Shall the Democratic Party be "Aldrichized"

The fight is on! Shall the democratic national convention for 1912 be controlled by an Aldrich democracy or shall it represent real democratic sentiment?

By reason of its democratic platforms the party now occupies advanced ground. Shall it retreat to the lowlands?

Although the democratic party has not controlled administrations in recent years its democratic platforms have given it a power possessed by no other party in history—the power to compel opposing parties to recognize the righteousness of its platforms.

Never in all its history has the democratic party so well represented the hopes and aspirations of the progressive patriotic men of all parties as it does today.

This advantage has been won by the party's persistent fight for the people during the past sixteen years.

Today the American people are looking to the democratic party as the leader in real reforms. The people have lost confidence in the republican party. Can the democratic party be trusted?

The democratic national convention for 1912 will provide the answer.

The special interests that have wrecked the republican party are seeking to gain control of the democratic party. They hope to nominate for president a "reactionary" who will be satisfactory to the Wall Street interests.

If they find that the progressive sentiment is too strong to be entirely ignored they will take someone who has been progressive enough to furnish them something to talk about but not progressive enough to fight the interests.

The democratic party seems ready to come into its own. After a long fight the progressive policies which aroused the opposition of all the predatory interests in 1896 are becoming the accepted policies of the country, but the interests will do their best to nominate a candidate who is not in sympathy with them and who tried to retard their progress.

Let not the democrats be deceived. The work of a democratic president will be no easy work. The cleaning out of the stables will be a Herculean task. It will require strength of body, strength of mind and unflinching moral purpose. It is no time for compromise. The times require a stalwart, fearless, progressive leader. He must measure up to the requirements of the occasion and be able to summon the progressive hosts to his banner. He must be positive and progressive if he is to win the confidence of those who are seeking remedial legislation.

Do you believe that the democratic party should be kept free from entanglements with special interests? Do you believe that its representatives should mean to redeem the spirit as well as the letter of its platform pledges?

If you believe the democratic party should be true to its name you may help win the fight to protect its national convention from the invading forces of those who would make the party the laughing stock of real democrats.

Mr. Bryan will do his part in the effort to protect the democratic party from "Aldrichism." On the stump and through The Commoner he will insist that the progress made by the party during the past sixteen years shall not be thrown away; that the special interests shall not control the convention; that its platform shall be honest and unequivocal and its candidates devoted to genuine democratic doctrine.

In order to place his views before a larger number of people Mr. Bryan has given instructions that his paper, The Commoner be sent to every new subscriber for a period of one year for the sum of 50c—one-half the regular price for one year.

You are invited to join Mr. Bryan in this great fight. A campaign subscription to The Commoner will enable you to keep in touch with Mr. Bryan's work and assist him in his effort to prevent the Aldrichization of the democratic party.

Send in your subscription today, or secure a campaign club in your precinct.
