Display of Several Hundred Dollars in a Restaurant Causes Their Arrest.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Jan. 29.—Chet Coverdale and Ralph Meyers are in jail here, and have confessed that they held up the cashier of the local office of the standard Oil Company yesterday afternoon. Coverdale died the job while his friend kept watch. After the robbery at 2 o'clock in the afternoon the two managed to keep under cover until evening. Then their musical supply of cash bothered them.

Without further word the student whipped out a pistol and was disturbing it in the hall. The women were badly frightened and the quick work of the attendants in securing the weapon prevented more excitement.

CROWD AT CHARITY BALL.

Many Well-Known Persons Present, Including Officers of Army. Gov. Odell Not There.

The annual charity ball for the benefit of the Nursery and Child's Hospital took place last night at the Waldorf-Astoria. It was a very successful affair. The entire ballroom floor of the hotel was used, and as has been customary in other years no fights were expended in floral decoration. The usual "Chance" on electric lights was placed high above the platform reserved for the receiving committee. It is forty-seven years since the first of the series was given, but during the Civil War there were a few omissions. The grand march has been a feature of all the dances. Last night the march opened the ball at 10 o'clock. Gov. Odell was to have led it, but he was detained at Albany. The line was formed in the marble room, and the march was through the long corridor and rotunda to the main ballroom. In the march were Gens. Miles, Brooke and Wheeler and the officers of the Nursery and Child's Hospital, Mrs. Vigerton Sidney Sullivan, Mrs. William M. Kingsland, Mrs. William C. Egleston, Mrs. Chester Griswold, Mrs. George Lewis Gillespie, Mrs. Thomas Hicks, Mrs. Robert Abbe, Mrs. Edward J. Berwind and Miss Jerusha M. Patterson, among the invited hospitalities and the floor committee, headed by Alexander M. Hadden, the chairman.

There was a quadrille danced by the patronesses and committee prior to the general dancing. The general dancing was in the grand ballroom, the Astor gallery and the foyer, the music furnished by three orchestras. Many of the men of the floor committee have served a thorough apprenticeship in such matters. The number included T. Coddex Kinnelander, who has managed the floor arrangements for the ball for years, Beth Isorton, Arthur S. Wills, Gardiner Dunn, Thomas Colston Kinney, Langdon Erving, Schuyler Schieffelin, Col. John Jacob Astor, Charles Appleton, Grosvenor Atterbury, S. P. Babcock Jr., James de Wolfe Cutting, John Ross Delafield, Edward H.
