WEAK WITH THE WILLOW.

NEW YORKS LOSE AT BALTIMORE FOR THIS REASON.

Doheny's Wildness in the First Inning Is Responsible for Four Runs, but He Pitches Well Enough After that to Win —Philadelphia Defeats Boston - Notes.

Such stick work as the New Yorks did in Baltimore yesterday will not win many games. Despite a fatal wildness in the first inning, Doheny pitched well enough after that to win, but his companions were at the mercy of Esper, who has been pie for other clubs, and consequently could not bat in enough runs to win. The defeat puts Irwin's men on even terms with St. Louis again. The only other League game resulted in a victory for the crippled Philadelphias, who took the Bostons into camp. To-day the Western teams begin their first series in the East. The Clevelands, who lead the race, will be the attraction at the Polo grounds, and the Louisvilles will face the Brooklyns at Eastern Park. The results:

Baltimore, 5; New York, 3.

Philadelphia, 6; Boston, 3.

BALTIMORE, 5; NEW YORK, 3.

BALTIMORE, May 25.—It took Pitcher Doheny just about one inning to become acquainted with the location of the home plate, but in that brief space of time the Orioles had taken advantage of his ignorance and rolled up enough runs to win the game. The young South Paw worked hard to redeem his errors of omission and received magnificent support in the field, but the batters failed to hit the ball with sufficient accuracy to overcome the lead gained, and hence were just three short of a victory when the last New Yorker was retired. With the exception of this one inning, Doheny pitched a grand game. Five hits were all the Orioles could collect after this, and only two of these came together, yielding the one run they earned. This was made in the second inning, after which not another man crossed the plate. Unfortunately for the New Yorks, Esper, Baltimore's south paw, was in as fine fettle as Doheny. He mowed down the visitors, and but for Robinson's error and a misjudged fly ball the New Yorks would have made but one run instead of three. The fielding on both sides was nearly perfect. Davis made the only mishap for New York when he allowed Robinson's drive to get away, but this cost nothing. Robinson's error was a throw to first base with which the base runner interfered and which yielded a run. The star play of the day was made by Reitz when he made a difficult back-handed catch of a fly ball in right centre. The base-running of the two Clarks was superb. The best hitting was done by Keeler, Jennings, and Farrell. The weather was threatening during the afternoon, and at one time it rained, nevertheless 7,331 people paid their way to see the game. Kid Gleason was the attraction, and a royal reception he was accorded. When he stepped to the plate in the second inning, Capt. Robinson, on behalf of the Baltimore players, presented him with a magnificent pair of cuff buttons. Instead of following the precedent and striking out, the Kid responded with a slashing two-bagger which developed into a run. After this, however, he could not get the ball out of the diamond. The game was free from kicking, and was pushed through on schedule time. The score:

BERKELEY, 30; COLUMBIA GRAMMAR, 0.

With the exception of the championship game, the baseball season of the New York Interscholastic A. A. came to a close this afternoon when the last scheduled game between Columbia Grammar and Berkeley School teams was played at Berkeley Oval. It was the fourth game played between these two teams, and the Berkeley boys had won three of the previous games. After playing good ball for ten innings Berkeley had no trouble in scoring at will and to retire Columbia's batters, but the others seemed to be quite easy for the hard-hitting Berkeleys. The score:

CUMBERLAND, May 25.—Cincinnati filled in her open date here to-day, defeating the locals by a score of 9 to 6.

There is trouble in the Brooklyn team, according to report. It is said there is a clash between Griffin and Foutz over the handling of the men on the field.

Seventh Regiment men are looking forward with pleasure to Friday afternoon and baseball batting, which will take place next Saturday, when the National Guardsmen cross bats with the cadets at West Point.

The game between De La Salle Institute and Condon School, in the Interscholastic series, which was scheduled for yesterday, was won by the former by default, which gives the championship of the first section to De La Salle.

The Wizards of Station G, N. Y. P. O., defeated the crack team of station B at Williamsbridge last Sunday by the score of 22 to 16. The players of Station G are hopeful of carrying off the honors in their section of the Postal League.

HAZLETON, Pa., May 25.—Manager Swift of the Carbondale State League club left here last night to take charge of the Scranton Club. He says that the Carbondale Club will go out of the league. Scranton made offers for Masser, Rafter, Sales, Luby, and McQuade of the Carbondale team, but the only player sent was McQuade.

An All-Collegiate baseball team is being organized. Games will be played on Saturdays only during July and August. The team will be managed by M. T. Meserer, ex-manager of the Camden A.A., and the captain will be John Blakly, the present captain of the University of Pennsylvania team. The games thus far arranged are: July 4, A. M. and P. M., Orange, N. J., at Orange; 11, Orthard Field Club, at Hackensack; 18, Asbury Park A. C., at Asbury Park; 25, Atlantic City A. C., at Atlantic City; Aug. 1, Asbury Park A. C., at Asbury Park; 8, open; 15, P. M., Cape May Club, at Cape May; 22, Cape May Club, at Cape May; 29, Atlantic A. C., at Atlantic City.

PRINCETON, May 25.—The Princeton team received a thorough shaking up before the regular practice game this afternoon. Capt. Bradley is dissatisfied with the showing of the fellows in the Yale game on Saturday, and intends to make several changes before the game with Harvard next Saturday. In the game to-day Capt. Bradley came in to short stop from centre field, and Smith, was played at second base instead of Wheeler. Titus went behind the bat. It is probable that Wilson will be placed at left field and Altman at right, with either Wheeler or Sankey at centre. Fifth King was on the diamond this afternoon, coaching the infield player.

A Knock-out on Staten Island.

Six dozen sports from Bayonne, Jersey City, Newark, and Elizabeth saw a lively mill of three rounds in an eighteen-foot ring near Bull's Head, Staten Island, at daybreak on Sunday morning. The principals were George Grant of the West Side A. C. of Bayonne and George Demetrick of the Centreville A. C. of Bayonne. They fought for $250 a side and the light-weight championship of Bayonne. The fighters and spectators embarked in several sailing craft and a number of rowboats at a resort on the Bayonne shore of Newark Bay and landed on Staten Island, near the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad bridge, on the Arthur Kill. Before leaving, the principals weighed in at 129¾ pounds each. Daniel Murphy of Bayonne was the referee. Grant had for his seconds Mike Donovan of the Scottish-American A. C. of Jersey City and James Connors of the West Side A. C. His timekeeper was James Fredenburgh of the West Side A. C., Benjamin Moore acted for Thomas Noonan of the Centreville A. C. were Demetrick's seconds and Joseph Kane of the Centreville A. C. his timekeeper. Grant had a decided advantage throughout, and knocked his man out in the third round.

Bowling.

The American Council players were beaten three straight games by the Fidelia's players in the United Bowling Clubs' championship tournament at Thum & Kahlsdorf's Harlem alleys last night. The scores:

Cricket Notes.

A cricket club has been formed by the choir boys of St. Agnes's Church, and the club is open to meet junior teams.

Henry Martin has been elected President of the Manhattan Cricket Club, in place of S. E. Hosford, resigned. The other vacancies caused by these changes have been filled by the election of Mr. Hoffman as second vice-president and Henry Flannery as delegate to the Metropolitan District Cricket League.

The Associated Cricket Clubs of Philadelphia have offered a game with the Australians to New York for Sept. 22, 23, and 24. The Executive Committee of the Metropolitan League will meet during the week to consider the matter.

The British Public Schools and Universities Club of Chicago are anxious to meet the New York club of the same name and purposes in a game at Chicago this season, and if the New York men can get a team together the trip may be taken.

The team of Haverford College, which is to tour in England this season, is meeting with unusual success in the games now being played in Philadelphia. Five games have made good scores in all four innings, and in Stanton Lippincott and Ashton Fox the team possesses a pair of batsmen who can hold their own against any bowlers. Fox is a left-handed batsman and Lippincott is a right-hand bat, but the others seemed to be

AT MORRIS PARK TO-DAY.

Two-year-olds Likely to Have a Lively Scramble for the Laureate Stakes.

While the number of entries for the races at Morris Park to-day are lighter than usual, the prospects are quite favorable for some lively struggles. Nine clever two-year-olds are entered for the Laureate Stakes, a dash of five furlongs over the Eclipse course. This should be the star event of the day. The entries follow:

First Race—High-weight handicap for three-year-olds and upward; purse $600; if the top weight accepted is less than the rule for high-weight handicaps (140 pounds) it shall be raised to that weight, and the others in proportion; last six and a half furlongs of the Withers mile.

Shakespeare II	140	Rosedale	129
Bowling Green	122	Relief	116
Whipjany	119

Second Race—Selling allowances, for three-year-olds, at 7 pounds above the scale; purse $500; winners during the meeting not to be entered to be sold for less than $1,500; the Withers mile.

Benamela	109	Abuse	104
Whipcord	104	Volley	101

Third Race—The Laureate Stakes, for two-year-olds; purse $4,000; to the winner $4,000, to the second $850, to the third $250; Mr. John Sanford to add $1,000 in money or plate to the winner; if entered Feb. 4, 1896, $25 each; if entered April 1, 1896, when the event shall be closed, $100 each; starters to pay $50 additional; winners of a race of the value of $1,000 to carry three pounds extra; of two of $1,000, of one of $2,000, five pounds extra; horses which have started without winning a race of the value of $500 allowed seven pounds; last five furlongs of the Eclipse course.
