NOTICE OF COMMISSIONER OF JURORS IN REGARD TO CLAIMS FOR EXEMPTION FROM JURY DUTY.
Room 127, Stewart Building,
No. 280 Broadway, Third Floor,
New York, June 6, 1896.
Claims for exemption from jury duty will be heard by me daily at my office, from 9 A. M. until 4 P. M.
Those entitled to exemption are clergymen, lawyers, physicians, surgeons, surgeon-dentists, professors or teachers in a college, academy or public school; editors, editorial writers or reporters of daily newspapers; licensed pharmacists or pharmacists actually engaged in the respective professions and not following any other calling; militiamen, policemen and firemen, election officers, non-residents, and city employees and United States employees, officers or men making regular trips, licensed pilots actually following that calling; superintendents, conductors and engineers of a railroad company other than a street railroad company, telegraph operators actually doing duty as such, Grand, Sheriff's and Civil Court jurors; and persons physically incapable of performing jury duty by reason of severe sickness, deafness or other physical disorder.
Those who have not answered as to their liability or proved permanent exemption will receive a "jury enrollment notice," requiring them to appear before me this year. Whether liable or not, such notices must be answered in person, if possible, and at this office only, under severe penalties. If exempt, the party must bring proof of exemption; if liable, he must also answer in person, giving full and correct name, residence, etc., etc. No attention paid to letters.
All good citizens will aid the course of justice and secure reliable and respectable juries and equalize their duty by serving promptly when summoned, allowing their clerks or subordinates to serve, reporting to me any attempt at bribery or solicitation, and suggesting names for enrollment. Persons between twenty-one and seventy years of age, summer attorneys, jury exempt, temporarily ill and United States jurors are not exempt.
Every man must attend to his own notice. It is a misdemeanor to give or say to any paper to another to answer. It is also punishable by fine or imprisonment to give or receive any present or bribe directly or indirectly, in relation to a jury service, or to fraudulently pay or make any false statement, and every case will be fully prosecuted.
WILLIAM PLIMLEY,
Commissioner of Jurors.
