FLINT'S FINE FURNITURE

HARMONIOUS CONTRAST,

although seemingly paradoxical, finds an example in the beautiful Khurdestan rugs, with their solid grounds of blues, reds and browns. The small geometrical figures of the border are in perfect accord with the solid centres, and the result is an eminently harmonious contrast. Our "Ruggery" is full of the choicer varieties of Persian and Turkish rugs, as well as the less expensive weaves in carpet medium and small sizes.

We are constantly evolving the most novel furniture ideas at factory prices.

Custom Tailoring

SECOND FLOOR.

We open this morning a department which we propose to make to men one of the most interesting spots in New York City or State.

Our Ready-to-wear Clothing Department for men and boys has made many friends for this store. Our salesmen have always fitted the clothing to the forms of the purchasers, and the garments sold have always been models of correct style, well made and of choice material.

But men have fancies in dress as well as women, and these fancies can be satisfied only by a custom tailor. We therefore began weeks ago to arrange for supplying the exact garment that the most exacting man might demand, for

One-half the Regular Custom Tailor's Price.

To start the department with a decided rush we will sell, beginning to-day,
