The cards also counted in the thirty-six-hole handicap for the cup presented by F. W. Vanderbilt, which brought the total of Mr. Nichols up. Dr. O'Connor, as soon as he returned to Lakewood, Dr. O'Connor, as soon as he returned to Lakewood, Dr. O'Connor, as a consolation for his defeat at match play by Taylor on Friday, had the luck to win the cup in a play-off, the tie between De Raismes and O'Connor for the gross score prize was won by the former. The first of the regular monthly handicaps brought a large number of the St. Andrew's golfers to the links yesterday. The course was in excellent condition, although the valley holes were somewhat soft from the overnight rain and this prevented any low scoring. Of the winners Jennings and Mackenzie are members of the new 400 committee, while Cochrane is the club's captain. The ties in class A will be played off later. The summary:

In making the final announcement that entries for the M. G. A. championship at Garden City close tomorrow at noon Secretary Du Pais reiterates that the entries must be sent in through the secretaries of the various clubs. Up to last evening the entries were:

Laurence Washburn, Westchester Golf Club; Reginald Beck, Meadowbrook Club; F. O. Beach, Meadow Club; C. A. Haven, Meadowbrook Club; A. Lorillard Ward, Meadowbrook Club; H. M. Harriman, Meadowbrook Club; C. Charles W. O'Connor, Richmond County Club; Joseph le Conte Cragie, Westchester Golf Club; Arthur M. Hill, St. Andrew's Golf Club; Horace Havemeyer, Brookline Golf Club; Charles L. Tiffany, Shinnecock Golf Club; W. J. Travis, Oakland Golf Club; Alexander Morton, Westchester Country Club; H. P. Toler, Baltimore Golf Club; H. K. Toler, Baltimore Golf Club; William L. Hicks, Nassau Country Club; H. M. Billings, Arbeley Club; James A. Tyng, Nassau Country Club.

Fair weather in Garden City yesterday brought out some very consistent golfing by James A. Tyng, who made his first rounds in a morning foursome with A. M. Robbins and C. L. Tappin. Tyng and Robbins finished all even, while Tappin was beaten by Tappin. The cards:

Robbins	5	4	5	4	5	5	5	6	4	—44
Tyng	5	4	5	4	5	5	5	6	4	—43
Robbins	5	4	5	4	5	5	5	6	4	—43—87
Tyng	5	4	5	4	5	5	5	6	5	—44
Robbins	5	4	5	4	5	5	5	6	5	—44—88
Tappin	5	5	5	4	5	5	5	6	4	—44
Tyng	5	4	5	4	5	5	5	6	5	—44
Tappin	5	5	5	4	5	5	5	6	5	—45—89
Tappin	5	4	5	4	5	5	5	6	5	—44
Tyng	5	4	5	4	5	5	5	6	5	—44—88

In the afternoon Tyng and Robbins finished even, Tappin having to leave early to catch a train. Tyng had no less than three 3s on his card and returned the capital card of 84, beating Robbins 1 up. The close finish between the two proves that the M. G. A. handicappers did right to class them together. The card:

Tyng	6	3	4	5	4	5	4	6	3	—40
Robbins	4	4	5	5	4	8	4	5	5	—44
Tyng	7	6	5	6	5	6	6	5	3	—49—89
Robbins	5	5	4	8	4	7	5	6	4	—48—92

Others out were H. M. Harriman, who is said to be showing traces of being overgolfed; Hugh Toler, Louis Bayard, Jr., N. H. Lord and F. X. Sadlier. Bayard and Toler have entered together for the foursomes.

In splendid weather the teams of Cutler School, which included all the winners at the St. Andrew's tournament, and St. Mark's School met at the Essex County Country Club yesterday. The links were in fine order, but the putting greens were too fast to run true. The result was a surprise, for Hollins, who led the Cutler team, was beaten, and Winston only won by 1 up. The out-of-town boys played in splendid style and won the match by 4 to 4. Winston had to do an 84 to beat Bacon, while another good scoring match was that between Sanger and Gunther, each scoring 85, and the former winning on the home green. The score:

ST. MARK'S.		CUTLER.
L. A. Murdoch, Jr.	4	H. B. Hollins, Jr.	0
W. C. Bacon	0	Owen Winston	1
Ralph Sanger	1	W. L. Gunther	0
O. F. Snow	4	Edward Bell, Jr.	0
C. F. Watson, Jr.	0	P. A. Frost	1
L. M. Lee	0	D. H. Lloyd	2
Total	9	Total	4

Owing to the heavy rains of Friday the links of the Richmond County Country Club were in bad condition yesterday and high scores were the result. The summary follows:

At a special meeting of the Board of Managers of the Catholic Club of the city of New York, held at No. 120 Central Park south, on Saturday, April 8, 1899,

Resolved, That the members of this society, learning with the deepest grief of the sudden death of their beloved associate, Oliver Prince Buel, First Vice-President of the club and one of the most active and valued of its managers, desire to place upon record this tribute to his worth as a man, a citizen and an associate.

He was distinguished by unvarying courtesy and charm of manner as well as by wise and fearless counsel, rare and convincing eloquence and judicious and efficient management of every interest confided to his care.

He was thoroughly versed in public affairs, maintained a high standard of political and business morality and was an unswerving foe to all that threatened the stability, the dignity and the purity of our republican institutions.

To the possession of great powers of mind and strength of character he united unaffected simplicity and the utmost gentleness of spirit. He was devoted to the charities of the Church and evinced in a practical way the profoundest religious faith.

Bowing to the loving decrees of an all-wise and merciful Providence, we shall ever deplore the loss of our friend and fellow worker, and we tender to the members of his estimable family, to the legal profession, to which he belonged, and to his large circle of friends our deepest sympathy, and we commend his example to all who would attain the ideal of manly character and American citizenship.

RACING.

Misericordia Wins the Congressional Stakes at Bennings.

WASHINGTON, April 8.—Although it was cloudy and threatening rain at the time to take the train for the races at Bennings this afternoon, it did not have any effect on the crowd, which was surprisingly large. The most attractive card of the meeting was on, and it resulted in some good racing, in spite of the track. There was one stake event, the Congressional, for two-year olds, at a half mile. It went to the favorite, Misericordia, easily. Had Merrily got away on even terms, it might have been a different story. Her rider did not seem to know how to break with the field, and Merrily got ten lengths the worst of it. She closed up a big gap, and at the end ran into third place. W. C. Hayes, the well-known gentleman rider, gave an exhibition of fine horsemanship during the jumping race. He rode his own entry, Trillion, that fell on the last mile when they had about six furlongs to go. Hayes grabbed Trillion, jumped into the saddle, and finally passed Last Follow and Ochiltree, thus securing third money. The applause he received at the finish was well deserved.

Leslie Punlan and Jimmy Mara, who were ruled off for poor riding at this meeting a year ago, have made application for reinstatement, and they will be acted upon at the next meeting of the National Steeplechase and Hunt Association. F. Frisbie, owner of Double Dummy, has taken up the case at the Jockey Club for the hitching and roping of that horse, and he will be able to start in the races from now on. Summaries to-day:

First Race—Six and a half furlongs—Red Gedd, 100 (Sedam), 7 to 1 and 5 to 2, won; Bishop Reed, 110 (Mitchell), 5 to 1 for place, second; Leando, 97 (Adams), 6 to 1, third. Time, 1:22. Deaton, Sol, Lexington, Prior, Nearest, Prince Auckland, Weller and Lepida also ran.

Second Race—Congressional Stakes for two-year-olds, selling, half mile—Misericordia, 104 (Littlefield), 7 to 10 and 1 to 5, won; The Bobby, 102 (McCarty), 7 to 2 for place, second; Merrily, 97 (Dunn), third. Time, 0:51. Eileen Daly and Monomania also ran.

Third Race—Steeplechase, four-year-olds and upward, about 1 mile and a half—Baby Bill, 153 (Shea), even and 1 to 2, won; Decayed, 163 (Guestion), 6 to 2, for place, second; Trillion, 168 (W. C. Hayes), third. Time, 3:34. Last Follow, Ochiltree and Vanity Fair also ran. Berry N. II refused at starting post. Trillion and Vanity Fair fell, but were remounted.

Fourth Race—Five furlongs—Dyna, 95 (Moody), 10 to 1 and 3 to 1, won; James Tod, 95 (Brennan), 3 to 1 for place, second; Wilmi, 95 (Miles), third. Time, 1:04 1-5. Sir Tenny, Charatelle, Pow Wow II., Pursuit and Minor D. also ran.

Fifth Race—One mile and 100 yards—Beau Ideal, 105 (Sullivan), 15 to 1 and 4 to 1, won; Imperator, 104 (Martin), even for place, second; Alice Fariss, 104 (Mounsey), third. Time, 1:52 2-5. Imp and Al Fresco also ran.

Racing Begins at Newport.

CINCINNATI, April 8.—Racing for 1899 in the middle West was opened to-day at the Queen City Jockey Club's track at Newport, Ky., for a thirty-seven days' meeting with a very fair card, a track deep in mud and small attendance. The meager attendance was doubtless owing largely to the weather, which was cold and threatening after several days of rain. There are about 600 horses at the track, all the stables being full, and nearly 200 here for the meeting are quartered at the Latonia track stables.

Jackson Smith of this city, division passenger agent of the Louisville and Nashville Railroad, is presiding judge; J. J. Burke of New York city and Frank Queen of Newport are associate judges. H. D. Curlis Brown is starter, and J. Grant Hanley, secretary. Summary:

First Race—Six furlongs—Merry Day, 104 (Frost), 4 to 5, won; Shield Bearer, 109 (Harris), 7 to 1, second; Ethel Collins, 90 (Silvers), 20 to 1, third. Time, 1:20.

Second Race—Four furlongs—Sue Johnson, 105 (Ross), 4 to 1, won; My Chickey, 105 (Bishop), 20 to 1, second; Miss Bode, 105 (W. Mounsey), 4 to 1, third. Time, 0:50¾.

Third Race—One mile—Volandra, 110 (Ross), 4 to 5, won; Dearing, 115 (Beauchamp), 6 to 1, second; Nancy Seitz, 100 (Frost), 6 to 1, third. Time, 1:44.

Fourth Race—Seven furlongs—Sir Roman, 108 (Sheffer), 4 to 1, won; Floyd, 102 (Frost), 6 to 1, second; Effie Ainslie, 99 (Knight), 4 to 1, third. Time, 1:30¾.

Fifth Race—Four and a half furlongs—Rodd, 108 (Mahen), 10 to 1, won; Wellington, 105 (Turner), 1 to 2, second; Carlos, 108 (Weaver), 15 to 1, third. Time, 0:54¾.

Sixth Race—Seven furlongs—Carlotta C., 104 (Bolton), 7 to 1, won; Agitator, 104 (Nutt), 13 to 10, second; Nellie Prince, 99 (Bishop), 4 to 1, third. Time, 1:33.
