THE GAME STOPPED BY RAIN

NEW YORKS ARE AHEAD WHEN PLAY IS SUSPENDED.

Brooklyns Win at St. Louis—Bostons Stop the Cleveland's Upward March—Philadelphia Succumbs to Cincinnati—Washingtons Surprise Anson, and the Baltimores Defeat the Louisvilles—Notes.

The New Yorks wound up their series in the West yesterday, although they were prevented by rain from finishing their game with the Pittsburghs. They were hitting Hawley quite freely, and were one run ahead when play was suspended. The Brooklyns won at St. Louis, and came within one point of tying the Philadelphias, who were easily beaten by the Cincinnatis. The Clevelands were stopped in their upward march by the Bostons, and their lead was consequently reduced to nine points. The Baltimores simply killed the Louisvilles, and are only fourteen points behind the Pittsburghs now. The Chicagos were beaten by the Washingtons, who once more succeeded in passing St. Louis. The results:

At Pittsburgh—Rain.
Brooklyn, 6; St. Louis, 2.
Washington, 10; Chicago, 7.
Boston, 8; Cleveland, 2.
Baltimore, 23; Louisville, 6.
Cincinnati, 12; Philadelphia, 4.

NO GAME AT PITTSBURGH.

PITTSBURGH, July 27.—The rain stopped the game at Exposition Park this afternoon between the New Yorks and Pittsburghs just as it was at an exciting stage. The contest was ended before the fourth inning was finished. The score was 4 to 3 in favor of the visitors, but Hawley was on second, Donovan at the bat, and two men were out. As far as it went the 4,000 spectators enjoyed it although a drizzling rain fell from start to finish, and during the fourth inning there was a regular thunder storm.

Hawley pitched for the Pittsburghs and Rusie for the New Yorks. The latter showed his usual great speed. He complained of a sore arm, but he did very well despite that fact.

In the first inning Tiernan collided with Clingman. The latter's shoulder was sprained, and he retired from the game, Niles taking his place. In the third inning Cross retired on account of sickness, and Genins took his place.

The visitors went first to bat, and Murphy sent a short fly to Beckley. Tiernan made a three-bagger clear over Stenzel's head and scored on a wild throw by Cross, who handled the ball after Stenzel threw it in. Van Haltren made a single and scored on a double by Davis. The latter was thrown out trying to steal third. Clark was hit by a pitched ball, and Stafford made a single on which Clark scored, the latter having reached second on Davis's out. The locals made one in their half, but nothing in the second inning. Pittsburgh got one in the third and one in the fourth.

The New Yorks in their half of the fourth scored one. After Farrell was out Rusie made a scratch infield hit and was safe. Genins fumbled Fuller's grounder and then caught Murphy's fly. Tiernan sent a grounder to Genins, who made a wild throw and Rusie scored. When the locals commenced their half the rain was coming down briskly. Smith struck out and Niles was out on a foul fly to Farrell. The Pittsburghs wanted the game called and the New Yorks rebelled loudly against it. O'Day ordered the contest to proceed and Sugden got his base on balls. There was another kick to have the game called, but the umpire and the New Yorks declined. Hawley made a two-bagger to left field, scoring Sugden, and the New Yorks were then willing to have "time" called. The umpire did this and the contest was not resumed. The following is the score of the game so far as played:

Runs—Pittsburgh, 3; New York, 4. Hits—Pittsburgh, 3; New York, 6. Errors—Pittsburgh, 3; New York, 2. Three-base hit—Tiernan. Two-base hits—Hawley, Davis, Rusie. Sacrifice hits—Fuller, Irwin. Stolen base on balls—Off Rusie, 1; off Hawley, 1. Hit by pitched ball—Clark. Passed balls—Farrell, 2; Sugden, 1. Struck out—By Hawley, 3; by Rusie, 1. Stolen bases—Beckley, Tiernan, Clark, Stenzel. Umpire—O'Day.

BROOKLYN, 6; ST. LOUIS, 2.

ST. LOUIS, July 27.—Gumbert pitched the Brooklyns to victory to-day, though errors by the locals helped him. Ryan, the locals' new third baseman, went to the bench in the third inning for poor playing. Denny Lyons was released this morning. Kissinger pitched well, but received wretched support. Attendance, 2,000. The score:

WASHINGTON, 10; CHICAGO, 7.

CHICAGO, July 27.—The Washingtons discovered that they could hit Hutchison in the sixth inning to-day and rattled the veteran so that he allowed several bases on balls. He was given miserable support at critical times. Anderson was hit hard, but kept the Chicago hits well scattered. Attendance, 6,000. The score:
