WASHINGTONS WERE EASY.

THEY COULDN'T HIT RUSIE, WHILE THE NEW YORKS BATTED HARD.

Brooklyn Opens the Regular Season in Boston with a Defeat—Clevelands Strengthen Their Lead by Beating Pittsburgh, While the Baltimores Lose to Philadelphia—Cincinnati Downs St. Louis—On the College Diamond—Gossip.

For the first time this season the New Yorks have succeeded in getting into the League's first division. But they cannot have a clear title to sixth place until they break the existing tie with St. Louis. Ward's men defeated the Washingtons with ease yesterday, and should make a clean sweep of the present series. The Brooklyns opened the regular League season in Boston, and were beaten off. This misfortune pushed them back into tenth place, although Louisville did not play in Chicago on account of rain. Cleveland's victory over the Pittsburgh team not only caused the Smoky City team to fall down into fifth place, but also strengthened the lead of Tebeau's players. The Baltimores were checked in the wild break for the top of the heap by the peaceful Philadelphias, who conquered them quite easily. Cincinnati fairly slaughtered St. Louis. Boston and Philadelphia are tied for third position. The results:

New York, 6; Washington, 2.
Boston, 7; Brooklyn, 1.
Philadelphia, 9; Baltimore, 3.
Cleveland, 2; Pittsburgh, 1.
Cincinnati, 18; St. Louis, 9.
At Chicago—Rain.

NEW YORK, 6; WASHINGTON, 2.

Where did they get the uniforms? That's what nearly every crank asked yesterday when the Washingtons capered about the Polo grounds. The suits were the dizziest that have ever been seen in the metropolis. The stockings were flaring red, the trousers and shirts were dark blue, the sleeves blood red, and the caps red and black. Then the visitors' bats had green tips, and Kehmeiz's celebrated whiskers looked as if they had been recently burnished with brown shellac. In addition to this startling combination of colors, the Senatorial playing was of a chrome yellow, while J. Earl Wagner looked very blue after the battle.

Amos Rusie, while effective, was very wild. In the third inning he needlessly filled the bases on called balls, only to be pulled out of the hole by Davis's brilliant stop and throw. Again in the fourth inning, with men on first and second, Rusie sent Selbach to first but again escaped by virtue of a beautiful double play by Murphy and Connor. In the ninth inning, with one out, the Hoosier presented Cartwright and Frank Ward (who batted in Mercer's place) with their bases, and both would have scored but for a wonderful running catch by Burke. In all, the big pitcher gave seven bases on balls, for which there can be no excuse. Still he held the Washingtons down to four hits and struck out seven of them, which lets him down easy. But for errors by Murphy and Farrell in the eighth inning the visitors would have been shut out.

The New Yorks found Mercer's curves rather easily. Ward, Van Haltren, Davis, Connor, and Rusie hitting them for keeps. In the field Burke and Connor excelled for the home club, while Selbach's catch of a sure home run from Tiernan's bat in the seventh inning was about the best feature of Washington's performance. Ward's men scored two runs in the second inning on hits by Davis and Rusie, Connor's base on balls, a double steal, and two infield grounders. They gathered two more in the third on hits by Van Haltren, Tiernan, and Connor, Davis's sacrifice, and frightful errors by Abbey and Joyce. Another run came in in the fourth, when Murphy forced Rusie at third, stole second himself just as Ward singled, and scored on Van Haltren's clean drive to centre. Ward scored the last run on his hit. Van's grounder to the first baseman, and Davis's corking double to left centre field.

The 3,500 cranks went wild with delight when Capt. Joyce struck out three times. "Scrappy" saved himself, though, by making a scratch hit off Rusie in the ninth inning. The score:

BOSTON, 7; BROOKLYN, 1.

BOSTON, May 10.—Stein's wildness let the champions have a walkover this afternoon at the formal opening of the championship season at the South End. The pitchers had a stiff east wind in their favor, and hits were scarce.

Nichols had splendid support, while Stein's fielders gave a lifeless and ragged exhibition, aside from Tredway and Shindle. Tucker's fielding was the feature of the contest. He threw himself full length upon the ground to stop Stein's hot grounder in the fifth, when there was a man on second, and with Nichols's aid, got his man. Attendance, 8,310. The score:

HARVARD, 7; BROWN, 4.

CAMBRIDGE, May 10.—The Harvard nine surpassed the hopes of its most enthusiastic supporters this afternoon by defeating Brown by a score of 7 to 4. The feature of the game was the remarkable work of Andy Highlands in the box. He seemed to recover some of his former effectiveness, striking out sixteen men in eight innings and having no earned runs against him. He was wild, however and his three wild pitches came at critical points of the game and were very costly. The batting of the Harvard nine was extremely poor, the work of the outfielders being particularly weak. The score:
