RAIN PREVENTS VICTORY.

NEW YORKS HAVE THE CHICAGOS WELL IN HAND WHEN IT FALLS.

The Clevelands Badly Defeat the Brooklyns by Knocking Kennedy Out of the Box—Boston Outpoints Cincinnati—Philadelphia Gets Away with Pittsburgh—Louisville and Washington Break Even on Two Games—Rain at Baltimore.

The New Yorks were deprived of a victory over the Chicagos yesterday by rain, which fell at the end of the third inning, when the score stood 6 to 0 in favor of the home team. The Clevelands had no trouble in beating the Brooklyns, whose pitchers were hammered all over the field. Tebeau's men gained three points on the Baltimores, as the latter's game with St. Louis was stopped by rain after two innings had been played. The Philadelphias administered another defeat to the Pittsburghs, and the Bostons, by throwing the Cincinnatis down, secured a firmer hold on fourth place. Louisville and Washington played two games and broke even. The results:

At New York—Rain.
Cleveland, 15; Brooklyn, 7.
Boston, 12; Cincinnati, 6.
Philadelphia, 10; Pittsburgh, 9.
Louisville, 8; Washington, 4 (first game).
Washington, 9; Louisville, 7 (second game).
At Baltimore—Rain.

RAIN STOPS THE NEW YORK GAME.

The New Yorks were prevented from winning a game from the Chicagos yesterday by a heavy thunder storm that had put an end to the battle after three innings had been completed. The score then stood 6 to 0 in favor of the New Yorks, and 6,500 spectators were disappointed. Rusie was in fine fettle, and his support was a thing of beauty. Fuller and Murphy making some superb plays. Terry, on the other hand, was very wild, four of the five bases on balls which he gave resulting in runs. The game will probably be played on Tuesday, which is an open date, providing one of the Chicago's games in Brooklyn to-morrow is not postponed. The New Yorks will also play two games with the Pittsburghs on Wednesday.

CLEVELAND, 15; BROOKLYN, 7.

From the time the umpire called play until McAleer went out in the ninth inning in the game at Eastern Park yesterday the Cleveland players whacked the ball to all corners of the field. They piled up twenty-two hits for a total of thirty-two bases and earned twelve of the fifteen runs scored. No matter how much speed Kennedy used, the visiting players would land on the ball, and there was no change when Daub went in the box in the fifth inning, for in the Clevelands immediately piled up six earned runs. The Brooklyns had several opportunities to rally, but four double plays spoiled any such occurrence. Corcoran made a great one-hand jumping catch in the third inning. Daly and Tiernan had a clean hitting regard, while Burkett slashed out five singles. The rain came down in all its fury before the spectators had a chance to leave the grounds, and there was a wild chase for shelter. The score:

BOSTON, 12; CINCINNATI, 6.

BOSTON, Aug. 31.—The Bostons won to-day's game by superior batting and fielding. The Cincinnatis put up a much worse fielding game than the score shows. Parrott was pulled out of the box after the third inning and Stockdale was knocked out in the seventh. The visitors made six consecutive hits in the seventh, though it then had the game so far had they would have been retired without a run. The catching of Ryan, the fielding of Nash, Duffy, and Miller, and the batting of Bannon and Ryan were the features. Attendance, 5,000. The score:

PHILADELPHIA, 10; PITTSBURGH, 9.

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 31.—Philadelphia defeated Pittsburgh in the tenth inning this afternoon in a game which, with a few exceptions, had a couple of errors made by Sullivan in the fifth, when the visitors relied upon six runs. Jevne called the game on account of darkness in the eighth, but afterward ordered its continuance. The majority of Pittsburgh's hits were made after two men had been retired. The score:
