The Ulster. Why so named? Webster's Unabridged defines it, "First made at Ulster, Ireland, of frieze, a coarse, woolen cloth with a tufted nap on one side."

Our Ulsters made of Frieze, Chinchilla and Shetland stand for warmth, comfort and durability, at a grade of prices from 12 to 35 dollars.

This is treacherous weather. Wise men are buying our Ulsters and saving doctor's bills.

Wear our Ulster and our Underwear. Best mode of double protection we know anything about.
