HI DADDY'S HURRICANIA.

MRS. L. CURTIS WINS A STAKE WITH HER GELDING.

The Winner Bid Up by L. S. Thompson, Who Also Runs Up Premier—Cassette Defeats The Winner Again—Honors for Chic, Ross O, Premier, and Sapelo.

The weather was delightful yesterday and the attractive programme offered for the second day of the Westchester Racing Association's autumn meeting drew a large crowd to Morris Park. There were two stake events on the card, the Hurricania, for two-year-olds, at five furlongs, which went to Mrs. L. Curtis's bay gelding Hi Daddy, and the Belle Meade Stakes, for three-year-olds, for which Augustus Clason's brown filly Cassette beat The Winner and others in very clever style. The track was still wet and a trifle holding, but the horses ran remarkably fast.

Joseph E. Seagram's chestnut colt Tragedian was the favorite for the Hurricania Stakes, 2 to 1 being the prevailing quotation at the close of speculation. It was 4 to 1 each against Celoso and Xmas, with good long odds against any of the others. The race was not truly run, Tragedian, Successful, Xmas, and Celoso being crowded together when the gate went up. Swamp Angel rushed to the front and made the running, closely attended by Euphemia L., Grey Bird, and Hi Daddy. Hi Daddy took the centre of the track, where the dust flew now and then, and Hewitt, keeping the gelding right up to high pressure, had a commanding lead a sixteenth of a mile from home. He was never caught, and won pulling up. Tragedian, under the strongest kind of riding on the part of Sims, beat Celoso a head for second money. The Winner was entered to be sold for $500, and when put up at auction he was bid up to $1,205 by L. S. Thompson, James McLaughlin, who represented the owner, bidding the extra five dollars and retaining the two-year-old.

The Winner, with Taral in the saddle, was considered good enough to win the Belle Meade Stakes. Sloan rode Cassette, and taking the trick at the start the result was never in doubt, the brown daughter of Uncas romping home under a strong pull. Dr. Grimes, a maiden until Wednesday last, electrified the talent by taking second money from The Winner in a drive. This is not the first time that Cassette has beaten The Winner.

A dozen went to the post for the opening race, a dash at five furlongs, for all ages. It was a handicap, with Agitator at 119 pounds, the top weight. The talent made M. F. Dwyer's crack filly Cleophus favorite at 2 to 1. Tremargo, Agitator, and Brandywine being held at 6 to 1, while Master James was the rank outsider at 100 to 1. The Western gelding Fly was backed down from 30 to 1 to 10 to 1, and carried a lot of money, for the knowing division. Agitator and Tremargo behaved badly at the post. All got away well with the exception of Cleophus, whose chances were extinguished at the outset. Tremargo, Fly, Zamone, and Tenderness were the leaders down the hill. Fly died away at the end of half a mile and Chic, coming very fast on the outside, nipped the race in the final strides, beating Zamone half a length. Tremargo beat Brandywine a neck for third money.

Ross O. was favorite at odds on for the second race, at six and one-half furlongs. Five two-year-olds started, and of the bunch Red Spider and Trayline were backed for second money. Nobody wanted Leonore at any price, as the crazy filly is such a bad actor that she is invariably left at the post. Yesterday was no exception to the general rule, and Trayant on this occasion kept her company. Ross O. went to the front and won in a gallop. L. B. in a hard brush beat Red Spider a length for second money.

Ameer was an odds-on favorite for the dash at one mile, for which there were five starters. He was last away, and had to be ridden to catch the bunch. Golden Badge and Trillette made the running head and head to the turn, where the former had enough, and Premier took command of affairs. Simms rode Ameer deseperately all through the stretch, but the old horse could not stand the gaff and run straight, and he swerved in behind his adversary a hundred yards from the wire. Ameer was gaining fast when straightened out, but the distance was too short and he only got to Premier's shoulder as the wire was passed. Sir Dixon, Jr., was a fair third. Premier, entered to be sold for $500, was bid up to $900 by L. S. Thompson. Owner McLaughlin bid an extra five dollars and took the colt.

Deerslayer beat Sapelo and Tom Cromwell on Tuesday last because Tod Sloan rode Sapelo with poor judgment, chasing the light-weighted Handpin for the first half mile and dulling the speed of his mount so badly that Tod Sloan on Hanover had nothing left when challenged by Tom Cromwell. Deerslayer in turn vanquished Tom Cromwell. This made Deerslayer a false favorite yesterday. Sapelo was 3 to 1 and was supported by some of the cleverest men at the course. Sapelo took the lead at the start yesterday, and, setting a steady pace, none of the others could approach the colt. Ben Eder was second under the whip, while the favorite was third. The time, 1:24⅘, speaks volumes. It marks one of the best races at one mile and a furlong during the entire meeting.

Judge Clarence McDowell, representing the Jockey Club, had a conference with the jockeys and stable boys yesterday before the races began. Mr. McDowell gave the boys some valuable pointers regarding the rules and dwelt upon the dignity of their calling.

Mr. L. S. Thompson yesterday subscribed to the Post Sweepstakes on behalf of the Brookdale Stable.

A NEW TEAM RECORD.

Mrs. Stokes's Miss Rita and Josie B. Pace a Mile in 2:09 1-2.

LEXINGTON, Oct. 15.—Fine weather, a fast track, and the breaking of the world's team record were the pleasant features of the big harness meeting here to-day. Miss Rita and Josie B., the sensational team of pacing mares owned by Mrs. W. E. D. Stokes of New York city, were sent against the world's record of 2:12¼, driven by O. Hickok. They went to the quarter pole in 0:32½, passed the half in 1:04, the three-quarters in 1:35, and finished the mile in 2:09½, lowering the world's record two and three-quarter seconds.

The Kentucky Stakes were won by the Boston colt Bingen. He won the first heat handily from Rose Croix, M. E. McHenry's Futurity winner, but broke badly in the second heat, and came near being shut out. Rosecroix winning. He won the third and fourth heats in splendid style, distancing Rose Croix in the fourth, and winning first, third, and fourth moneys. Vipsania got second money.

The unfinished trot from yesterday went to Clayone in straight heats, while Pilot Boy beat a field of good ones in the 2:14 trot, including the favorite, Walter S. The 2:17 pace was unfinished. Summaries:

SPIRITED TROTTING AT PARKWAY.

McLoughlin Maid Defeats Agnes Morrell in a Five-heat Race.

The thousand or more Brooklyn road riders and members of the Parkway Driving Club who attended the opening of the fall trotting meeting at the club track yesterday saw two clever young mares engaged in one of the hottest contests of the local campaign. Agnes Morrell, the round-turned little gray mare who defeated Ethel Mack in a match for $1,000 stakes at Jerome Park last week, was supposed to be the good thing in the 2:24 race, and she started an even-money favorite over the field. Reeling off the first two heats quite handily in 2:22¾ and 2:22, she looked like a sure winner of the race until M. P. Devy, in the last quarter of the third heat, made a rousing drive with McLoughlin Maid and snatched the heat in 2:23¾. This set the talent guessing, and they kept at it until the game little mares crossed the finish line twice more with less than a length separating them in either finish. With the advantage of the pole position, McLoughlin Maid was just fast enough to win by a narrow margin each time, and she landed the race at the end of five heats, trotting to a record of 2:22¼ in the final round. The mare was bred by the well-known Brooklyn reinsman, Charles G. Moser, and was owned until recently by E. T. Bedford.

William Hoegg's black mare Lady Harrison was an easy winner of the 2:50 race, trotting to a record of 2:28¾ in the third heat. Between heats Trainer Jerome McKinney of Parkville Farm drove the three-year-old pacing filly Thistlebud to a record of 2:22¼ in a match against time. She paced the last quarter in 0:33½, a 2:14 gait. Summaries:

Strong's Easy Victory Over Butler.

BUFFALO, Oct. 15.—It took just two minutes for Charley Strong of Newark, N. J., to do the trick for Joe Butler of Philadelphia before the Empire Athletic Club of this city to-night. Butler weighed in at 165 and Strong at 170 pounds. Both men are colored. The men entered the ring in prime condition. Butler seemingly trained to the hour, while Strong appeared a trifle too fleshy. When they shook hands it was seen that Butler was several inches the taller of the two, but what Strong lacked in height he made up in sturdiness.

At the call of time Butler led off with a left swing, but fell short. Strong put a left on wind light, and cut away without a return. Butler got back with a hard left on body and a left on the jaw. Strong came back with right and left on the wind and jaw, and in the mix up that followed Strong got in some telling blows on the body. Then Strong floored Butler with a left-hand hook on the point of the jaw. Butler arose before the fatal ten seconds were counted, but went down from another left hook on the chin. He got up again and received a left swing full on the jaw. Strong landed another left hook on the jaw that put Butler down and out.

Strong said to-night: "I am willing to meet any heavy weight in the world except Corbett and Fitzsimmons. I think I can whip Peter Maher, Joe Choynski, or Steve O'Donnell, and will challenge the winner of the Gordon Baker fight."

The opening bout was between Sammy Callahan and "Gene" O'Donnell, lightweight weights. After two minutes of wild fighting Callahan won on a foul.
