ON THE BASEBALL FIELD.

ANSON'S COLTS WALLOP IRWIN'S MEN WITHOUT MUCH TROUBLE.

Cleveland Defeats Baltimore in the Ninth Inning—Boston Has a Narrow Escape at St. Louis—Cincinnati Wins from Philadelphia—A Game for the Washingtons.

Anson's colts went up against the New Yorks yesterday for the first time this season, and the Windy City players won in a canter. There is no let-up on the part of the Cincinnatis. Yesterday they downed the Quakers, and Ewing's men are still tied with the Bostons for second place. The Hub players had a narrow escape at St. Louis, pulling out a victory in the eighth inning. Until the last inning the Baltimores were in the van, only to allow the Clevelands to tally two runs, which won the game for Tebeau's men. The game at Louisville was won by the Washingtons. The results:

Chicago, 15; New York, 3.
Boston, 8; St. Louis, 2.
Cincinnati, 9; Philadelphia, 5.
Cleveland, 4; Baltimore, 3.
Washington, 8; Louisville, 3.
At Pittsburgh—Rain.

CHICAGO, 15; NEW YORK, 3.

CHICAGO, May 18.—It was a melancholy exhibition of ball playing that was put up this afternoon by Friedman's aggregation, and even the most rabid partisans of the local team could not help feeling sorry for a performance that would not have been creditable even to a Western Association club. There was not a trace of the rollicking, confident air with which the New Yorks were wont in former years to invade Anson's territory, scare his colts out of the pasture, and win games from them when they were defeating every other team in the League.

The visitors appeared to be suffering from "that tired feeling" and batted and fielded in a listless, don't-care-a-rap style. Excepting for a few moments in the sixth inning, when they started in as if they meant to make some runs, they were outclassed at every stage of the game. With men on bases and opportunities to do good work, they would go to pieces as easily as a nine from Pecatonica or Kalamazoo. Seymour made his first appearance before a Chicago crowd as a pitcher, but he was extremely wild. Then, too, his support was not good, and this was enough to discourage him. Sheridan, he of the fog-horn voice, officiated as umpire, and, while he was guilty of two or three errors of judgment, he was a decided improvement over Weidman or Keefe, who have been torturing the local team since the opening of the season. The crowd was not a large one, numbering about 2,200, and it had no chance to enthuse, except when Lange fit onto one of Campfield's easy ones and knocked it to the centre field fence for four bases. The score:

CINCINNATI, 9; PHILADELPHIA, 5.

CINCINNATI, May 18.—Threatening weather and showers did not keep 8,000 hungry cranks from League Park this afternoon to witness the first game of the series between Philadelphia and Cincinnati. The game abounded in sensational plays in which Irwin and Gray were the stars. Foreman pitched an excellent game and received almost faultless support. Miller's batting was the feature. The score:

CLEVELAND, 4; BALTIMORE, 3.

CLEVELAND, May 18.—Cleveland won one of the most exciting games of the season from Baltimore to-day. The game abounded with sharp fielding plays and magnificent base running. Tebeau's home run drive went to centre-field fence and he scored one man ahead of himself. Jennings's work at short was gilt-edged. The score:

METROPOLITANS, 8; PATERSON, 4.

From the time Umpire Sullivan called play until Cavelle captured Rion's long drive in the ninth inning, the leaders in the Atlantic League kept the 300 spectators on the anxious seat at the Polo grounds yesterday. It was fast throughout, and Brouthers was won by the Metropolitans in the seventh inning on three scratch hits, Bannon's single, and Cavelle's two-bagger.

McGinnis's coolness in the box when men were on the bases was one of the features. The score:

Baseball Notes.

G. L.—Schriver is catching for the Minneapolis Club of the Western League.

The Metropolitans have added another pitcher to their staff. His name is Bowman and he hails from Mount Vernon.

When the New Yorks return to this city next week Connaughton may be placed on the Metropolitan team, playing in right field. Several other players of the New York Club are booked to play with the Atlantic League team.

Bill Clark will leave for Cincinnati to-night and will rejoin the New York team on Thursday. He will play first base, and Harry Davis will be shifted to left field, while Stafford will continue at short stop. President Freedman said yesterday that he expected the change to strengthen the team in batting.

Col. Marcus Miller, the commandant at Fort Hamilton, has prohibited any further Sunday ball playing by the soldiers on the Government reservation. He found that the game disturbed the peace of the neighborhood on Sundays, especially when return matches with teams from other forts were in progress.

GOOD FIELDS FOR MORRIS PARK.

The Levity and Harlem Stakes Promise Interesting Sport.

Racing will be continued to-day at Morris Park with a card that promises good sport, except in the three-year-old selling race, which will have only a trio of starters. It seems rather surprising that the owners have been chary of nominating in this race, for the selling clause should have been a temptation instead of a barrier, in view of the long list of maiden three-year-olds at the track munching oats in contentment and idleness. Barring this race, however, the card is the best since the beginning of the Westchester Racing Association's meeting.

In the Levity Stakes, Royal Rose, the flying daughter of Royal Hampton and Belle Rose, who won the Gaiety Stakes in a big gallop on Saturday, must carry a seven-pound penalty. The Messrs. Keene have entered the highly tried Order—Lucy Wallace colt, Regulator, while the Messrs. Morris have Lithos, who has a seven-pound non-winning allowance, and The Friar, by Friar's Balsam—Lizzie Baker. The dam is one of the mares sent abroad to be mated with the best of the English studs and much is expected of the colt. The fleet Beldemere, Ray S., the Western crack, and Gay Hampton, Mrs. Eloise Stevenson's English-bred four-year-old, are most prominent among the Harlem entries. The distance, too, is a sixteenth of a mile less, and more to the liking of the son of S
