WHERE TO BUILD A HOME.
In the selection of a building site much depends upon its surroundings, convenience of access to depot, and the best of modern improvements. ROCHELLE PARK, at New Rochelle, appeals to the man of refinement for many reasons: the few remaining plots for sale are large (100x200), facing on streets of elegant homes and abundant light and air. The developments are substantial; the sidewalks and boulevards are wide and well macadamized; the drainage is excellent, and there is water, gas, and electric light on the park. Over 40 families reside there at the year round. The Sacre lawn reserved for outdoor sports is appreciated. Money is loaned for building purposes, and the careful restrictions create desirable neighbors. We invite inspection, and illustrated descriptive matter will be sent on application.
