Some Parlor Furniture

IF that headline catches your eye as one touching a present need in your household, you are a customer sure and certain, for there is no resisting the rest of the story.

We are going to sell to-day a great many of our sample suits of parlor furniture. That means 40 or 50 sets in about as many styles, and in the styles that have been representing our stock.

That which will impress you deepest, however, aside from the manifest goodness and beauty of the pieces, is the bargain element in the transaction. Some of these suits are at half-price, and the average has been at least a half more.

Prices Yesterday, $41 to $230
Prices To-day, $24 to $160.

Some of these are slightly soiled. Nothing that can't be easily remedied, and we make them the cheapest of the lot in compensation.

We cannot duplicate at these figures. And we must ask you to receive your purchase at once, as the price concession is made to gain room.

Three Favorites in Guerlain's Goods The Guerlain perfumes are making friends as fast as they make acquaintances, and if there is any better proof of merit than that, we don't know what it is. Except, perhaps, keeping the friends, when once made, and they do that, too.

Undoubtedly the highest class perfumes in the world. Once assured of that, you'll not mind their being the highest-priced, as well.

The heliotrope odors are strong favorites just now. Try them in the Cyrasol Soap, 55c. a cake; the Heliotrope de Soire Extract and the Complexion Cream.

A Chance in Children's Reefers Pretty Cloth Reefers for the little people of 2, 3 and 4 years. Just the sorts of early-morning, early-evening and chilly-day wraps that careful mothers like to have at hand even in the warmest weather.

Cheap, of course, for their best time of service is over. But so cheap that it becomes an extravagance not to provide for the Summer's emergencies;—and think of next Fall's wear, too.

Prices are not far from one-half what they originally were.

At $1.25—Reefers of blue, green or red; square collar, prettily trimmed with braid; 2 and 3 years.
At $2.25—Reefers in red, blue, green or brown; large collar, trimmed with white braid and buttons; sizes 2, 3 and 4 years.
At $4.50—Reefers with large square collar, prettily trimmed with ribbon and braid; sizes 2, 3, 4 yrs.
Fine silk coats, in pink, blue and white taffeta; handsomely trimmed with lace and chiffon; at $10, $17 and $22; were $20, $24, $35.

Second floor, Fourth avenue.

Items of Interest in Two Shoe Stores Of particular importance to men just at this period is the excellent showing in our permanent shoe store of men's recreation shoes. In this collection are these—the best of their various kinds:

Buckskin lace shoes for bowling.
Kangaroo skin, half-high shoes for sparring.
Canvas low or high shoes for tennis.
Russet calf shoes for yachting.
Tan French kip bals for golf.

For ordinary street wear the strongest line at $3.50 shoes yet shown: laced and Oxford; black and tan. WOMEN'S SHOES—These for present wear. Black or tan Oxford shoes; some heavy and toes broad, like the men wear, or soles thin and toes narrow, the distinctively feminine style; choose from 28 sorts; kid, calf or patent leather, $3 a pair.

The store on the fifth floor has the following offerings—bargains in the absolutely true sense of the word:

At $1.50—Women's Oxford shoes of black kidskin with patent leather tips and flexible soles. Also of tan kidskin with straight tips turned or McKay sewed soles; popular toe shapes. Both these qualities are equal to any $2 grade.
Misses' and Children's shoes of strong black kidskin; laced and buttoned; full toes; spring heels, sizes 8½ to 10½, 90c.; 11 to 2, $1 a pair.

Rug Reductions An overplus of certain sizes of a kind now most in demand for Summer house furnishing,—the Japanese rug. Woven in excellent imitation of the true Oriental art specimens. Handsome, durable floor coverings that are in even greater favor now than ever. Prices on these sizes are reduced so:

9x15 ft., $11.25, was $15.
10x14 ft., $11.75, was $15.75.
12x12 ft., $12, was $16.
12x15 ft., $15, was $20.

Time, and the Towels There could not be a better time for towel bargains than right now, and there can seldom be better towel bargains than we offer at this time. So there's a condition of things that the word "Opportunity" was coined to express.

All these are cheap, in the sense that they are selling for less than their fair and regular retail worth. And they are all good. But especial attention should be given to the huge, thirsty bath towels at 25c., and the damask goods at 25c., 50c. and 60c.

This is not to do injustice to the other offers, which are all worthy and attractive. But in every bargain lot there's a biggest bargain;—"in lowest deep, a lower deep," you know.

At 12½c. each—Fringed huckaback, 18x36 in.; ready for use. Also hemmed crepe, 18x36, and bleached bath, 17x36, at same price.
At 25c. each—Fringed bath, 24x56; full bleached and extra heavy; also hemmed fancy weave, 28x42; hemstitched double huckaback, 23x41; and hemstitched bleached damask, 20x42, all at 25c., the latter was 35c.
At 50c. each—Hemstitched extra fine huckaback; damask border and figured centre.
At 60c. each—Hemstitched German damask; one row of open work; 22x54 in.; was 75c.
At 75c. each—Hemstitched extra fine damask, with two rows of open work; 24x50 in.; was $1.

Fourth avenue.

Making Awnings The great rush of work is just ahead of us. This is the last reminder we shall have occasion to give you.

We are making awnings of the strong, handsome and honest sort, and we ask just as little as we can, but just as much as we must. We neither do "scamp" work at equivalent prices, nor charge like specialists for every-day goodness.

You'll be satisfied with both work and prices, and that's the highest satisfaction we know.

A man will call, if you'll write.
