FLINT'S FINE FURNITURE

Sheraton and Heppelwhite Chairs.

There is sometimes a prejudice against mahogany for the drawing room, but, properly treated, can be used with the lightest furnishings.

In one corner of drawing room floor are exquisite Sheraton and Heppelwhite designs, very light and graceful, with delicate mouldings, skilled turnings and quiet inlays.

A Sheraton chair with a rush seat and mahogany moulding, enriched with inlays of pearl and gold, open carved back and slim tapering legs. Another with light banister back, graceful cabriole legs, delicately carved, and seat covered with silk repp.

The Heppelwhite chairs show variety of designs; all have the characteristic shield-shaped back.

It is easy to find real beauty at factory prices, if you

Typewriters.

Typewriting machines have become an article of necessity. Business men and professional people alike realize the value of a time-saver—and time is money nowadays. There are at present two kinds of typewriters in the market, the very excellent standard machines that sell for $100 and the so-called cheap typewriters that sell for less and are worth—well, if you have ever used one you know what they are.

It Remains for The Big Store to Bring the Price of a Really First-Class Typewriter Down to Its Proper Level, where, stripped of all fancy profits, agents' commissions, enormous advertising expense and patent royalties, it can be sold for a price that any and every body can afford.

The Price of the Fountain Typewriter No. 1

We Claim for It:
EXTREME DURABILITY.
FIRST-CLASS WORKMANSHIP.
MECHANICAL PERFECTION.
UNUSUAL SPEED.
SIMPLICITY OF CONSTRUCTION.
PERFECT WORK.

. . . IS . . .

$35.00

It Will Do This:
WRITE IN PLAIN SIGHT.
QUICKLY INTERCHANGE TYPE.
PERFECTLY MANIFOLD.
PERFECTLY MIMEOGRAPH.
INTERCHANGE RIBBON SPOOLS.
LINE SPACE IN 6 WIDTHS.

The machines will be shown on the main floor—just back of the Fountain—in a special department devoted to typewriting machines. The only typewriter department in the world. Unusual facilities for trial and examination have been provided, and the machines will be sold with this guarantee:

Guarantee Covering the Fountain No. 1 Typewriter:

If within six months from date of sale any part of the machine gives out through mechanical defect we will repair and replace such parts free of charge, provided the typewriter is delivered to us, express charges prepaid. Any typewriter can be used on trial for 10 days, and if not entirely satisfactory the purchase price will be refunded, if machine is returned in good order.

Not even the $100 machines have a stronger guarantee! Come and see the Fountain No. 1 Typewriter in operation. Let us explain its many useful and unique features and you will be charmed by them!

The Fountain No. 1 Typewriter Has the

"Universal Keyboard,"

the Standard Keyboard of the World.

Heretofore only the high-priced machines have had it.
