BEATEN IN THE ELEVENTH.

WARD'S MEN SURDUED AFTER A TERRIFIC STRUGGLE.

The Philadelphias Hit Rusie Hard—Over in Brooklyn the Washingtons Were Easy—Baltimores Do Up the Disorganized Champions—Cleveland, Pittsburgh, and Cincinnati Win—Other Games and News.

To be defeated after eleven innings is no disgrace, so that local baseball cranks cannot find much fault with the New Yorks for their downfall at Philadelphia yesterday. Ward's men played a determined game and died hard, which shows that they are doing the best they can. Still it is rather disheartening to know that the New Yorks lost a fine chance to tie the boastful champions for fifth place, and, what is worse, were passed by the Cincinnatis. But the difference in percentage between the first seven teams is not so great as to prevent the locals from leaping into the front rank by a sudden burst of speed. The Brooklyns, by walloping the Washington tail-enders managed to tie St. Louis for eighth place, and a couple more victories by Foutz's men will put them within hailing distance of the team from Harlem by the time the two local nines meet next Thursday. The Clevelands easily defeated St. Louis, but they didn't increase their lead over the lively Baltimores, who made the Boston champions look like a lot of amateurs. Pittsburgh was better than Chicago, but as Cincinnati outplayed Louisville Anson's men took possession of tenth place, where they may stay for a day or two. The results:

Philadelphia, 5; New York, 4.
Brooklyn, 14; Washington, 7.
Baltimore, 16; Boston, 5.
Pittsburgh, 6; Chicago, 3.
Cincinnati, 12; Louisville, 7.
Cleveland, 7; St. Louis, 3.

PHILADELPHIA, 5; NEW YORK, 4.

PHILADELPHIA, May 14.—It took the Philadelphia team eleven innings to defeat the New Yorks to-day, but they finally got there, much to the joy of the 8,000 spectators. It was one of the most exciting games played here this season. Turner carried off the honors both in the field and at the bat. He made a double and three singles and pulled down hits that looked good for several bases. Rusie had plenty of speed, but Carsey was the steadier, giving only three bases on balls, against nine by Rusie. Young Murphy and Connor were cheered by the crowd as they came to the bat. The ex-Yale player put up a fine game at short. Manager Ward's fielding was a feature. In the fourth inning he pulled down a hot ball from Hamilton's bat which looked safe. His throwing to first base was remarkably fine.

It was nip and tuck up to the eighth inning. Then, with two men out, Davis scored a run for New York on an error by Hallman and singles by Connor and Burke. In the ninth inning the Philadelphias evened matters, Delehanty scoring on Turner's double. Both clubs drew blanks in the tenth inning. In the eleventh inning, with two men out, Delehanty made a single, went to second on a passed ball, and scored what proved to be the winning run on Turner's single. The visitors were retired in one-two-three order in their half of the eleventh. The score:

BROOKLYN, 14; WASHINGTON, 7.

For six and a half innings in yesterday's game between Brooklyn and Washington, at Eastern Park, the game was very poor. Then the Brooklynites fell upon young Mercer and hit the ball all over the grounds. They made five singles, to say nothing of Tom Daly's home run. The ball went to far left field. Abbey returned the ball, but it struck the edge of President Byrne's bicycle track and bounded into the field again, and so Daly circled the bases. Six runs were scored in the seventh inning, and the lead that the Brooklyns secured was not overcome. Barring this inning, Mercer pitched a fair game of ball. Gastright was fortunate in having excellent support, the Brooklyns' fieldings being first rate. Corcoran made a beautiful stop at one time and Daly a wonderful catch at another. The throwing of Kinslow, who was somewhat lame, was not good. The Washingtons' fielding was of an ordinary character. They played ball in a dead sort of a way, and in the second inning made so many errors that Brooklyn secred three unearned runs. Cartwright was the only Washingtonian who knew that he was on earth, so far as fielding went. At the bat Paul Radford and Sullivan carried off the honors.

Gastright's pitching was first class in spots. He was wild at other times, and a team of heavy hitters might have made mincemeat of his curves. In the first inning the Washingtons had the game in hand on account of Gastright's wildness. While Gastright was hit safely but twice, he gave four bases on balls. The result was he scored one run.

Corcoran hurt his hand in the sixth inning and in the seventh was replaced by Shoch, who played his ever reliable game. Tom Burns played good ball. Burns was good for two singles and a triple yesterday. Capt. Foutz witnessed the game. He was well wrapped up and looked poorly. The score:

BALTIMORE, 16; BOSTON, 5.

BOSTON, May 14.—The Orioles hit "King" Nichols hard to-day. Though most of their hits were made after there were chances to relire them. The Bostons fielded loosely, and, aside from Duffy, none of them could do anything with McMahon. After the game was practically lost at the end of the fifth, Lampe had his first trial in a League game. He was not batted hard, but was wild. Attendance, 2,504. The score:

CLEVELAND, 7; ST. LOUIS, 3.

CLEVELAND, May 14.—To-day's game was played in all kinds of weather, and most of it cold. At one time a regular sand storm swept over the grounds, impeding by a minute that almost had the force of a cyclone. The players could see nothing, and the people on the seats were blinded by the terrific clouds of flying dust. It was during this incident that Dowd batted the ball. It was a long outfield hit, and before McAleer could see it the ball was over his head, and Dowd made the circuit of the bases. The wind blew from a fresh quarter in a few minutes, and so cold was it that it hailed to tell it the weather became so cold that the players and spectators shivered as though it were late in autumn. ANDOVER, May 14.—Sprightly Pitcher Greenway proved to be a mystery to the crimson batters, who faced him to-day, and it was only by exerting their utmost baseball prowess that Capt. Wiggins's team could pull out of the game. Andy Highlands was touched up rather freely, and the home team established the lead in the second inning, which they held till the seventh, when four men received first on balls, Stevenson lined out a two-bagger, and scanneil and Highlands hit safely, adding to four Harvard men. Wolfe more played loosely for the 'varsity, but Winslow, Stevenson, and Highlands did some pretty hitting. Andover played the best game of the season, her fielders making some beautiful catches. Sedgwick's home run hit was the feature of the game. The score
