MINISTER ACCUSED BY MINISTER.

The Rev. Mr. Holden Has the Rev. Mr. Walker of Holbrook Arrested.

SAYVILLE, L. I., Dec. 2.—Late on Friday evening the Rev. Beverley Walker, a Presbyterian minister, colored, of Holbrook, about five miles from Sayville, was brought before Justice O'Brien of Sayville on a warrant charging him with an assault on Susie Holden of the same village. Miss Holden is about twenty-four years old, and is the daughter of the Rev. Robert Holden, an Episcopal minister, who frequently has filled the pulpits of churches of that denomination as a relief preacher. He also teaches school at Holbrook, and was at one time the pastor of an Episcopal church in Harlem. The accused is about 50 years old. Miss Holden, it is said, is not a person of strong mind. Her story is that the assault was committed one day when the Rev. Mr. Walker met her in last September while she was on her way to the schoolhouse with her father's dinner.

She says he threatened if she told of the affair he would kill her. She says he afterward visited her at her father's house during his absence, and that she also was at his house. Finally she was forced to tell her father, and he made the complaint. The Justice held Walker under $1,500 bail for a hearing on Thursday next.

Walker was for several years night clerk in a hotel at Shelter Island, and is a man much respected where he lives. He says he is innocent, and will fight the matter to the end.

Wanted—Females.
