian, New York, John L. Hamilton, William Winterbottom, and David Foulis; New York Club, William Hogg, John Paterson, and C. S. Ogden; Jersey City, James Stephens and R. I. McKnight; St. Andrews, New York, Thomas Nicholson and W. H. Smith; Yonkers, Robert Kellock and F. L. Thomas; Thistle, New York, M. M. Campbell and John Watt; Fourbio of Canada, C. S. Ogden, proxy; Empire City, New York, A. Mancell and J. F. Conley; Manhattan, New York, David Foulis, proxy; Utica, John Paterson, proxy; American, New York, Francis Dykes; Albany City, George W. Flynn and John J. Schoonhoven; Excelsior, New York, H. Hutchison and A. C. Anderson; John o'Groat, New York, George Bain; United Club, Pennsylvania, John Dobie; Thistle Lackawanna of Avoca, Pennsylvania, James Burdon.

Amendments of changes in the laws were proposed, but not one of the innovations brought forward secured the endorsement of the necessary majority.

The new officers elected were: President, John Watt, Thistle, New York; 1st Vice-President, John L. Hamilton, Yonkers C. C.; Second Vice-President, John N. Foster, Albany C. C.; Secretary, John J. Van Schoonhoven, Albany C. C.; Treasurer, R. A. McKnight, Jersey City C. C.

When the officers had been installed one of the delegates created great merriment by analyzing their nationality. From his remarks it was ascertained that the first vice-president is a Welshman, second vice-president an American, secretary a German, and the treasurer a Nova Scotian.

The schedule committee, composed of John Watt, James F. Conley, James Buddon, George W. Flynn, and E. L. Thomas, announced the following games for the annual curling competition for the district medals: Caledonian and United Pittston, Thistle (New York) and Avoca, Yonkers and Utica, John o'Groat and Manhattan, New York and John o'Groat, Thistle (Brooklyn) and Excelsior, Jersey City and American, Tuxedo and Jewel, Empire City and Albany City, St. Andrews and Empire City.

The Yonkers Club invited the national body to accept their hospitality during the next annual meeting. The invitation was accepted, and the twenty-eighth annual convention will be held at Yonkers.

The Treasurer of the National Club reported a balance on hand of $117.57. The following clubs were dropped from the roll: Chicago, Hamilton, Ontario, Hastings, Portland, Orton, and the Fourbros of Toronto.

This afternoon the twenty-sixth annual championship quoit match for the Bell medal takes place at the Eclipse Hotel, West Chester, between the numbers of curling clubs in good standing with the G. N. C. C. of America are entitled to compete.

How the Australian Champion Plays Handball.

John Jones, the champion handball player of Australia, made his Eastern debut in the Brooklyn Handball Club's court yesterday afternoon and received a rousing reception. Among those present were President Carmody of the Brooklyn Handball Club, President Rorty of the Manhattanville Club, Timothy Ryan of Newark, Capt. Billy Rose, Edward Flynn, William Emmons, Tommy Gallagan, John Connor, Dr. Phil Smith, Wm. Courtney, Tom Courtney, Peter Connolly, George Heaney, Val Flood, Mike Dunn and Hughey Napier, the Australian pocketts, and John Cambridge, an old friend of Jones's. Of course, the majority of the experts were anxious to see Jones play. He was allotted an hour, and some antipathy to partners for the members' club, Dr. Phil Smith, while Champion Phil Casey and Timothy Ryan, an old-time player, took the opposite side of the line, besides his lack of familiarity with the single, Jones played under Tim Ryan's eyes for the first time in his life, and he was not seen to the best advantage. He weighed a trifle over 143 pounds on entering the court, but scales eight pounds less when he stripped for the fray. He stands 5 feet 9½ inches tall and is nearly put together. He was born at Sydney twenty-seven years ago and has been playing handball for several years. He beat Mike Laughlan for the Australian championship in 1889, and has held it since. He uses both hands freely in playing, his left being exceptionally good. Those who watched him play yesterday are satisfied that he can put up a much better game when he has mastered the acoustics of the courts in the vicinity and the rules governing.

Jones has promised to play in Brooklyn on next Wednesday, and William Courtney, probably the most finished player Jones never stood beside, will be his partner. Champion Casey and Dr. Smith will make a worthy opposing team, and a remarkable exhibition match is expected.

Rub In Rub Out is the way you have to wash clothes with soap. First you rub the soap in; that's work in itself. Then you rub it all out again over the washboard. If you're strong and healthy, and rub hard enough, you may get the dirt all out, too. It's hard work, and every woman knows it. But it isn't the woman only that suffers. She's wearing the clothes out, rubbing them to pieces, all the time. It's just as hard for every thing as it is for every body.

Soak In Soak Out is Pearline's way of washing. All it wants is to be let alone. Put it in the water and it does its own work — yours, too. It brings the dirt out easily and quickly—no hard work, no wearing rub, rub, rub, no washboard.

Doesn't that seem better? It is better. There's a saving of strength and a saving of clothes. And, what some women can't believe, it's absolutely safe. It's just as much so as any good soap.

Beware Peddlers and some unscrupulous grocers will tell you, "this is as good as" or "the same as Pearline." IT'S FALSE—Pearline is never peddled, if your grocer sends you an imitation, be honest—send it back. 377 JAMES PYLE, New York.

For the fourth time this season, and the seventh in their tennis careers, Hobart beat Hovey, and will challenge Knapp to-morrow. SEABRIGHT, July 13.—Exceptionally good playing marked the third day's games in the annual tennis tournament for the Seabright Tennis Cup. The singles were decided in favor of William A. Larned, who wins the championship of the tournament. His match with Stevens, the holder of the challenge cup of last year, will be played on Saturday.

The first match to-day was between E. L. Hall and H. M. Billings. Hall won by 7—5, 6—2. In the final round Larned defeated Hall, 8—6, 6—2, 6—1.

In the first match of the doubles Billings and Wright defeated S. M. Allen and partner, 6—4, 4—6, 6—3. The second match on the court was interrupted by rain.

The event of the day was the exhibition match between Richard Stevens, holder of the cup, and Oliver S. Campbell, champion of the United States. Stevens won the first set, 6—4, and had the second set, 4—2, in his favor, when the rain put a stop to the match.

Gossip of the Ring.

Billy Edwards left for Saratoga on Wednesday. Billy expects to be gone about two months

Australian Billy Murphy is training at Newark for a battle with Ed Listman of New York.

Jerry Barnett has signed an agreement to meet the "Pickaninny" at Madden's boxing exhibition at the Windsor Theatre next Tuesday night.

Casper Leon thinks he can defeat Connie Sullivan for the 105-pound championship, and informed a SUN reporter yesterday that he was anxious to make a match with him.

President O'Malley of the Columbian A.C. has a letter from the backer of Jack Levy, the 100-pound English champion, stating his willingness to meet Jim Barry of Chicago. The pair should easily be matched.

Parson Davies said recently that the Columbian A. C. has offered $17,000 for a match between Fitzsimmons and Choynski, and that Choynski will agree not to scale over 165 pounds if Fitz will meet him at catch weights.

There is some talk of matching Jack Randall, the young Philadelphia featherweight who came very near knocking Johnny Van Heest out when they met a few nights ago, against Jerry Barnett or some other good local featherweight.

Austin Gibbons is training at Passaic for the tri-State boxing contest to be held next Monday at the Shooting Park, Newark. Gibbons is to try and stop Bull McCarthy of Philadelphia and Joe Harmon of New York in four rounds each.

George Hogan, who claims to have bested Billy Ernst in Philadelphia a short time ago, is anxious to fight Mike Leonard or Jimmy Lynch. Hogan says that he would like the contest to be to a finish at 128 pounds, give or take two pounds.

Young Griffo and Tommy Ryan, the welter weight, had a brief bout a day or two ago at Chicago. Griffo made a desperate lunge, which Ryan adroitly ducked, and the latter retaliated with a savage upper cut on Griffo's jaw, knocking him down and nearly out.

JACKSON, July 13.—George Le Blanche, "the Marine," and Bob Manning started in to fight fifteen rounds Wednesday night, but in the eighth the affair was stopped by the police. Manning had somewhat the best of the fight, and in the third round knocked "the Marine" under the ropes.

Billy Reid, the backer of Johnny Reagan, called at the Police Gazette office yesterday and said he will claim Billy Madden's forfeit of $200, which is his latter posted on behalf of Jack Ryan to circle a match with Reagan, if Madden does not show himself and bring the matter to a crisis within another week.

Dan Creedon, who is to meet Alec Greggains in a few weeks at Roby, Ind., is said to be a tough man. Creedon has a good record, and hails from Australia. Greggains, it is said, didn't fancy Creedon's game, but had to take him on as a last resort. If Creedon wins, his backers will match him against Bob Fitzsimmons.

P. J. Ring of Mount Vernon and Duncan C. Ross, the all-round athlete, were matched yesterday to wrestle best three falls out of five Graeco-Roman, catch-as-catch-can and collar-and-elbow styles. The contest will be for $100 a side. Each man deposited $100 with the Police Gazette. The match will be decided either in this city or at Mount Vernon.

INDIANAPOLIS, July 13.—The failure of the Sheriff to stop the fights at the Columbian A.C. arena on Monday night has made Gov. Matthews more determined than ever that prize fighting shall cease in Indiana. It is said that the next move of the Executive will be to send a detachment of militia to Roby and forcibly stop the fights.

CHICAGO, July 13.—About three months ago George Levigne of Ishpeming, Mich., and Eddie Myer, both lightweights, fought to a finish near Streator, this State. The La Salle County Grand Jury found indictments against many persons who were in any way connected with the fight. Levigne eluded arrest until this morning, when he was caught in this city.

PORTLAND, Or., July 13.—Jack Dempsey is a greatly disappointed man. Just about the time he intended to take the train to carry him east word came by telegram received from an official of the Coney Island A. C. to the effect that his match with Billy Smith had been postponed until September. "Well, I'll have to stay a little while longer here," said Jack "but you can bet that there will be a fight between Smith and myself, and it will not be later than September either."

John L. Sullivan, looking the picture of health, was in town for a couple of hours yesterday morning. The big fellow has taken on considerable flesh of late, and does not seem to move about with his old-time vim and vigor. He has reorganized his theatrical company for next season, and will stick to the "Man from Boston" Sullivan would not express his opinion regarding the supposed Corbett-Mitchell fight. He thinks Mitchell means business, however. Sullivan says he has been on the sober list for months, and is saving money.
