WESTCHESTER MAILS.

Plans to Extend the Free Delivery to the Annexed District.

Postmaster Dayton has endeavored for some time to have the free delivery system extended through the territory recently annexed to New York city, and has made several trips to Washington in the interest of the scheme. About a month ago Inspector Beavers was detailed to inquire into ways and means for accomplishing the proposed extension and to report the results of his investigations. The plan is to establish a branch station at West Chester and sub-stations at Williamsbridge, City Island, and perhaps one or two other places. The expenditure for this would be about $20,000 a year. Six independent Post Offices would be abolished by the change.

It is believed by the Post Office authorities in this city that the change will be effected by Jan. 1. Postmaster Dayton said yesterday that the whole matter was in the hands of the Post Office officials at Washington. Inspector Beavers's report was transmitted to Washington several days ago.

ORR—VAN BEUREN.

Marriage of a Young Descendant of the Old Spingler and Van Beuren Families.

On Wednesday last Miss Eleanore Cecelia Van Beuren was married to Mr. Henry Orr at the residence of her father, 31 West Fourteenth street. The Rev. George F. Nelson was the officiating clergyman. Some thirty relatives were present. Directly after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Orr left for their wedding journey. Afterward they will take up their residence in this city. The bride is about 23 years of age and the groom 25.

The bride is the daughter of Henry Spingler Van Beuren, and her family is one of the oldest in New York. Both the Spinglers and the Van Beurens lived here before the Revolution, and what was once the farm of one of Mrs. Orr's ancestors now comprises some of the most valuable property in the vicinity of Union square, and is still in the hands of the family. The old Spingler mansion on West Fourteenth street is one of the landmarks of the city, and is one of the few dwellings in that once fashionable residence district that has escaped the encroachments of the business blocks.

SOUVENIR SHORTHAND BOOK FREE

Intelligent young men and women are afforded the unequalled opportunity of learning stenography and typewriting in the largest actual reporting and typewriting offices in the world, where they are absolutely certain of permanent positions when proficient.

The amount of work delivered daily at these offices to be typewritten has reached enormous proportions, and it now gives employment to over 60 operators. This work consists of legal papers of every description, circular letters, plays, architects' specifications, newspaper articles, M.S., &c., &c.

Pupils will be taught shorthand and typewriting here the same as at schools, and at a reasonable tuition. Here they are given the privilege of working in the practical TYPEWRITING DEPARTMENT, for which they receive pay. Advanced pupils are detailed on the actual reporting of depositions, referee cases, and some earn considerable.

Stenographers desiring to qualify for reporting can reach 200 words per minute by obtaining a list of nearly 5,000 compiled by F. LUSK, embracing every technicality known to the Court Reporter, Law, Railroad and General Stenographer. This book will be ready about Dec. 1. Every stenographer should have a copy.

The Souvenir Book mentioned above is the handsomest of the kind ever given free. No pupil should think of commencing a course of stenography until he has seen it. It tells how to become an expert stenographer; best system; why so many fail; contains specimen pages of Lightning Phrases. A thousand points to beginners. It will save you hours of hard study and hundreds of dollars. Over one thousand requests for this book in one week. It explains fully our elaborate practical course of training.
