CLARKE FOOLS THE COLTS.

THE NEW YORKS PREVENT THE CHICAGOS FROM SCORING.

Brooklyns Lose a Ten-Inning Game—Cincinnati's Victory Over the Quakers Enables Ewing's Men to Move Into First Place—Other League Games Postponed.

The New Yorks played a great game at Chicago yesterday. Dad Clarke was in fine fettle, holding Anson's players down to a few scattered hits. The New York twirler received good support, and the Windy City aggregation drew nine goose eggs. It was the best game played by Irwin's men this season. Ten innings were played before the game at Pittsburgh was decided, which the Brooklyns lost, their fifth straight defeat. The Philadelphias again went down before the Cincinnatis, who now lead in the race. Wet grounds prevented the games at Cleveland, St. Louis, and Louisville. The results:

New York, 7; Chicago, 0.
Pittsburgh, 6; Brooklyn, 5.
Cincinnati, 8; Philadelphia, 2.
At other cities—Wet grounds.

NEW YORK, 7; CHICAGO, 0.

CHICAGO, May 19.—Old "Dad" Clarke rolled revenge like a sweet morsel under his tongue this afternoon and won the game for the New Yorks with ease. It mattered little what batsman faced him, they went down before his heavy right, and, with the superb support which he received from his associates, proved invincible. Five weak hits were all the Colts could place to their credit, and the home plate seemed to them far, far away at all stages of the game. "Old Anse" sat on the bench and watched his youngsters puny efforts to encircle the diamond, and his roseate countenance became blue.

In justice to the old man it may be said that the weather was quite as much the cause of the change in hue of his countenance as was the inability of the Colts to score runs. The day was raw and cold, and those who had not with forethought provided themselves with overcoats joined the great captain of the Chicago in a shivering match. The uncomfortable atmosphere had a noticeable effect on the attendance, only about 1,200 real enthusiasts turning out. The game did not abound in features. There was no brilliant, sky-rockety playing at any time, but up to the eighth inning it was a clean, well-contested game, with but little advantage on either side.

Both pitchers were well backed up, the fielding was sharp and clean, and each side had the same number of hits to its credit. It was in the eighth that Friend went all to pieces, and completely shut out all hope of the Colts making a winning. Six clean hits, one a three-bagger, were made off his delivery, and the crack of bats against the ball that came so rapidly sounded louder and nearer than the popping of corks at the Patriarchs' ball. When it was over Papa Anson shook his head mournfully at the Colt that had brought such dire calamity, while Friend walked to the bench like a man in a trance. The score:

PITTSBURGH, 6; BROOKLYN, 5.

PITTSBURGH, May 19.—Pittsburgh won an exciting ten-inning game from Brooklyn to-day. Errors by Stenzel and Donovan put the visitors in the game at several stages, but these two players afterward redeemed themselves, the latter by timely hitting, batting in three of the six runs, while Donovan made a remarkable one-handed catch of a line fly from Shindle's bat in the eighth inning and completed a double play. It was the most exciting game of the season and abounded in brilliant plays. Attendance, 2,500. The score:

TRAP SHOOTING.

Colgan Leads the Winfield Gunners—Emerald Turn Out Strong.

The members of the Winfield Gun Club closed their season yesterday with a lively shooting tournament on the club grounds, near Winfield, L. I. James B. Colgan captured the club event in good style, while in the extra races the money was either split up or divided by Kent, Colgan, Floyd, O'Brien, Cummings, and Schleuter. Summary follows:

First Event—Club competition, at fifteen clay birds each: James B. Colgan, 17 yards, 13; Edward V. Kent, 16 yards, 11; Henry P. Cummings, 16 yards, 11; Thomas S. Floyd, 17 yards, 12; Henry P. Smith, 16 yards, 12; James J. O'Brien, 16 yards, 10; Ulysses V. O'Connor, 17 yards, 1; Andrew J. Henderson, 17 yards, 9; James R. Semon, 17 yards, 8; James W. Heaney, 16 yards, 6; Samuel P. Schleuter, 16 yards, 5; Edward S. Morris, 17 yards, 10; William H. Hunt, 16 yards, 5.

Second Event—Five birds each, known traps and angles: Cummings, 5; Schleuter, 3; Smith, 1; Colgan, 4; Kent, 2; Floyd, 4; O'Brien, 1; O'Connor, 2; Henderson, 3; Semon, 3; Heaney, 1; Morris, 3; Hunt, 3.

Third Event—Same conditions—Colgan, 2; Kent, 2; Cummings, 1; Floyd, 3; Smith, 2; O'Brien, 3; O'Connor, 4; Henderson, 2; Semon, 3; Heaney, 2; Schleuter, 1; Morris, 1; Hunt, 1.

Fourth Event—Same conditions—Colgan, 4; Kent, 2; Cummings, 3; Floyd, 1; Smith, 1; O'Brien, 3; O'Connor, 1; Henderson, 2; Semon, 1; Heaney, 3; Schleuter, 4; Morris, 1; Hunt, 4.

Fifth Event—Ten targets each, five at known traps and angles and five at unknown traps and angles: Colgan, 7; Floyd, 8; Henderson, 8; Smith, 2; O'Brien, 6; O'Connor, 1; Henderson, 4; Heaney, 9; Semon, 7; Morris, 7; Cummings, 8.

Sixth Event—Five targets; reverse: Colgan, 3; Smith, 3; Floyd, 2; Morris, 1; Schleuter, 1; Cummings, 1; Kent, 4; Heaney, 4; O'Brien, 1; Schleuter, 3; Hunt, 4; O'Connor, 1; Semon, 3.

Seventh Event—Ten targets each, unknown traps and known angles: Colgan, 7; Kent, 4; Cummings, 8; Floyd, 1; Smith, 8; O'Brien, 1; O'Connor, 2; Henderson, 2; Semond, 4; Heaney, 2; Schleuter, 1; Morris, 2; Hunt, 1; Heaney, 4.

At Dexter Park yesterday afternoon thirty-two members of the Emerald Gun Club and two guests participated in the regular monthly club shoot. There was a delay of about twenty minutes owing to a rain storm. E. J. Clark, William Catton, John Massel, E. Dudley, and C. Thompson, one of the guests, made straight scores of ten each, while eight men killed nine each, and five grassed eight apiece. C. Thompson, who hails from the West and is deaf and dumb, killed all except the fourth bird with the first barrel. As this was the first shoot of the club under the new "point" handicapping, a favorable showing was made. Summaries:

First Event—Regular monthly club shoot, at 10 live birds each; three classes; handicap rise and points.

Class A, 29 Yards, 7 Points—R. Woods, 8; Gus E. Grieff, 9; Edward J. Clark, 10; Frank Lawrence, 8.

Class A, 28 Yards, 7 Points—J. V. Hudson, 7; Thomas Short, 8; Marshall Herrington, 6.

Class A, 26 yards, 6½ points—F. Dudley, 10; Charles Stevens, 8; Joseph Swartz, 8; Harry Pessenden, 9; Edward A. Vroome, 8; John H. Moore, 7; G. E. Loebie, 7; John Massel, 10; Frank W. Place, 8; William Sands, 9.

Class A, 28 yards, 6 points—Philip Batz, 8; Dr. Klein, 7; Richard Regan, 6; Joseph Banzer, 6.

Class A, 28 yards, 5½ points—Bernard Amend, 5; Henry Thiele, 8.

Class A, 28 Yards, 5 Points—John Woelfle, 9; Thomas J. Purcell, 7.

Class B, 26 Yards, 5½ Points—Thomas F. Cody, 9; William Catton, 10.

Taves of Trinity School Breaks an Arm.

Very few of the spectators present at the interscholastic games at Berkeley Oval on last Saturday after noon were aware that A. M. Taves, the Trinity School hurdler, sustained rather serious injuries in his fall in the 220 yard hurdle race, which was decided early in the afternoon. As the accident occurred Taves was leading the field by at least five yards, but he fell at the last hurdle. He quickly got up and finished. It was not until he reached the dressing room that it was found he had received more than a few scratches. Dr. Milbank, who was present, was called in by Trainer Menahan and it was then discovered that the young athlete had received a compound fracture of the right arm below the elbow. Dr. Milbank temporarily set the injured member and Taves was sent home. He is now confined to his bed, and it will be at least three months before he will be able to train again.

The Half-rater Imp.

Tom Clapham's little half-rater Imp, which defeated the entire fleet of 15-footers so handily last Saturday, is by far the most yacht-looking craft yet turned out by the veteran Roslyn builder. While the Imp is of the famous Bouncer type, she has a round bilge. She is 23 feet 6 inches over all, 114 feet on the water line, 6 feet beam, and draws 5 inches without board.

Instead of having the usual metal dagger centreboard of the English type, the Imp has a plain old-fashioned Yankee wooden board of oak, which would float if detached, and the boat carries her sail on her own natural stability. The Imp on Saturday had a reef in during the first part of the race and lost fully two minutes in shaking it out in the second round. When the Imp was remeasured on Saturday it was found that she was within the class, only rating 14.94 feet.

Baseball Notes.

P. R.—No.

J. R.—Seymour is with the New Yorks.

T. E. R.—1, Minneapolis. 2, Cuban X Giants.

The St. Louis College nine will meet the Cuban X Giants at Recreation Park on Sunday afternoon.

J. F. K.—The Brooklyns are scheduled to play at Pittsburgh on July 9 and at St. Louis on July 16.

H. D. Oliver, the well-known football player, has been appointed manager of the Orange A. C. team.

The Metropolitans have arranged to play at New York on June 8 and 9, and probably against the Orange A. C. at Orange Oval on June 10.

John Irwin will replace Bill Clark at first base for the Metropolitans. Cohen, who has not been playing on account of an injured hand, will cover second base.

St. Louis, May 19.—Walter A. Latham, the Browns' third baseman, was unconditionally released to-day, and Tim Sneehan, right fielder, has been sold to the Columbus, O., Club.

Umpire Jerry Sullivan, who has been in constant trouble since the Atlantic League season opened, resigned yesterday. W. S. Wyckoff of Princeton has been appointed to fill the vacancy.

Wet grounds prevented the Metropolitans and Patersons from playing at the Polo grounds yesterday. In the other Atlantic League clubs consent two games will be played on Saturday afternoon.

As the New Yorks and Metropolitans are scheduled to play in this city on June 24 it was decided yesterday to play the Atlantic League scheduled game for that day this afternoon. Standish and Cogan may pitch for their respective clubs.

Harry D. Fouzel.—1. The tie game of last Thursday between the Chicagos and Baltimores was played off on Friday. Sunday's game was scheduled. 2. The batteries on Thursday were Parker and Kittredge and Pond and Clarke.

The St. Bonaventure College team of Allegany, N. Y., will play the Fordham College team at Fordham to-day. Sinnott and C. Dunn will be the battery for the home team. To-morrow the Fordhams go to Easton, Pa., to meet the Lafayette nine. O'Connor and C. Dunn will do the battery work for the Fordham team.

NEW HAVEN, May 19.—Yale's anxiety over her next baseball game with Princeton has resulted in the starting in of Murphy, captain of the football team, to train for the nine. Murphy played on the varsity nine two years ago, and is perhaps the best catcher in the college. Capt. Quinby has made two changes in the team. He has himself gone to short stop again and put Bartlett on third. De Saulle has been moved to second base.

The Paterson High school baseball team have a few open dates and would like to hear from some Prps. schools either in New York or New Jersey. On May 9 they defeated the Somerset P. C. of Somerville, N. J., and last Saturday they showed the McChesney College team of Paterson, N. J., how to play the national game. They have games on with Brooklyn Latin school for May 23, Hackettstown Institute, May 30, and Ridgewood Field Club, June 13. June 6, 20, and 27 are open. Address John Taylor, Paterson High School, Paterson, N. J.

The Englewood Field Club has arranged the following games: May 23, Morristown Field Club, at Morristown; 30, Staten Island Cricket Club, at Englewood; June 6, Morristown Field Club, at Englewood; 13, Montclair A. C., at Montclair; 17, Orient Field Club, at Hackensack; 20, Flushing A. C., at Englewood; 27, Woodbridge A. A., at Woodbridge; July 4, Riverdale A. C., at Englewood; 18, New Jersey A. C., at Bayonne; 25, Nutley A. C., at Nutley; Aug. 1, Ridgewood A. C., at Englewood; 8, Elizabeth A. C., at Elizabeth; 15, Nutley A. C., at Englewood; 22, Staten Island Cricket Club, at Staten Island; Sept. 5, Staten Island A. C., at Englewood; 1, Woodbridge A. A., at Englewood; 12, Montclair A. C., at Englewood; 19, Ridgewood A. C., at Ridgewood; 26, Elizabeth A. C., at Englewood.

CHICAGO, May 19.—The Chicago University team left on its Eastern trip this morning. The first game will be played against the University of Michigan, at Ann Arbor, to-morrow afternoon. Coach Stagg will accompany the team, which consists of twelve men. The players are: Nichols, pitcher and right field; Jones, catcher; Sweet, short stop; Abells, first base; Adkinson, second base; Winston, third base; Herschberger, centre field; Brown, pitcher and left field; H. Clarke, pitcher and right field; Pike, catcher; Sawyer, centre field; C. Clarke, substitute, infield. All the men are in good condition, with the exception of C. Clarke, whose wrist was spiked in Saturday's game. Following are the games to be played: May 20, Michigan, at Ann Arbor; 22, Cornell; 23, Orange A. C.; 25, University of Pennsylvania; 27, Yale; 28, Harvard; 30, Michigan, at Detroit.

A BIG CROWD AT THE RACES

ARBUCKLE AND BELDEMERE WON THE PRIZES YESTERDAY.

McCafferty's Colt an Added Starter in the Levity Stakes—Fred Littlefield Drew In Too Fine with Abuse—Dorian Beat by Bill Daly's Volley—Entries for To-day.

The popularity of racing this season is unquestioned. With a card that possessed no attractions beyond the ordinary run, there were fully 5,000 persons at Morris Park yesterday afternoon. A heavy rain which fell just before the first race made the track heavy, and the horses ploughed through mud and water in the six races which followed. The stake events on the programme, the Levity, for two-year-olds, at five furlongs, and the Harlem, for three-year-olds and upward, at seven furlongs, were won respectively by John J. McCafferty's handsome colt Arbuckle and the Preakness Stable's smart mare Beldemere. Griffin rode the former and won by a handsome margin, but Taral had to do his prettiest work in the saddle to get Mr. Galway's mare home a neck before Jack Joyner's speedy Cromwell for the Harlem.

There were three withdrawals from the published list of starters for the Levity Stakes, J. K. & F. P. Keene's Regulator, A. H. & D. H. Morris's The Friar, and M. M. Allen's Tropical declining the issue. R. W. Walden & Son's filly Successful and J. J. McCafferty's Arbuckle were added, making a field of six starters. Royal Rose, in spite of her crushing weight of 122 pounds, was installed favorite by the talent, with the black colt Lithos second choice. Those who recalled McCafferty's tactics with Applegate last year waited until they saw Arbuckle, and figured that 8 to 1 was a false price against such a fine looking younster, particularly when the colt had such a marked pull in the weights, and was ridden by Henry Griffin. Arbuckle and Royal Rose outlooked their competitors, but it did not seem possible that the favorite could give the big son of Bob Miles fourteen pounds and a beating. After quite a delay at the post the six were sent away well bunched. Lithos and Royal Rose outran the others in the opening quarter, but rising the hill Arbuckle came through and soon had Littlefield and Simms at the whip. Royal Rose was on the rail, and every time Littlefield struck Lithos the black colt swerved into the favorite and interfered with her materially. Littlefield is not a good whip hand by any means, and he appeared to be powerless to keep his mount straight. Simms kept pegging away whenever there was even a moment's opportunity to get near the pocket, but the Fates were against him, and Arbuckle won handily by two lengths. Lithos gave Royal Rose a final jostle just before reaching the finishing line, and Simms pulled up to save a fall. Arbuckle is as fine a two-year, as far as appearances goes, as has faced the starter this year, and he will be heard from again. Royal Rose is far and away the best filly of her age and sex seen out this spring in the East.

It was a small but fair class field which went to the post for the Harlem Stakes. Beldemere was the favorite on the surprisingly good odds of 2½ to 1. The Messrs. Fleischmann started both Ray S. and the two-year-old Sherlock, declaring to win with the latter, a lot of money going into the ring on the son of Eberlee. Jack Joyner's Cromwell was also being suggested at long odds. Ray S. played the part of a good race rider, Wiley Jones, was fined $50, Cromwell rushed to the front, and made the running, closely attended by Beldemere and Manchester. At the upper turn Hanwell exchanged places with Manchester, Cromwell maintained his lead in the homestretch, and Jack Joyner began to tune his pipes when Taral began jumping his back on the favorite. Hanwell and Sherlock closed ground in the run home, and it was a hard drive from the sixteenth pole home. Cromwell weakened fifty yards from the wire, and Beldemere won by his neck. Hanwell was a length away, a short head behind Sherlock, the latter having run around the entire field. Mrs. Kernochan's Gay Hampton was off last and finished about as well as any horse in the race.

Fred Littlefield made the talent groan by being beaten on the favorite, Abuse, when he was astride a colt that was pounds the best in the race. It was a clear case of overconfidence, and the plungers, with their thousands on the favorite, died a slow death as they saw Hamilton sending quick relief and surrogate made the running for the first quarter of a mile, followed by Abuse, Golddcrest, Titmouse, and Lonsdale. In the run home Abuse simply smothered his field, and Littlefield took a restraining pull on the colt a sixteenth of a mile from home. Seeing this, Hamilton went to work on Goldcrest with hand and heel, and before Littlefield realized his danger he was upon him and won the race by a short head. Titmouse was a fair third and Lonsdale fourth. Goldcrest is a beautifully bred three-year-old, imported by the Messrs. Keene, and sold to them to Trainer William Lakeland. By Bend Or, out of Princess Iskru, he has size and symmetry to recommend him. The stewards had a talk with Littlefield. The jockey admitted that he had been beaten through overconfidence, and was warned to be more vigilant in future.

Benamela was favorite for the second event, a dash at a mile over the Withers course, and as his opponents were that sorry pair, Ventanna and Whipcord, there was no price against the mostly unsale little son of Ben Alliance. Littlefield waited until the last furlong, when he cut loose and won hands down. Ventanna was an easy second.

Haphazard, the long-striding brother to Leonawell, from the Fleischmann Stable, was made any sizeable money favorite for the fifth race, for two-year-olds, chiefly on the strength of his good race when he finished fourth in the Juvenile Stakes, although his size would command attention from any close observer. It was only a big gallop for Haphazard, Doggett taking the lead at the half and wiring all the way. Old Matt, Hiddenite, Talisman, and The Manxman had quite a race for second money for over a mile. Then Talisman came on, and, although he could never get near Haphazard, he beat The Manxman very easily for second money. Hiddenite and Old Matt finished strong.

The last race, in which there were but three starters, scarcely merits description. St. Maxim was an odds-on favorite to beat Dorian and Volley. Few persons expected Dorian to beat St. Maxim, but there did look for the bay horse to beat Volley. Volley was the pacemaker, with St. Maxim a close second, and Dorian losing ground steadily. St. Maxim won under a pull, with Volley second, ten lengths before Dorian. Dorian is apparently worthless as a race horse this spring. He looks well, but is either in warrant cur or devoid of all speed. Summary follows:
