MORE ABOUT US.

Don't hug your purse too hard.

While we try to give every one all he pays for, we admit there is boys' clothing to be had at lower prices than ours—if you want that sort.

Never keep anything of ours you don't like—even if your objection is merely a whim.

Your money isn't our money until you are satisfied.

Lectures.

COOPER UNION FREE SATURDAY NIGHT Lectures in co-operation with Board of Education, in the large hall at 8 o'clock, Nov. 24, the lecture will be delivered by Prof. W. F. Norlander, on "Switzerland, the Land of Mountains," with stereopticon illustrations. No tickets required. Doors closed at 8 o'clock.

Just think of the sizes, yes, and the shapes we keep in Suits and Overcoats, grading from slims to stouts, long necks and short necks, high shoulders, low shoulders and sloping shoulders, long arms and short arms, long legs and short legs, and combinations of all these. No wonder we can fit most anybody and give most anybody more value than most anybody else can.
Men's Overcoats, $15 to $45.
Men's Suits, $14 to $35.
We also carry underwear in sizes to fit any shape.
