BASEBALL STILL DRAWS.

BIG CROWDS ATTEND THE VARIOUS NATIONAL LEAGUE GAMES.

New Yorks Break Even with the Pittsburghs and Brooklyn Does Likewise with Cincinnati—Baltimores Win Three Victories from Louisville—Clevelands Win and Lose at Boston—Philadelphias Outplay the Chicagos—Many Other Games

Labor Day is always the occasion for big baseball crowds at the National League games. Many thousands saw the contests in the six Eastern cities yesterday, and the results prove that, barring accidents, the Baltimores cannot fail to win the pennant for the third successive year. The champions played three games with the Louisvilles and won them all, while the Clevelands and Cincinnatis broke even with the Bostons and Brooklyns, respectively. The New Yorks won the morning game from the Pittsburghs, but lost the afternoon game, the Philadelphias, meanwhile, winning one game—all that was played—from the Chicagos. St. Louis and Washington each won a ball. The results:

NEW YORK, 12; PITTSBURGH, 2—MORNING GAME.

The New Yorks batted Left-hander Killen all over the Polo grounds yesterday morning and defeated the Pittsburghs with ridiculous ease. The visitors could do nothing with Meekin, who received beautiful support. Van Haltren rapped out two three-baggers and fielded superbly, while Capt. Joyce banged a couple of homers over the right field ropes. The score:

PITTSBURGH, 2; NEW YORK, 1—AFTERNOON GAME.

Ten thousand persons saw the afternoon game at the Polo grounds. Both Hawley and Doheny pitched magnificently, the winning run being scored in the last inning on somewhat of a fluke. Gleason and Davis played a brilliant game in the field, while Padden took the lion's share of Pittsburgh's honors. Hawley, as the game progressed, increased his speed, and was simply an enigma with men on bases. Doheny showed that he has fully recovered the use of his good left arm, and the defeat was no disgrace to him. The Pittsburghs were first at the bat, and scored a run on singles by Donovan and Merritt, a force, and Smith's out. In the last half, with the bases filled, Hawley forced in Tiernan by giving four balls to Davis. Then Beckley and Stafford put up fouls for Sugden. Sugden began the ninth with a base on balls, and moved to second on Harry Davis's sacrifice. Hawley struck out and Padden lifted one over Stafford's head for three bases, Sugden scoring, Gleason then caught Donovan's little fly and the scoring was over. The score:

BROOKLYN, 6; CINCINNATI, 1—MORNING GAME.

If the Cincinnatis expect to be one of the teams to try for the Temple cup they will have to show a decided improvement at the bat. Although Ewing's players took one of the games played at Eastern Park yesterday, the victory was due to the creditable hitting of Kennedy's work in the morning game was a reminder of past days when "Roaring Bill" mowed down the heavy batters with no apparent effort. Hall Irwin not sent one of Kennedy's inshoots past Stifflebug in the fifth inning the Cincinnatis would have left the field without a base hit to their credit. The score:
