THE WIND-UP ON THE HILL.

A GREAT CROWD SURGES THROUGH THE GATES TO SEE THE SPORT.

Groups of Women Keep the Grand Stand Bookmaker Busy—Persistence, a 30 to 1 Shot, Wins the Long Race—Men Knocked Down in the Finish of the Fourth Race.

The largest and most enthusiastic throng of racegoers that ever taxed the capacity of the track at Guttenburg attended the last day's races that will be seen in New Jersey for at least three months to come. Hundreds of women were packed in the surging mass that filled the grand stand, and groups of them besieged the bookmaker delegated to attend to their wants in the betting line. Diamonds as large as filberts flashed from the ears of a few of the women, but all were quiet in demeanor, and the young man who received their money in exchange for tickets frequently had to request them to speak louder when they named the horses they desired to back. This was in strong contrast to the hurly-burly, pushing, and crowding in the great betting ring set apart for men.

An accident occurred in the fourth race. The horses swung to the outside of the track near the finish, running into William Roller and Thomas Brophy, who were standing on the track. Brophy's hoad was cut badly, and Roller was tumbled about and shaken up.

The betting fraternity fared fairly well, three favorites and a second choice landing purses. The fifth race, at a mile and three-quarters, was the event of the day. Zaldivar, 3 to 1, got up at 10 to 1, set the pace, St. Anthony and the Ironmaster taking it up in turn to the last furlong, where Persistence, at 30 to 1, came strong and won by a length, the Ironmaster beating St. Anthony for the place.

The filly Balance, first choice in the opening race, headed the field of thirteen from the start and won as she pleased. Contribution, at 15 to 1, beating Vespasian for the place.

Speculation, at 8 to 1, beat the favorite. Copyright, handily in the second race. Leonardo getting third money.

George F. Smith, favorite, and Drum Major, second choice, carried the bulk of the money in the third race. George F. Smith ran away from the field at the start, but Drum Major came with a rush at the finish, and won by a length from George F. Smith. Token winning third money.

Eclipse, at odds on, landed the last purse safely, Stonington, at 30 to 1, beating Dalsyrian for the place. Summary:

A BIG DAY FOR THE GUNNERS.

The Perth Amboy Gun Club's Annual Shoot a Big Success.

PERTH AMBOY, Nov. 30.—The Perth Amboy Gun Club held a Thanksgiving shoot at live birds and blue rocks on their grounds here to-day with all sorts of prizes. It was one of the best day's sport that has been witnessed in eastern New Jersey in many years, and was attended by hundreds of pigeon shooting enthusiasts from all parts of the State, with a goodly sprinkling of New York cracks. William F. Hartman of the Perth Amboy Gun Club entered in four of the live bird shoots, and killed every bird, making a clean score in every one of the events.

The first match was with the rifle, and ten contestants faced the targets. Thomas Brantingham of the South Plainfield Gun Club was the winner on a score of 91 out of a possible 96. He won an immense turkey. six men faced the traps in a shoot at five live birds, conditions twenty-five yards rise, and but one barrel to be used. James Van Brackle of Matawan killed every bird but his second. James L. Tooker killed every bird with the exception of the fourth. James Van Brackle, and William F. Hartman killed his five birds straight, taking first money. The next match was at five live birds, same conditions as the last event. William F. Hartman and James Van Brackle killed their five birds and divided first money. Leander B. Campbell of the Riverside Gun Club of Red Bank killed four birds, and took second money. James M. Allen and O. Brown of the home club, who killed three each, divided third money.

Each man had three shots with twelve points to a shot making a possible thirty six. The prize was a young pig. William F. Hartman made a clean score and was tied by H. Jones of the Midway Club at Matawan.

The excitement was intense in this contest, as Hartman and Jones had made a clean score in every event. In the shoot off Hartman came 32 and Jones scored 33 and took the young porker. VIRGINIA GETS THE CHAMPIONSHIP.

Her Hardy Young Football Players Defeat the North Carolina Team.

RICHMOND, Nov. 30.—This afternoon, at Island Park, the University of Virginia for the fourth time in five years won the football championship of the South. The University of North Carolina team, which last year threatened the athletic supremacy of Virginia, was vanquished. Every inch of ground made by either team was hotly contested, and for the first half it was anybody's game. There was present by far the largest crowd ever jammed into Island Park, including almost the whole of Richmond society. Such enthusiasm was never before seen here. Every gain was made to the accompaniment of college yells, the blasts of horns, and the singing of college songs.

Virginia clearly demonstrated her football supremacy, and the Tar Heels were fortunate to escape with so small a score against them. The grounds upon which the game took place are poorly adapted to football. There is a most decided slope, and in one portion the grass was so long that it caused several fumbles. In the first half Virginia made two touch downs, both times the ball was called back and given to the Tar Heels, and on four other occasions the ball was forfeited to Carolina for alleged fouls on the latter's territory.

North Carolina won the toss and took advantage of the slope, giving the ball to Virginia. Harper had the ball at the centre of the field, the Virginia team forming three yards back for a style of play. Harper forward through the centre carried the ball to the Tar Heels' eight yard line. The ball went to North Carolina on a foul, and was brought back into Virginia's territory, where it changed hands. Time was called for the first half. Score, 0 to 0.

Second Half—North Carolina had the ball, Virginia having advantage of the hill. Virginia getting the ball on a fumble, hard rushes by Pope, Randolph, and Hickok brought it to North Carolina's five yard line, and Johnston went over for a touch down. Harper failed on the goal. Score, 4 to 0.

North Carolina gained three yards on a fine wedge. Graham went around Pree for five yards. Randolph fumbled and Harper fell on the ball, but it was returned to North Carolina for off side play. Benton made through and tackled for a yard loss. Graham and Kenan failed to gain and the ball went over. Jones, Johnson and Pope made short gains and Harper made the most brilliant play of the game by a dropped kick, bringing the ball on North Carolina's five yard line. Jones made four yards and Pope went over. Harper kicked a goal. Score, 10 to 0.

North Carolina made 10 yards in a wedge. Kenan fumbled and Earle fell on the ball. Johnston made a beautiful run of 30 yards around Merritt. Jones added six more and Pope and Harper five apiece. Johnston made another brilliant run of 15 yards and Pope went over for a touch down. Harper kicked a goal. Score, 16 to 0, when time was called. The teams:

WASHINGTON, Nov. 30.—The Georgetown University and Columbia Athletic Club football teams of this city played here to-day for the championship of the District, the Columbia Athletic Club winning by a score of 40 to 16. Nearly 10,000 persons witnessed the game. Each of the teams has held the championship and the battle to-day was for blood. During the whole game this was made evident, and the slugging was of the hardest kind. At one time they came near precipitating a free-for-all fight. Columbia had in the field to-day such players as Tommy Dowd, the baseball player of St. Louis; J. Camp, formerly of the University of Pennsylvania, and Randolph, who played left end for Princeton last season.

Cosmopolitan, 4; Philadelphia, 3.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 30.—The Cosmopolitan Football Club of New York made a great name for themselves here to-day when they defeated a representative team of all Philadelphia by 4 to 3. The game was played at Wayne Junction, and drew a crowd of some 1,500 enthusiastic followers of the dribbling code. The game was a fast one from the start, and while the Philadelphians had the advantage in the first half, the Cosmopolitans warmed up in the second, and the manner in which they made their three goals, one after the other, was the admiration of the Philadelphia team. The work of Macfarlane and Gill for the visitors was much admired, while the good keeping of Gallant was a big feature. Carruthers and Nuttall played themselves well for the Philadelphians, and Monaghan, by big kicking, did much to keep the ball out of his territory. The teams:
