$3.75 is the price of the bathing suit we sell most of. It's a sensible price and a good bathing suit—jersey, that stretches when you want it to, and then stretches back again.

That's why we sell so many.

And any and all real estate within the said State owned or acquired for the purposes of the lines of railroad aforesaid, or either of them, including the right of way for such extensions or branches, the roadbed of said railroads and of extensions or branches, and the superstructure and tracks placed or to be placed thereon, and all stations, depots, and other grounds used and to be used in connection therewith, and all rails, railways, tracks, siblings, switches, bridges, fences, turntables, water tanks, viaducts, culverts, main, passenger, and other depots, stations, and freight houses, machine shops, docks, wharves, and all other structures, buildings and fixtures whatsoever acquired for the use of the Georgia Pacific Railway Company, or the business thereof, or for the construction, maintenance, or operation of said lines of railroad, or any or either of them, together with all rolling stock, equipment, machinery, tools, and implements of the said railway company, owned or acquired, for constructing, maintaining, operating, replacing, improving, or repairing the said roads, or either of them, the appurtenances or any part thereof, or in and for their business; and all the real estate and chattels real of said railway company within the said States, held or owned or acquired, for the location or operation of said railroads, or either of them, and the extensions and branches as aforesaid; and all the corporate rights, privileges and franchises, incomes, earnings, and profits of the said railway company, connected with, leading from, or relating to the said railroads, or any thereof, and the extensions and branches as aforesaid, or the construction, maintenance, use, and enjoyment of the same, or any thereof, except donations from municipal corporations and subscriptions for the capital stock of the railway company, and all sums due and to become due thereunder; and all the streets, ways, passages, water courses, easements, rights, liberties, privileges, hereditaments, and appurtenances whatsoever, unto any of the said premises and estates belonging or appertaining, and the reversions and remainders, rents, issues, and profits thereof, including all the property of every description subject to the lien of the consolidated second mortgage of the Georgia Pacific Railway Company to the Central Trust Company of New York, trustee, dated May 1, 1888.

Said property will be sold as an entirety and in one parcel, without valuation, appraisement, redemption, or extension, and subject to a first mortgage to the Central Trust Company of New York, trustee, dated May 6, 1882, and to a mortgage to the Metropolitan Trust Company, trustee, dated October 1, 1884, so far as they are liens upon any part of the property above described, and subject to two equipment mortgages to the Central Trust Company of New York, trustee, dated respectively July 17, 1883, and May 1, 1891, upon so much of the property as is described in said two equipment mortgages.

No bid will be accepted from any bidder for a sum less than $300,000, nor from any bidder who shall not place in the hands of the Special Master or deposit with him at the time of making the bid, as a pledge that such bidder will make good his bid if accepted by the Court, the sum of $50,000 in money or certified check, or in consolidated second mortgage bonds of the Georgia Pacific Railway Company, taking the same at par of their principal.

The purchaser or purchasers will be entitled to have the same rights with respect to any and all second mortgage bonds and coupons and interest certificates secured by the mortgage, dated October 1, 1883, and the supplement thereto, dated April 28, 1884, received in exchange for bonds secured by said consolidated second mortgage, dated May 1, 1888, and held by said Central Trust Company as Trustee under said consolidated second mortgage, which the holders of said consolidated second mortgage bonds and scrip and mortgage income gold bonds and scrip issued under said mortgage of May 1, 1888, have with respect to such second mortgage bonds and coupons and interest certificates, and said Central Trust Company will consent to hold such second mortgage bonds and coupons and interest certificates so received in exchange, uncancelled, and for the benefit of such purchaser or purchasers, his or their successors and assigns, and to the end that the lien of said mortgage dated October 1, 1883, and the supplement thereto dated April 28, 1884, securing said second mortgage bonds and coupons and interest certificates may be preserved, held and retained for the benefit of such purchaser or purchasers, his or their successors and assigns, so that, if the security of said mortgage dated October 1, 1883, and the supplement thereto dated April 28, 1884, should be enforced, such purchaser or purchasers, his or their successors and assigns, will be entitled to share in the security provided by said mortgage dated October 1, 1883, and the supplement thereto dated April 28, 1884, to the extent of such bonds, coupons, and interest certificates, but said bonds, coupons, and interest certificates will not be surrendered to such purchaser or purchasers, his or their successors and assigns, nor will any interest be paid or allowed upon the same, except in case of the foreclosure of the mortgages securing the same.

Of the price for which said property shall be sold, there shall be paid in cash at the time of the sale the cash deposit hereinbefore required, which shall be received as part of the purchase price, and also at the same time and from time to time thereafter, such further portions of such purchase price shall be paid in cash, as the Court may direct, in order to cover the expenses of the sale and to pay such claims, if any, against the mortgaged property as the Court may adjudge to be prior in equity to the said consolidated second mortgage. The Court reserves the right to reject any bid, and to resell said premises and property upon the failure of any purchaser for twenty days to comply with any order of the Court requiring payment. The balance of the purchase price not required to be paid in cash may either be paid in cash or the purchaser may satisfy and make good said balance of his bid in whole or in part by paying over and surrendering outstanding bonds or scrip or overdue coupons appertaining to bonds secured by said consolidated second mortgage, said bonds, scrip, and coupons being received at such price or value as shall be equivalent to the amount that the holders thereof would be entitled to receive thereon in case the entire purchase price were paid in cash. The purchaser will not be required to pay immediately in cash the amount of any receiver's notes, debts, or obligations which shall not have become due and payable at the time of the completion of the purchase, but will receive the deed and take the property purchased subject to the condition that such amounts shall be paid in from time to time, as such obligations shall mature, which amounts shall thereupon be credited upon the amount of the bid, the Court reserving the right to resell the premises or any part thereof in case of any failure or omission of the purchaser to pay such amount into Court on account of the bid as aforesaid.

If any bid shall be accepted by the Court, and the person making the same shall fail to comply with all the conditions of sale and all orders of the Court in respect thereto, the sum deposited by the bidder will be forfeited and shall be applied as the Court may direct.

The purchaser or purchasers at said sale shall, as part of the consideration for such sale, take the property purchased upon the express condition that he or they, or his or their assigns, approved by the Court, will, notwithstanding, pay off and satisfy any and all claims filed in this cause, but only when the Court shall allow such claims and adjudge the same to be prior in lien to the mortgage foreclosed in this suit in accordance with the order or orders of the Court allowing such claims and adjudging with respect thereto. This provision is not applicable to the rights and claims of the complainant, as trustee, under the said first mortgage of May 6, 1882, or of the trustee under said mortgage of October 1, 1883, or of the complainant as trustee under either of the equipment sinking fund mortgages; and the purchaser or purchasers or their approved assigns will be entitled to appeal from any or all orders or decrees of the Court in respect to such claims, or any of them, and will have all the rights in respect to such appeals which the complainant, Central Trust Company of New York, would have in case such appeals had been taken by it. The purchaser or purchasers at said sale shall also, as part of the consideration, in addition to the payment of the sum or sums bid, take the property purchased, upon the express condition that he or they, or his or their assigns, approved by the Court, will pay off and satisfy all debts or obligations incurred or to be incurred by the Receivers having possession of such property, which have not been or shall not be paid by said Receivers, or out of the proceeds of the sale or otherwise, and which shall be adjudged by the Court to be debts or obligations properly chargeable against the property purchased, and to be prior or superior to the lien of said mortgage of May 6, 1882.

The Court reserves the right to retake and resell said property in case of the failure or neglect of the purchaser or purchasers, or his or their assigns, approved by the Court, as aforesaid, to comply with any order of the Court in respect to payment of prior lien claims above mentioned, within twenty days after service of a copy of such order upon said purchaser or purchasers or his or their assigns.

Upon confirmation of the sale the purchaser or purchasers will be entitled to receive a deed or deeds of the property sold, and, also, good and sufficient deeds of conveyance, or evidence of transfer of any and all property sold which is vested in or standing in the name of said Receivers, or to which said Receivers have in any manner acquired title; and upon confirmation of such sale and full compliance with the terms of sale by such purchaser or purchasers, he or they will be entitled to a deed or deeds of assurance to be executed according to law by the Georgia Pacific Railway Company.

For further particulars and a more specific description of the property to be sold, reference is hereby made to said decrees and to said amended bill, on file with the clerks of the several Courts hereinbefore mentioned.
