STATE CONVENTION SLATE.

MORTON WANTED THE BIG FOUR FOR DELEGATES AT LARGE.

Younger Men as Alternates—The Hon. Reuben L. Fox's Job of Satisfying Our Rulers from Crum Creek, Birds-and-Worms, Hog Frog, and Hard Scrabble.

The Republican programme for the State Convention in Grand Central Palace on Tuesday is as follows:

Temporary Chairman—Senator Cornelius B. Parsons of Rochester.

Permanent Chairman—Representative George N. Southwick of Albany.

Delegates at Large to St. Louis—Thomas C. Platt of Owego, Chauncey M. Depew of New York, Warner Miller of Herkimer, Edward Lauterbach of New York.

Alternates at Large—Hamilton Fish of Garrisons, James A. Roberts of Buffalo, Frank S. Witherbee of Port Henry, C. H. Babcock of Rochester.

Every man in the lot is a strong Morton man, with no second choice. They are not made, it was said yesterday, of "second choice material." The legislative crowd from Albany arrived yesterday and was spread over the Tenderloin district. The hotels patronized chiefly by these highly interesting citizens of the dominant party in the Empire State at this time were the Murray Hill, the Metropole, and the Fifth Avenue. Speaker Fish, Leader James M. E. O'Grady of the Assembly, Senator Lexow, ex-Senator Vedder, and many others made a direct line for the Fifth Avenue and discussed affairs with Mr. Platt. The Hon. Warner Miller, just arrived from a short visit to the Hot Springs of North Carolina, with his family, was at the Fifth Avenue, and later on came Bank Superintendent Frederick D. Kilburn of Malone, Frank S. Witherbee, Charles S. Wilbur, ex-Senator Commodore Perry Vedder, William Barnes, Jr., of Albany, and platoons of others well-known in Republican circles in the State. Mingling with the throng were such eminent reformers as John Proctor Clarke, Bernard Biglin, and James A. Blanchard. Not far away were ex-Senator Frank Hiscock and his associate in Onondago politics, the Hon. Francis Hendricks. Many of the local politicians were also on hand, including ex-Police Justice Clarence W. Meade and his reformed son-in-law, the Hon. Frederick S. Gibbs.

The discussion of the slate for delegates at large brought out an interesting story, and it was confirmed by the Republican politicians who talked over matters with Mr. Platt. It was to the effect that Mr. Platt and Mr. Miller have all along intended to take back seats as delegates at large to the St. Louis Convention and send in their places younger men. Dr. Depew had also taken this view, but Gov. Morton wanted to have his candidacy in the hands of the Big Four, so that the only new blood in the list of delegates at large is to be Mr. Lauterbach, who is the sturdiest kind of a political scrapper. These are the men who must confront in the interest of Gov. Morton at St. Louis the political captains of the Hon. Major McKinley of Ohio. The alternates at large have been selected with an idea that the younger men in the Republican party should have a show. Mr. Fish is a resourceful fighter, Mr. Babcock would stand up to a McKinley Gatling gun and smile, Mr. Witherbee comes from a Republican domain in the State where they would rather fight than eat flapjacks, and Mr. Roberts, although temporarily unfortunate in Erie county, is considered a fighting man, too.

Mr. Platt, Mr. Hackett, and the others who are in immediate charge of Gov. Morton's candidacy say they are convinced that Major McKinley cannot possibly be nominated at St. Louis. They say that he represents the extremists in their party, and that the people are tired of extreme notions on the tariff which bring political revolutions every four years. Possibly the most important arrival in New York city yesterday was the Hon. Reuben L. Fox, Chief Clerk of the Republican State Committee. His job is to seat nearly 800 delegates and 800 alternates at the State Convention, and every Republican hayseeder in the lot wants a front seat. The hayseeders will not begin to arrive in carloads before to-morrow, and in the mean time Mr. Fox has the problem on his hands of satisfying them all. He will try to do his duty impartially, and will not set the Republican delegates from Crum Creek above those of Kelly's Corners, or give the solons of Bog Pond and Mud Lake the slightest vantage ground. The men from Doty's Corner and Moccoye Lake, who control the destinies of the metropolis, will not have preference over the Republicans of Short Tract and Hickory Corners, and neither will the shining lights of Republicanism from Open Meadows and Kill Buck have higher seats than those bustlers from East Java and Bethany Centre who tell New York and Brooklyn what shall be done. The statesmen from Birds-and-Worms, Bushnell's Basin, and Shaker Cross will all have nice seats, but no better than our rulers from Arcadia, Ovid, and Magee's Corners, or Sugar Hill, or Big Flats. Mr. Fox will make everything pleasant for the Republican geniuses from Genoa Junction, Tallow Pond, Bedlam Corners, Baker's Basin, Jerusalem Corners, Athens Junction, Slaterville Springs, Crooked Creek, Platt Cove, Hog Frog, Hogan Settlement, Hog Pen Ridge, Happy Hollow, Hard Scrabble, Parrotville, and Wolf Swamp.

All told, there will be nearly 1,600 Republican delegates and alternates who are to wander through this town for the next two days with the thought always uppermost in their breasts that they and their associates at Albany have the power to dictate to the coming in and the goings out of nearly 3,000,000 people below the Bronx. It is to be to them a festive holiday. Commissioner Roosevelt, who was at the Fifth Avenue Hotel yesterday afternoon, beamed through his bright eyeglasses as he talked with THE SUN man and hoped that everything would turn out right in the end for the representatives of his party from the backwoods.

The Hon. Sol Berliner, who has made frequent trips to Albany during the present session of the Legislature, and who has been in New York city the pilot about town of many of the legislators, will, it was announced by a friend, be at Republican State headquarters at the Fifth Avenue Hotel for the coming three nights. If nobody else will show the Republican hayseeders the sights, the Hon. Mr. Berliner will undertake the task. He is a true philanthropist. He has constantly with him a wad of greenbacks, and he knows the ropes.

Naturally there was almost limitless gossip yesterday among the Republican legislators as to the Gubernatorial candidate to succeed Mr. Morton. Mr. Platt and his friends will not undertake to discuss this question until after the National Convention. Many things depend on the result of that Convention, it was remarked, and there is no disposition at this time to tangle the Republican affairs of the State with a fruitless discussion. The four foremost candidates for Governor are, in the estimation of thinking Republicans, Warner Miller (if he desires the place), Comptroller James A. Roberts, Speaker Hamilton Fish, and Representative Benjamin B. Odell, Jr. But it is within the bounds of possibility that all four may be hit with good-sized bricks between now and the Gubernatorial Convention of the Republicans, which will be held in August or September. Saxton and Lexow and McAlpin and others of that class are not considered to be in the race at all. The Raines bill will have very much to do with determining the candidate. The bill may throw out to the discomfiture of the Republicans in the State, and then again it may not. The first force of the bill, it was admitted, may be harmful because of its drastic measures, and meantime the Democrats from Senator Hill down are keeping their eyes wide open and ready to take advantage of any situation that will eventually return the Democrats to power in the State.

HOW TEXAS WILL STAND.

Allison, 11; Reed, 11; McKinley, 8, is the Estimate of Politicians.

GALVESTON, Tex., March 21.—Allison, 11; Reed, 11, and McKinley 8, is the estimate of the standing of delegates of the Texas Republicans to the National Convention. There are thirteen Congress districts in the Lone Star State, giving her, with the four delegates at large, thirty delegates to the National Convention. Ten conventions have been held. This is a summary of them:

Beaumont District—Reed has two delegates; there will be a trivial contest.

Paris District—Reed has two delegates without contest.

Sherman District—McKinley has two, which fair-minded opponents say he will keep, although there is a contest.

Austin District—In this district there arose perhaps what is the most serious contention that has ever been witnessed in any of these Conventions. It divided at the outset, each faction electing delegates—two for Reed and two for Allison.

San Antonio District—There are two Allison delegates; contest of no significance.

Fort Worth District—Convention was harmonious throughout. It endorsed McKinley, but elected one Reed and one McKinley delegate.

Waco District—The delegates established two Conventions, each electing a delegation, two being for Reed and two for Allison.

Dallas Convention—Reed forces were in control, and elected two delegates. A contest was made, but upon what grounds is not clear.

Houston District—The Convention was evidently in control of the Allison people. A division occurred, in which the Allison people, who apparently represented a great majority of the members, elected an Allison delegation, the remainder a Reed delegation.

Eleventh District—There were combinations and counter combinations until the Convention finally agreed upon two delegates, one being for Allison and one for McKinley.

The Tenth district, Flanigan's, and the Thirteenth will hold conventions after the State Convention.

In the State Convention to be held at Austin on next Tuesday, March 24, there will appear three elements, representing the Reed, the Allison, and the McKinley forces. The Allison combination will probably control the Convention. The prediction is made confidently that Reed and Allison will divide the honors.

The State Convention will declare for protection to American industries, urging a recognition of Southern industrial development; for a restriction of foreign immigration, and for a currency based on gold as the only money of final redemption. For such a platform the delegates will be found voting in the National Convention.

JACOB WORTH FLOPS.

It Will Only Strengthen the Morton Column in Kings County.

The decisive victory of Mayor Wurster and City Works Commissioner Theodore B. Willis at the recent Republican Congress conventions in Brooklyn seems to have completely upset ex-Senator Jacob Worth, the opposition leader. He was reported yesterday, to the surprise of his friends, to have came out flat-footed for McKinley. His defection, however, will apparently only have the effect of strengthening the Morton column in Kings county.

Even Comptroller Palmer and County Clerk Saffen, the only two representatives of the Worth faction who have been chosen as delegates to St. Louis, declared yesterday that Gov. Morton was their first and only choice. Sheriff Buttling, who has done most of the hard fighting for Worth, said he was for Morton all the time. A close observer of the shifting political chessboard in Brooklyn said:

"Mr. Worth became disgruntled when Gov. Morton refused a year ago to sign his Charity bill, and he is jealous of Mayor Wurster's evident influence with Platt. As far back as two months ago it became evident that it was his purpose to weaken as far as possible the political influence of Mr. Platt in Kings county, and his present flop to the McKinley side is an illustration of his extreme disappointment over his failure. It is safe to predict that the entire delegation from Kings county will now be found heartily enlisted with Mr. Platt in the fight for the Governor."

Instructed for Quay.

EASTON, Pa., March 21.—The Northampton Republican County Convention was held at Nazareth to-day to elect delegates to the National Convention. The candidates were Secretary of the Commonwealth Frank Reeder, Horace L. Magee, and Thomas A. H. Hay. Mr. Hay dropped out on the fifth ballot, and the sixth and final ballot resulted: Reeder, 121; Magee, 92. The resolutions adopted by the Convention instructed the delegates to support M. S. Quay.

Civil Service Reformers on the War Path.

Suit has been begun by some of the leading civil service reformers in Brooklyn against the city authorities to prevent the payment of the salaries of sixty-five officials who were appointed to places without passing civil service examinations. Most of the disputed appointments were made by City Works Commissioner Theodore B. Willis.

Colorado's Republican Convention.

DENVER, March 21.—The Executive Committee of the Republican State party organization to-day decided to hold the State Convention for the selection of delegates to the St. Louis Convention on May 14 in Pueblo.

NEW EVIDENCE AGAINST MAYHEW.

A Piece of Lead Pipe Found Near the Place Where Powell Was Murdered.

HEMPSTEAD, L. I., March 21.—New evidence is being obtained daily against John Wayne and Arthur Mayhew, the two negroes who are accused of the murder of Stephen Powell at Hempstead on the night of March 7. While Constable Frederick Gildersleeve and Samuel H. Minshull were searching in the vicinity of the Powell residence to-day they discovered hidden in the bushes near the street on the premises of Mrs. Carrie Webb Baker a piece of lead pipe about fourteen inches long. The end of the pipe was flattened. On this flattened end were several bits of cement to which were embedded a number of gray hairs. In several places on the pipe and cement were red stains which have the appearance of blood. The pipe was sent to New York to be examined by an expert.

In his confession Wayne said that Mayhew placed a bulky object in the stocking which was used as a slungshot to kill Mr. Powell. It is thought by some that the piece of lead pipe was the instrument which was used, and that it was then inclosed in the stocking. Mayhew is a mason, and often carried with him, for luck as he said, a long, heavy object, which may have been this piece of pipe.
