ACCUSED CUBANS GO FREE.

THE ALLEGED FILIBUSTERS ACQUITTED AT WILMINGTON, DEL.

Great Enthusiasm in the City When the Verdict Was Announced—Judge Wales's Interpretation of the Neutrality Act.

WILMINGTON, Del., Sept. 23.—Judge Wales this morning charged the jury in the trial of the twenty-one alleged Cuban filibusters recently captured in New Jersey and in whose defense Senator Gray has been conspicuous. A verdict of not guilty was returned by the jury in about an hour.

Judge Wales said in his charge:

"The section of the Neutrality act does not prohibit the shipping of arms or ammunition or military equipments to a foreign country, nor does it even forbid one or more individuals singly or in unavowed separations from leaving the United States for the purpose of joining in military operations which are being carried on between other countries or between different parties in the same country. In such cases the shipper and the volunteer would run the risk, the one of the capture of the property and the other of the capture of the person."

The Judge then explained that to obtain a conviction it must be proved that these men were really carrying on an expedition. He added:

"The suspicious movements of the defendants on the night of the 29th of August, the devious and mysterious manner in which the arms and ammunition were brought to Wilmington and taken out on the Taurus to be transhipped to an unknown outward-bound steamer from Philadelphia, the omission of the defendants to make any explanation of their designs—all these circumstances may reasonably excite suspicion of wrong doing. The appearance of the defendants, their nationality, their silence under arrest, the fact of an insurrection in Cuba, and the probability that they are in sympathy with the insurrectionary party, unsupported by other evidence, would not be sufficient to warrant a verdict of guilty.

"You must be satisfied beyond a reasonable doubt by the proofs in the case:

"First. That the defendants, within the jurisdiction of the United States, began or set on foot or provided the means for a military expedition or enterprise.

"Second. And that such expedition or enterprise was to be carried on from the United States against the territory or dominions of the King of Spain.

"A military expedition or enterprise means a military organization of some kind, designated as infantry, cavalry, or artillery, officered and equipped, or in readiness to be officered and equipped, for active hostile operations, and the preparing the means for such an organization would undoubtedly come within the inhibition of the law, but this would constitute only one element or part of the offence charged against the defendants. To complete the offence it must also be proved that the men were provided within the United States and the expedition was to be carried from thence against the dominions or territory of the King of Spain."

The fact that the jury did not report immediately caused considerable anxiety, and some fears of a disagreement. After being out fifty minutes, however, word was received from the jury that a verdict had been found. After the usual preliminaries the foreman said a verdict of not guilty had been found.

Nearly every one in the court room, except the court officers, sent up a shout of satisfaction, clapped their hands, and stamped their feet. An attempt to stop the noise was met with another round of cheers. The men were discharged from custody, and for half an hour they and their counsel had a reception. Cuban and American flags and buttons were worn by scores. The hotel where the men have been stopping was decorated with flags immediately after the verdict was announced, and flags were also displayed on private buildings.

Crowds gathered around the front of the City Hall and gave many cheers. Joseph K. Adams, City Treasurer, jumped a Cuban flag under the American flag on the pole over his store, and the act was greeted with great cheers on the street. The Stars and Stripes was run up on the City Hall flagstaff. The Cubans gathered on the balcony of the Hotel and cheered the flags.

PERRY'S PUNCTURED EYES.

The Warden at Auburn Prison Doesn't Think He Will Lose His Eyesight.

AUBURN, N. Y., Sept. 23.—Oliver Curtis Perry is still confined in one of the isolated cells of the new building, and has the distinction of being the first occupant of these special cells. He is now willing to submit to treatment for his punctured eyes without the use of chloroform, and it is thought that the sight has not been permanently destroyed. Warden Stout is considerably nonplussed as to the means by which the carefully guarded news got out, and when the United Press representative called on him to-day he asked him for the source of his information. The request was, of course, denied.

"The report was true," said the Warden, "with the exception that Perry submits now to having his eyes treated without being chloroformed.

"Will he lose the sight of his eyes?" queried the reporter.

"I haven't heard from him to-day, but I don't think he will lose his eyesight."

Perry's isolation is considered a good move all around. While in the north wing he caused no end of annoyance by hoots and howls in an attempt to start a general chorus of yells among the convicts. Where he is at present his cries are unheeded and unheard. He asks for the Warden, for the chaplain, for better food, for better accommodations, and above all he wants to go home. Before the train robber tried to blind himself he told of his antipathy for the officials at Matteawan. "I wish I had murdered one of them," he said fiercely, and then added, with a wicked leer and cunning reasoning: "They could not have killed me, for I was mad."

There is a general belief that application will be made to the Superintendent of State Prisons for the re-transfer of Perry to Matteawan Asylum.

SHE WALKED WITH STRANGERS.

Mary White Says They Forcibly Carried Her to a Vacant Lot.

A woman's screams coming from a vacant lot at Ninth and Bushwick streets, Jersey City, about 9 o'clock Saturday night, attracted the attention of a policeman. As he hurried toward the lot about a dozen young men ran off in different directions. The policeman fired several shots after them, but without any apparent effect. He found a young woman lying on the ground suffering from nervous prostration. Her clothing was torn, and she was in a hysterical condition, but otherwise unharmed.

At the police station the young woman said that she was Mary White, 17 years old, and that she was employed as a domestic at 15 Sussex place. She had been visiting some friends, and was returning home, when two young men accosted her. They said they knew her, but she did not remember them; nevertheless she accepted an invitation to take a walk. They walked up Ninth street. On reaching Brunswick street Miss White refused to go any farther.

Although the neighborhood is thickly populated and people were sitting on their front stoops, Miss White says the young men picked her up and carried her to the vacant lot. When the two men reached the lot with their screaming kicking burden there was nearly a dozen in the gang ready and willing to help stifle the young woman's screams. No arrests have been made.

BIG FOREST FIRES.

Hundreds of Men Fighting Them at Santa Cruz, Cal., Fires in Canada.

SANTA CRUZ, Cal., Sept. 23.—An immense forest fire is now raging here. All night long hundreds of men have been fighting the flames. As far as the eye can reach the forest is a mass of flames. The fire covers over ten square miles and is still spreading, being beyond control. It is now within ten miles of the powder works, where 500 tons of powder are stored. The road between Felton and Felton is impassable from burning logs and trees, and railroad communication is interrupted. The damage will be enormous.

SHAWINIGAN FALLS, Quebec, Sept. 23.—Big forest fires are raging all around this place. So dense is the smoke it is impossible to say how serious the fires are, but it is certain that the loss to lumbermen will be very heavy.

Ex-District Attorney Ray Dying of Lockjaw.

LYONS, N. Y., Sept. 23.—Ex-District Attorney Charles H. Roy is not expected to live through the night on account of lockjaw. On Tuesday, in company with his son, he was practising handicapping on the Lyons Driving Park and was thrown, alighting on his head in such a manner that his left ear was torn nearly off. On Saturday, in defiance of the instructions of his physician, he attended the races. To-day he was taken with lockjaw, and all hope of saving his life has been abandoned.

WEEHAWKEN'S MONTE CARLO.

A Pool Room with a Pull in King Simon Kelly's Domain.

Judge Hudspeth of the General Sessions Court in Jersey City has been making determined efforts to suppress a pool room which is said to be located in Weehawken, in the domains of King Simon Kelly. The Judge's efforts have been futile, and he expressed himself freely and emphatically on the subject when he took his seat on the bench yesterday morning.

"The Court has been informed," he said, "that there is maintained in this county with brazen effrontery which passes comprehension a pool room—a resort of gamblers and hoodlums—which is an affront to the dignity of the State. The Court has taken opportunity to send officers there armed with bench warrants for arrest if sufficient evidence were found. The Court has the utmost confidence in the officers sent on this errand, yet, remarkable to say, every time when the officers went there it was apparent that information had reached the pool sellers that the officers were coming. The birds had flown and peace reigned. Yet there was one very suspicious circumstance. The place is far up in the town of Union under the bluffs where there are few houses and no apparent reason for the presence of a crowd. Yet there was a large number of persons congregated there for no apparent object. Evidently they were waiting for something, and that was the disappearance of the officers. The officers found on the cars running to the Forty-second street ferry signs reading, 'To the races,' and they learned that the cars bring great crowds of the hoodlums and gamblers from New York to this small Monte Carlo. Several times officers were sent with the same result. Evidently the gamblers had received word. The Court is informed that as soon as the officers left the games were resumed. It is said that in addition to pool selling there is a faro layout, roulette tables, and, in short, a complete gambling outfit. Last Saturday the Court sent officers with the utmost caution and secrecy. They found the place in full blast, fully 400 or 500 people being present. One of the officers attempted to enter a building where it was evident that gambling was going on. He was known, and a rush was made for him. On consultation the officer decided that it would be dangerous, if not impossible, to make an arrest. Now, this Court desires to say that this place must be rooted out root and branch. It is a stench in the nostrils of the community. The Court calls upon the Sheriff, his posse comitatus, the Prosecutor and his officers to stop the maintenance of this place. The Court does not intend to do detective work hereafter. It now calls on the officers to do their duty. The place must be uprooted, and at once."

The Judge's remarks created a sensation in court. Later in the day Judge Hudspeth announced that he had been informed that the Prosecutor's officers and the Sheriff's officers had made several attempts to raid the place, but had met with the same success as the constables sent by the Court. On each occasion information of the projected raid had reached the pool room in advance of the officers.

BOMB OR GIANT CRACKER?

A Loud but Harmless Explosion Led to Giacomo Garlo's Arrest.

In Newark there are many Italians skilled in the manufacture of fireworks, and they have given the police considerable trouble in the last four years. Yesterday morning Giacomo Garlo, a barber of 4 Drift street, was arrested and charged with throwing a bomb into the yard of 16 Factory street. Perhaps Garlo's arrest was due to the fact that he is believed to be an adept in the manufacture of just such bombs as the one which prematurely exploded in Boyden street during a celebration four years ago and killed eleven persons. However that may be, he is charged with an attempt upon the life of Justice Lorenzo Boscaino, who occupies the house at 16 Drift street. Two witnesses said that Garlo threw the bomb from the porch in the rear of his house, and that they saw him plainly by the light of the match with which he ignited the fuse. The bomb did no damage beyond making a slight hole in the ground and shattering window glass in the surrounding houses, but Justice Boscaino regarded the explosion as an attempt upon his life by a member of a rival faction of Italians.

Not a particle of the bomb was found after the explosion, and this is regarded by the police as proof that there was no metal used in its construction, and that nothing but theatrical effect was aimed at by the thrower. Only one man was in the yard at the time the missile was thrown, and he picked it up to examine it. Seeing that it had a burning fuse he threw it down and ran screaming into Justice Boscaino's saloon. A report followed which was heard upon the quiet Sabbath air as far as the remotest corners of the city, and even in the outlying precincts of Belleville, Arlington, and Kearny.

Garlo denied most emphatically that he caused the rumpus, and he was held under bail for trial.

CATHOLIC CONGRESS.

The Cardinal and Fourteen Archbishops to Hold Their Annual Consultation.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 23.—The first three days of October will witness the largest concourse of Catholic prelates that Washington has ever known. On Oct. 1 the fourteen Archbishops of the United States meet officially to discuss their diocesan affairs, and also to hold their annual consultation as directors of the Catholic University. The indications are that this congress will be attended by the entire Catholic hierarchy, consisting of the Cardinal, Mgr. Satolli, all the Archbishops, and a large number of Bishops and priests.

The Eucharistic League is a doctrinal order which was founded in Paris in 1855. It has a large membership in Europe. In this country it has been but recently instituted. The object of this organization is to promote devotion and to spread the knowledge of the great Catholic doctrine of transubstantiation. Last year, on Aug. 7 and 8, the first convention of the league met at the Notre Dame University, South Bend, Ind. Some few rules and by-laws were then made, but it was decided to leave the general framing of the association to the first congress, ordered to meet here this autumn.

MORE REFORM IN ALBANY.

The Mayor to Endeavor to Extirpate or Localize the Social Evil.

ALBANY, Sept. 23.—Albany's reform Mayor, Orin E. Wilson, not only has an excise fight on his hands, similar in a measure to that in New York, but he has also determined to utterly extirpate the social evil. Mayor Wilson says he will endeavor to localize the evil, and that there must be no liquor selling without licenses, and none at all on Sunday.

The Mayor's Board of Excise naturally refused to grant licenses to disreputable houses, and as "certain politicians and liquor dealers," to quote Mayor Wilson, "privately told these people to go ahead and sell all they wanted to, as they (the 'certain politicians') had a pull with the Police Board, the Excise law was continually violated." Mayor Wilson has now ordered the police to break up the establishments of Albany's Tenderloin, and exile their inmates. The Mayor said to THE SUN reporter to-day, in addition to the above:

"I have given them every opportunity, but they have continued to disregard my warnings, and they must go. I did not desire to do this, as it is likely to scatter them about the city, but they have forced me to it."

New Telegraph Company.

ALBANY, Sept. 23.—The Troy Telegraph and Stock Company was incorporated with the Secretary of State to-day with a capital of $2,000 to maintain a line or lines of telegraph or telephone from Troy to New York and the principal cities and towns of Westchester and Kings counties and the State of New Jersey, also to Chicago, Louisville, Lexington, and Covington, Ky.; Nashville and Memphis, Tenn.; New Orleans, St. Louis, Baltimore, Washington, and Montreal. The directors are: Thomas Hogan of New York city, Peter J. Turner, Patrick F. Purrell, Patrick J. Delaney, and William Miller of Troy; Eli Galaise, Jr., of Cohoes, and Charles G. Teeling of Green Island.

New Corporations.

ALBANY, Sept. 23. The following new companies were incorporated to-day:

Kirtland, Litchfield & Co. of New York, to mine and manufacture all states slate products. Capital, $10,000. Directors: William S. Kirtland and Edward Kirtland of New York city and Noah A. Litchfield of Saugerties, Pa.

Sanador Medical Company of New York, to manufacture and sell soap. Capital, $40,000. Directors: Edward H. Schmidt and Joseph A. Troy of New York, and Roswell D. Vanderouf of Brooklyn.

Northrup & Co. of New York, to manufacture and sell perfected compound oxygen. Capital, $110,000. Directors: Anna L. Northrup, Eugene Shepard, and Samuel B. Smith of New York.

City Real Estate Company of New York city. Capital, $25,000. Directors: James D. Lynch, Charles S. Rossiter, Charles A. Peabody, Jr., of New York; Martin Joost and Frank Bailey of Brooklyn; John F. Hicks of Long Island City; Clarence H. Kelsey of East Orange, N. J., and Joseph H. Ward of Bayonne, N. J.

Private Kelly Dropped Dead While Going on Duty.

WILLET'S POINT, Sept. 23.—Private John Kelly, 45 years old, of Company A, United States Engineers, dropped dead shortly before noon to-day while walking toward the Government Dock to go on duty. Heart disease is supposed to have been the cause of death. Kelly was pilot on the commanding officer's steamer Runaway. He had been in the service twenty-two years. He leaves a wife and four children.

HARD FIGHTING IN CUBA.

DESPERATE EFFORTS OF THE REBELS TO SAVE A HOSPITAL.

England's Stringent Orders for the Enforcement of the Neutrality Laws—Gen. Martinez Campos Will Take the Field in Person—Spain's Future Policy in Cuba.

HAVANA, Sept. 23.—It is officially announced that on Sept. 21 Gen. Luque, with his command, surprised a rebel hospital guarded by a large force of insurgents. The rebel guard resisted the attempt of Luque to capture the hospital, and the fight resulted in the killing of 37 rebels and the wounding of a number possibly exceeding a hundred.

The Government troops have captured the rebel camps at Peralta and Pallita, and have also taken possession of the Banquete hospital. The loss to the Government forces was one killed and eight wounded.

News has been received here that Gen. Luque, with a force of 330 troops, has captured a rebel camp at Jaelita, after an engagement, in which seven of the insurgents were killed.

The Governor of the Bahamas has presented £40 to the boatmen who discovered the arms and ammunition secreted at Grassy Bay, in the Bahamas, destined for the Cuban rebels. The British Government has issued stringent orders to the Governors of British West Indian islands, and also to the Admiral and all Captains of the British North American fleet, to maintain constant watchfulness, and to arrest and imprison all violators of the neutrality law.

A despatch from Matanzas says Gen. Prat reports from Colon that Capt. Riestra, with a force of thirty-four men, had an encounter on the 20th inst. with a band of three hundred rebels at Quemado de Olivares, in the Sagua district. After a sharp fight the troops were compelled to retreat. The loss is unknown.

HAVANA, Sept. 18, via Key West, Sept. 23.—The Spanish Government has arranged for all the money necessary to carry on a very aggressive policy in Cuba. According to telegrams published in Madrid, the press of London, Paris, and Berlin continues very favorable to the cause of Spain. Much praise is accorded to Gen. Martinez Campos, as well as favorable comment on the Government's activity in despatching reinforcements to Cuba.

In Madrid a letter has been received from Gen. Campos, in which he says that at the close of the wet season he, in person, will conduct all operations in the field. He purposes using small flying columns of his best troops, by whom the enemy will be attacked on all sides. He closes with these words: "God will protect me, if I fail I shall be lost to the King, but he will replace me."

Señor Castellanos, Minister of the Colonies, has said that no changes in Cuba will be considered unless they emanate from Gen. Campos. Señor Romero Robledo, Minister of Justice and Mercy, will present to the Cortes a plan for reforming certain civil and criminal questions.

Among the proposals which Gen. Campos will be a new and severe penalty, aimed at all having Anarchistic and Separatist propagandas.

According to the Liberals, Señor Sagasta, their leader, believes that the military establishment now in Cuba, backed by a proper policy, is ample for suppressing the rebellion. The Liberals assert that if they had remained in power, the war in Cuba would have been brought to a speedy end, as they would have been more prompt than Señor Cánovas del Castillo.

Cuba will be divided into two districts. The Commander-in-Chief and Captain-General will be General Martinez Campos. The two new districts will be commanded by two Lieutenant-Generals.

Opinion in Madrid is general that a military occupation of Cuba will be necessary before the war is ended. The Government has under consideration a plan for the moral and material pacification of the island.

WATCHMAN ROSWELL'S DEATH.

His Body Was Found Yesterday, and It Shows Marks of Injury.

The body of the watchman Oscar Roswell, who was drowned on Saturday night at the new bridge of the New York Central Railroad which spans the Harlem River at Fourth avenue, was recovered yesterday.

Roswell was employed by Contractors Terry and Tench to guard the tools and materials during the construction of the new bridge a Four h avenue. E. J. Larkin, one of the employees, discovered the body among the piles, near the old draw of the bridge, and managed to get it ashore at the time the police took charge of it until it was finally taken to an undertaker's on a permit issued by the Coroner.

Blood had issued from the right ear, as if the dead watchman had been injured by a blow on the head. At an autopsy to-day, juries received prior to death, it will be difficult to prove how they were received, as the bridge work has choked much of the waters surrounding the bridge with piles and other obstructions which a man falling overboard at that point would be quite likely to strike against.

Roswell's wife is convinced that he fell a victim to the young thieves who have annoyed him ever since he taught them that he meant to guard his employers' property.

MURDER IN STAMFORD.

Mack Simplains, Colored, Kills Mrs. Dudley, also Colored, and Commits Suicide.

STAMFORD, Conn., Sept. 23.—Mack Simplains, colored, murdered Mrs. Henry L. Dudley, also colored, and then committed suicide at 5:30 o'clock this evening on Atlantic street, the main thoroughfare of the city. Simplains was a widower with three children. He was a plumber, but got drunk and did not work today. He talked about committing suicide to his friends. Mrs. Dudley was walking up Atlantic street with a bundle of clothing when Simplains met her. What passed between them no one knows.

Dr. Francis J. Rogers was on the piazza of his house near by, and saw the woman stagger forward. She ran about fifty feet. Her throat had been cut, and she soon fell. Simplains, holding a razor in his hand, watched her a moment, and as soon as she had fallen drew the razor across his own throat, severing the jugular vein, and instantly expired.

The woman died at her home half an hour later. Dudley, her husband, is a trackman, and is well known throughout the State, having appeared at county fairs as the "Artful Dodger," permitting people to throw balls at his head for cigars. Dudley and his wife frequently quarrelled. Lately they have been living in peace.

A Trolley Wire Shock Caused His Fall.

Thomas Mulligan, 38 years old, of Fifth and Henderson streets, Jersey City, was mortally injured yesterday while working at Boyd and West Side avenues. He was employed by a contractor who is constructing a sewer, and who has rigged up an elevated cable on which traveller buckets are run to carry away the dirt. The cable runs parallel with and close to the Consolidated Traction Company's trolley wire. Mulligan climbed up to repair the cable, and thoughtlessly placed his hand on the trolley wire to steady himself. He received a shock and pitched headlong to the ground, fracturing his skull. He was removed to the City Hospital, but the surgeons think he cannot recover.

Alleged Firebugs' Trials.

Morris Schoenholz, the alleged firebug who is accused of setting fire to 285 East Fourth street on Jan. 3, pleaded not guilty yesterday before Judge Fitzgerald in the General Sessions. Assistant District Attorney Davis and Lawyer Abraham Levy, counsel for Schoenholz, argued on a motion for a transcript of the minutes of the Grand Jury in relation to the indictment of Schoenholz, and Judge Fitzgerald reserved decision.

Esther Cohen of 173 Norfolk street was indicted yesterday for arson in the second degree. It is alleged that she set fire to her apartments on Aug. 30 to obtain $200 insurance on her furniture.

Negro Sent to Jail for Personating a Policeman.

While escorting a young woman from Flatbush to her home in Brooklyn on Sunday night William Scheer of 17 McDonough street was stopped on the highway by Isaac Williams, a negro, who threatened to arrest him if he did not pay over $5. Williams represented himself as a policeman and displayed a shield. He fled on the approach of two policemen, but was captured after a lively chase. Yesterday Justice Laimbeer sentenced him to sixty days' imprisonment.

A. C. Love Brought Back from Colombia.

A. C. Love, formerly Assistant Postmaster at Calvert, Tex., was brought to New York a prisoner yesterday on the steamer Advance from Colon. Love was arrested at Dana, in the province of Chirque, in the United States of Colombia, last July. It was alleged that while acting as the head of the Money Order Department at Calvert, Love fled with a large amount of Government funds. After he was arrested his extradition was granted by the Colombian authorities. Love refused to make any statement yesterday. He returned voluntarily to meet the charge against him.

MRS. HERBERT GETS A DIVORCE.

The Custody of Her Child and $20 a Week Alimony Given Her.

Mrs. Annette Herbert obtained an absolute divorce yesterday from her husband, Joseph W. Herbert, an actor and playwright. It was granted by Judge Gildersleeve in the Superior Court. To Mrs. Herbert is given the custody of her child, Joseph W. Herbert, Jr.

The couple were married at Kenosha, Wis., on July 17, 1886. Mrs. Herbert charged that her husband had been guilty of improper conduct with a Miss Carteau at 217 West Thirty-eighth street, on May 15, 1895. Mrs. Herbert got an allowance of $20 a week alimony for the remainder of her natural life.

Rocert T. Gornwall obtained an absolute divorce from his wife, Mamie Gornwall. The decree was granted by Judge Dugro in the Superior Court. The couple were married in Bangor, Me., on Jan. 20, 1892. The plaintiff charges that his wife was guilty of improper conduct with William Johnson at 30 Paterson plank road, Jersey City.

Mrs. Olive Thomson obtained a decree of absolute divorce from her husband, Colin R. M. Thomson, from Judge Gildersleeve in the Superior Court. The Thomsons were married on March 2, 1895. The plaintiff charged that her husband had been guilty of improper conduct with a woman known as Annie at 226 East Thirty-seventh street.

TOO SWIFT FOR THE POLICE.

Suspected Burglars Shoot and Elude Capture in Jersey City.

Two young men who were walking leisurely along Avenue E, Jersey City, coming from the direction of Bayonne, at 3 A. M. yesterday attracted the attention of Policemen McGurk and Donegan. McGurk, who had been assigned to the special duty of looking for burglars, was in citizen's clothes, and Donegan was in uniform. They concealed themselves behind a tree. The young men looked at the houses and stopped in front of Joseph Mitchell's, 66 Avenue E. One of them went to the rear of the house while the other stood at the door.

The buttons on Donegan's uniform attracted the attention of the lookout, and he gave the alarm to his confederate. They both started to walk away when McGurk ordered them to halt. Instead of halting they ran, and the policemen started in pursuit. After running about a block the fugitives turned and fired at their pursuers. The policemen returned the fire, and they say that seven shots were exchanged from each side, fourteen shots in all. The men escaped and the policemen were not wounded. The neighborhood has been terrorized by burglars for some time.

Assistant Secretary Uhl Back from Europe.

The Hon. Edwin F. Uhl, Assistant Secretary of State, was a passenger on the North German steamer Kaiser Wilhelm II., which arrived at Quarantine at 7:30 last evening. The revenue cutter Hudson, having on board two daughters of Mr. Uhl, met the steamer at Quarantine. Mrs. Uhl accompanied her husband.
