COULDN'T HIT DAD CLARKE.

THE ST. LOUIS PLAYERS GO DOWN BEFORE THE NEW YORKS.

Kennedy Knocked Out of the Box by the Clevelands—Louisville Shut Out by Boston—The Cincinnatis Surprise the Orioles—Chicago and Pittsburgh Win.

Although the New Yorks did not secure many hits yesterday, they beat the St. Louis team. Dad Clarke held the Browns down in grand style and received good support. Kennedy was knocked out of the box by the Clevelands, the home team gaining an easy victory. While the Louisvilles held the Bostons' run column down to a single figure, the beaneaters succeeded in "Chicagoing" the Colonels. At Pittsburgh the Senators were easy for the home team. The Baltimores lost their first game to a Western club, Cincinnati thereby retaining sixth place. The Chicagos turned the tables on the Philadelphias. The results:

New York, 5; St. Louis, 2.
Cleveland, 11; Brooklyn, 3.
Boston, 7; Louisville, 0.
Pittsburgh, 16; Washington, 5.
Chicago, 5; Philadelphia, 3.
Cincinnati, 9; Baltimore, 5.

NEW YORK, 5; ST. LOUIS, 2.

ST. LOUIS, May 8.—Manager Arthur Irwin donned a uniform and did business on the coaching lines to-day. In consequence, the New Yorks won their fifth game this season. Somebody had to win it. The score sheet attests that neither pitcher was hit often. Donahue kept the New Yorks' hits limited by sending the ball anywhere except over the plate. In their efforts to hit the wild pitching four of Irwins men struck out, and eight of them got to first base by simply waiting. Donahue is tonight studying time tables and routes to Waterbury, Conn.

The shake-up in the Browns, recently foretold by your correspondent, came off to-day. Manager Diddlebock was released, and Latham is temporarily in charge of the twenty-one players. Monte Cross acting as field captain. It is proper to say that Diddlebock has been the target for unmerited abuse by envious and disappointed baseball men here, and has been constantly under fire. Von Der Ahe made another bluff at the purchase of Rusie to-day, with an offer of $5,000. The New York manager is still laughing at the offer. Sheridan succeeded Latham as umpire, and was satisfactory on both sides, although he had nothing doubtful to decide.

The New Yorks had the bases full in the first inning with two out, but couldn't score. In the second, Cross fumbled Harry Davis's infield hit, and Clarke followed with a single. Davis was pushed home by a prodigal gift of bases, and Clarke scored on a long out by Van Haltren. Stafford got his double steal in the third after walking to first base, and was thrown out at the plate in trying for home on an audacious attempt. In the fifth inning George Davis sent two foul flies over the fence, but caught the ball right in the third attempt. The ball landed nearly at the race track, and George ambled around the bases. Tiernan got his base, took third on Gleason's hit, and Gleason reached second on an error. Both scored on Harry Davis's foul fly to Connor, who did not try to throw to the plate. For the first six innings but eighteen of the Browns faced the pitcher. In the seventh, Quinn dropped the ball back of short for a single. Connor's mighty effort resulted in three bases, scoring Quinn. Parrott followed with a slow one down to Fuller, and Connor got home ahead of the ball. Then Clarke put on a steam, and the Browns were out of it. Attendance 1,000. The score:

CLEVELAND, 11; BROOKLYN, 3.

CLEVELAND, May 8.—Cleveland knocked one of Brooklyn's pitchers out of the box to-day and hit the man who took his place hard enough to mean runs. Brooklyn began the game well, but could do nothing to speak of with Wilson after the third inning. Daly's fielding at second was very much off color, and materially helped the home team in its run getting. Cleveland bunched its hits. That's the story of the game in a nutshell. Griffin, the first man up for Brooklyn, got a base on balls. McCarthy's and Anderson's outs sent him to third. Then Lachance came to the plate and hit the first ball over the right field fence for a home run, sending Griffin in ahead. In the third, after Kennedy had struck out, Griffin made a three-bagger to left and scored on Anderson's single to right. In the other six innings the visitors drew blanks.

After getting out in order in the first and second innings, Cleveland jumped on Kennedy in the third. Ten men went to bat before the side was cut. O'Connor began with a double. Delehanty's out helped him to third. Wilson got a base on balls. Burkett, McKean, and Childs hit safely in rapid succession. Tebeau flied out, then Zimmer planted a safe one in centre. Shearon reached first on a wild throw by Daly, and O'Connor flew out. Five men had crossed the plate. Abbey replaced Kennedy in the fourth inning and began by striking two men out. Burkett went out on a fly. McCarthy's error and hits by Tebeau and Zimmer gave one run to Cleveland in the fifth. A base on balls, Wilson's hit, and two outs at first netted one in the sixth. Hits by Tebeau, O'Connor, Delehanty, and Burkett, aided by Daly's and Grim's errors, gave four in the seventh. That ended the run getting. The score:

PITTSBURGH, 16; WASHINGTON, 5.

PITTSBURGH, May 8.—German tried to pitch for Washington to-day, but made a dismal failure. He filled the bases in the first inning and then forced in two runs, giving way to Swartzwelder with bases still full. The visitors did poor work in this inning and Pittsburgh secured enough runs to win the game. McGuire was the only man who could hit Hughey and his batting was the cleanest seen here this year. CHICAGO, 5; PHILADELPHIA, 3.

CHICAGO, May 8.—Capt. Nash will protest the game to-day to keep the Philadelphias and the Colts in suspense. He lost the decision on a score of 5 to 3. Terrible blunders in the first half of the ninth gave the Quakers the game, and Cross went to first on an error by Tanner. Nash had three balls and two strikes called on him. He started to wrangle with the umpire, and Griffith pitched a ball over the plate. It struck Nash's bat and rolled into fair grounds in front of the plate. Kittredge threw to Everett and a double play was completed on Nash at first base. Nash claims he was not standing in the batter's box when the ball was delivered, but the umpire decided otherwise. As only one man was out, the visitors had a chance to tie the score. The score:

HARTFORD, 9; METROPOLITAN, 8.

The winning streak of the Metropolitans came to an end yesterday when the Hartfords beat the youngsters of the New York club at the Polo grounds. Both pitchers received poor support, but Barnie's boys hit the ball harder, and were lucky in making scratch hits when they did the most good. Manager Irwin retired from the game at the end of the sixth inning on account of the hooting of the bleachertites. The score:

THE NATIVE NOT AT HOME.

HE FAILS TO BEAT TENDERNESS IN A DRIVE AT AQUEDUCT.

Little Jim and Mafia Also Disappoint Their Followers—Copyright's Purse Withheld on Protest—Arthur K. Leaves the Maiden Class—Keefe Scores Twice.

Favored by genial weather, well-balanced fields, and liberal patronage, the racing at Aqueduct yesterday furnished enjoyable sport. Heavy plays on Tenderness, Religion, and The Native made them alternate favorites for the opening dash, but the Stears colt had a decided call in the final speculation. Tenderness was said to have been coughing through the night, but she must have recuperated rapidly, as she lasted long enough to beat The Native a nose on the post. Balmaghie and Little Jim were in equal demand for the second race. Bradley's Lady Greenway was a prominent factor almost to the line, where Balmaghie ranged alongside and Royal H. came with a wet sail. The trio finished necks apart in a fierce drive.

Mafia, Elimont, and Shuffle Board were most fancied for the two-year-old scramble, but Bradley's Second Chance captured the purse handily at liberal odds. Favorite players turned to the fourth race for consolation and backed Copyright down to odds on. He refused to join his horses for a time, but finally got off with the others and put his followers out of suspense a furlong from home. Speculative visitors plunged on Arthur K. to win the dash for maiden two-year-olds. A select crowd made Royal Favor second favorite, but he did not even show at the finish, Doggett driving Arthur K. home in front of Contractor and Sir Moltke.

F. M. Clark, owner of Watchman, that ran second to Copyright in the fourth race, entered a protest against the pur
