HANLON'S TEAM DEFEATED.

CINCINNATIS HIT DUNN FREELY AND WIN QUITE HANDILY.

Brooklyns Are Still Second, However, as Baltimore Beats Chicago—Washington and Cleveland Surprise Themselves with Victories—Rain Prevents the Other Games

The Brooklyns were beaten by the Cincinnatis yesterday, but they are still in possession of second place. The Baltimores captured another game from the Chicagos, who are now only three points ahead of the Reds. The Philadelphias suffered an unexpected setback at the hands of the Clevelands and are tied with the Bostons for fifth place, rain preventing the champions from playing at Louisville. Pittsburg was not only beaten by the Washingtons, but also surrendered ninth place again to the New Yorks, whose battle with the St. Louis leaders was prevented by inclement weather. The New Yorks and Brooklyns both play championship games to-day. The results:

Cincinnati, 8; Brooklyn, 4.
Washington, 7; Pittsburg, 6.
Cleveland, 10; Philadelphia 4.
Baltimore, 9; Chicago, 5.
At St. Louis—Rain.
At Louisville—Rain.

CINCINNATI, 8; BROOKLYN, 4.

CINCINNATI, May 20.—Cool and threatening weather overthrew all calculations for a large Saturday crowd, with the Brooklyns as the star attraction. However, the 3,000 spectators had occasion to enthuse, for the Brooklyns' long string of successive victories was broken. The locals presented a different front to-day, as Irwin went to third and Steinfeldt covered second. This is the Reds' strongest infield. Capt. Kelley and Dahlen prolonged the game with fruitless and unnecessary kicking at the decisions of the umpires. In the seventh Dahlen was at the bat when a pitched ball apparently grazed his bat. He immediately started for first, saying that the ball had hit him, but Swartwood called him back. Here Kelley kicked so persistently that he was put out of the game, and Yeager took his place in left. Anderson again distinguished himself with a great catch off Selbach's bat and doubling Wood at second. Dahlen continued his good hitting, and bagged a double and a single. Steinfeldt did much in the field toward winning the game, while Smith batted the best. Hawley was at his best and for six innings the Brooklyns got no runs and but two hits. In the seventh and eighth, however, he was touched up for a total of 4 tallies. His support helped him out of several tight places. Dunn essayed to do the twirling for Brooklyn, but his control was poor and he was hit when hits meant runs. McJames replaced him in the fifth and was also hit hard. The score:

PITTSBURG, May 20.—The Senators hammered Leever's delivery for five singles and a double, which netted them five runs in the second inning. Stupid playing by the Pirates gave them two tallies in the fifth. Duncan was hit hard and was also wild, but was saved from defeat by the fast fielding of Padden and Bonner. The score:

CLEVELAND, 10; PHILADELPHIA, 4.

CLEVELAND, May 20.—Hill kept the Philadelphias' bats well scattered to-day, while the Clevelands bunched their hits. Philadelphia's errors were costly. Zimmer made a home run in the fourth inning with two men on bases. Cleveland fielded very sharply, while Philadelphia's play was very ragged. The score:

BALTIMORE, 9; CHICAGO, 5.

CHICAGO, May 20.—McGraw and his fellow Baltimoreans found Clark Griffith's pitching to their liking in to-day's game and pounded out sixteen hits. The batting of the home team and the batting of the visitors proved the only features of a one-sided contest. Attendance, 7,000. The score:

CHINESE BALL PLAYERS BEATEN.

Novel Exhibition of the National Game at Washington Park.

There are nine stiff jointed Chinamen in town this morning. They tried to play a game of baseball with the "Colored New Yorks" at Washington Park, Brooklyn, yesterday afternoon in the presence of about 1,200 spectators. Many Chinatown, Bowery and east side celebrities occupied seats in the grand stand, including "Chuck" Connors. When the struggle was half over and the Mongolians were hopelessly in the rear, "Chuck" arose from his chair, yawned and growled:

"Aw, forget it!"

While the Chinese experts showed that they had learned the principles of the national pastime, they demonstrated a total inability to get in the way of grounders and to make proper throws. If an accurate score could have been kept, probably a hundred errors would have been charged against them. A soft ball was used, and the pitcher of the colored nine tossed in old-fashioned "dew drops," which were met with some degree of skill, but no force.

The Chinese pitcher, Lang Wang, had great difficulty in getting the ball up to the batsmen. He employed an "old maid" delivery and fell all over himself whenever the ball was returned to him by the catcher, who announced the score card was Chin On, but who was in reality a local player of considerable ability. He looked like a Chinaman at a distance, but when Umpire Butler called him out upon one occasion he appeared in his true colors with the retort: "Ah, dig der dust out o' yer blinks and don't do us dirt. See?"

In the third inning the colored men rolled up thirteen runs. Ha Ling, Wung Wan and Chin Hong, the outfielders, chased the ball until their eyes were bulging and their tongues were hanging out. After the seventh inning the colored men hurried the game to a finish. A Chinese band made a noise before the game and then sat silently on the bench. Both teams wore regulation uniforms. The score was 33 to 11 in favor of the other fellows," said the manager of the "Chinks" to his men. The score by innings follows:

Colored New Yorks	0	3	13	4	3	1	7	2	..	—33
Chinese Giants	2	0	2	3	0	1	2	0	1	—11

Bulls Beat the Bears.

The Bulls and Bears of Wall street played a game of baseball yesterday afternoon at the grounds of the Staten Island Cricket Club, Livingston, and the Bulls won. As one of the players expressed it, "It's a bull year any way." Five innings were played, and the score stood 31 to 9. The game was called at 3 o'clock and was witnessed by more than 100 brokers and attaches of the Stock Exchange. The flag of the New York Stock Exchange was hoisted upon the flagpole of the grand stand. The brokers voted the game the real thing, and from a humorous standpoint it was. As an exhibition of ball playing much might be said. Somehow the bats would not hit the ball, and at times the bases were so far away that runners could not reach them. The roofing and countless missing spikes made up for any deficiencies, however. There were several home runs and three-base hits and many errors. The battery for the Bulls was R. P. Worrell and H. P. Toler. Curry pitched for the Bears in the first two innings, and his place was taken by G. D. Mackay of the firm of Vermilye & Co. Brigham and Miller alternated behind the bat.

PROVIDENCE, May 20.—The faculty has relieved the Brown University baseball team of two of its best players because they haven't attended to their studies with proper diligence. Woodworth, one of the pitchers, and Paine, the first baseman, are off the team for the rest of the year.

A rumor is in circulation among baseball men that John B. Day will soon be removed from the management of the New Yorks by Freedman. Day said in St. Louis yesterday that he knew nothing about any such move. He has been severely handicapped ever since he assumed the responsibility of running a weak team.
