KENNEDY IS BATTED HARD,

AND THE BROOKLYNS ARE BEATEN AT PITTSBURGH.

Rain Prevents the New York-Chicago Game and Ward's Team Drops Into Sixth Place, as the Philadelphias Defeat the Louisvilles—Baltimore Whips Cleveland, Cincinnati Whitewashes Washington, and St. Louis Downs the Champions.

The New Yorks were prevented from playing their scheduled game with the Chicagos yesterday because of wet weather. As a result the Philadelphias, by defeating the Louisvilles, took fifth place, Ward's team dropping back to sixth. The Baltimores won another game from the Clevelands, who tumbled into seventh place, and the Pittsburghs took a game from the Brooklyns by heavy batting. Foutz's men are still third, but they are only nine points ahead of the Smoky City players. The Cincinnati beat the Washingtons, shutting them out without a run. The champion Bostons were beaten by St. Louis, and are now forty-five points behind the leaders. The results:

Pittsburgh, 10; Brooklyn, 6.
Baltimore, 8; Cleveland, 5.
Philadelphia, 19; Louisville, 8.
Cincinnati, 12; Washington 0.
St. Louis, 10; Boston, 9.
At Chicago—Rain.

PITTSBURGH, 10; BROOKLYN, 6.

PITTSBURGH, June 30.—Colcolough started to pitch to-day's game for Pittsburgh, but was knocked out of the box in the third inning, when Foutz's sluggers made a home run and three triples in succession. Gumbert succeeded him and kept the Brooklyns down to three hits and without a run. Kenney was asked to make it three straights for Brooklyn, and might have done so had he received the support which marked the first two games of the series. The visitors took kindly to Colcolough in the first inning after Daly and Corcoran had been doubled up. Singles by Tredway, Shock, and Shindle and Burns's two-bagger scored three runs. Pittsburgh got one in their half on Smith's single and Daly's error. The home team took a long lead in the second, when hits by Fleharty, Shiebeck, Colcolough, and Smith, Foutz's child throw to the plate, and Stenzel's three-bagger sent in five runs.

Brooklyn tied the score in the third, when, with two out, Shock drove a three-bagger to centre, and Shindle put one over Stenzel's head for a home run. Burns and Foutz lined out triples in the same direction, three runs being the result. Donovan sent Colcolough to the bench and substituted Gumbert. In their half of the third the Pittsburgs took the lead by one run, on doubles by Shiebeck and Gumbert. The score remained as in this shape until the eighth, when the home team clinched the victory. Three runs came in on hits by Gumbert, Smith, and Donovan and Kinslow's wild throw to first. It rained shortly before the game began, but it did not interfere with play. The score:
