WASHED STAMPS AT DRUG STORE.

Arrest of Arthur J. Heinemann, the Druggist at 88 Wall Street.

Arthur J. Heinemann, who has a drug store at 88 Wall street, was arrested yesterday by Treasury Agent Frank G. Thompson and held to answer on a charge of selling and having in his possession washed documentary stamps. There is a post office substation in the store and an agency for the sale of internal revenue stamps, both in charge of Irene Stern. Some time ago Col. Thompson's attention was called to the fact that many of the documentary stamps sold in the drug store were of an issue which was discontinued several months ago. The old issue was printed in an ink that would stand washing. The new stamps, which are the only ones now on sale, generally are printed in an ink that runs when the stamp is washed. When Col. Thompson discovered that Heinemann was still selling the old stamps he's suspicions were aroused. On Friday two of his deputies purchased documentary stamps of the values of $1, $3 and $5. All were of the old issue and all, it is alleged, were washed. Yesterday Heinemann was arrested and his store was searched. A book containing about $1,000 worth of washed stamps, mostly of the $1, $3, $5 and $10 issues, was discovered. Miss Stern said that she sold stamps from this book whenever single stamps of these denominations were called for. According to instructions from Heinemann she put the money she received on this sale in the back of the book. She says she thought this a little odd, but asked no questions. If larger amounts were called for she sold stamps of smaller denominations they were stripped from a large portfolio where there were hundreds of them. She says she has received from the collector at the rate of $[illegible] a month.

The prisoner was held by United States Commissioner Shields in $2,500 bail.

ELEVATED TRAIN KILLED HIM.

Mike Jenon's Leg Was Cut Off and It Fell to the Street.

Mike Jenon, who was run over by an elevated train in the Bowery near the Grand Street station on Friday night, died yesterday in Bellevue Hospital. One of his legs had fallen off in the train and had fallen to the sidewalk. Charles O'Connor of Forsyth street, by the head. Warren J. Mitchell, the motorman of the train, was arrested.

DR. DONLIN TO BE A POLICE SURGEON.

Well Known Coroner's Physician Asks to Be Transferred.

It was said yesterday that Coroner's Physician Edward J. Donlin would be transferred at his own request to-morrow from the coroner's office to the Police Department as surgeon. The board of coroners has sanctioned Dr. Donlin's application for a transfer and it is expected that the Police Board at its next meeting will appoint him police surgeon. Dr. Donlin has been physician to the board of coroners since 1892 and has made some of the most important autopsies in the history of the office.

MR. REISS'S RAISED CERTIFICATE.

He Made It Good, Says Political Enemy Has Used Episode to Libel Him.

Lawyer Bert Reiss of 215 Montague street, Brooklyn, some time ago deposited with the Hamilton Trust company, as security for a loan, an industrial stock certificate. Soon after the certificate was accepted Secretary Joseph H. White of the trust company discovered that it had been raised from 5 to 55 shares. He notified Mr. Reiss, who made good the difference. Yesterday Mr. Reiss said he knew nothing about the certificate having been raised. He says he received it as a fee from one of his clients. The facts in the case, Mr. Reiss says, were made public by his political enemies.

"I know where it started," he said. "I am going to have a warrant for the man who deliberately started this story. I am going to sue him for libel."

Mr. Reiss refused from giving either the name of the person who had started the story or the name of the man who raised the certificate.

POKER RUINED HOKE.

Arrested for Robbing His Employer After an Unlucky Game.

Jesse L. Hoke, 20 years old, of 254 West Fortieth street, was before Magistrate Brslow yesterday in the Adams street court in Brooklyn on a charge of grand larceny and was held for examination in default of $1,000 bail. W. J. Gaynor, a jeweler in Wilson store, 189 Fulton street, Hoke had been employed as a repairer for six months, was the complainant. He alleged that Hoke had stolen watches and other jewelry, valued at $200. The trouble arose in most of the stolen articles were found in the prisoner's possession. Hoke said he was "driven to rob his employer because of unlucky gambling."

He was arrested on Friday night just after winding up a game in which he came out ahead broke.

Business Troubles.

Justice Fitzgerald of the Supreme Court has appointed Vernon M. Davis temporary receiver of the assets of the New York and Commercial Steam Laundry Company at 562 West Twenty-fifth street on the application of certain directors. Justice Brown of the United States District Court on Friday appointed Benjamin Butler receiver and the latter has already qualified.

A petition in involuntary bankruptcy has been filed against Solomon Seligman, dealer in jewelry, pictures and picture frames at 10 East Fourteenth street and 5 East Thirteenth street, by Kaufrowitz & Esberg for the small creditors. Kaufrowitz & Esberg said that they understood that the liabilities would be at least $5,000.

Harney Isaacs, residing at 750 East 179th street, Bronx, has filed a petition in bankruptcy, with liabilities $280,808 and normal assets $15,500. He was formerly for twenty-five years in the liquor business downtown.

Caspius M. Richmond, dentist, of 66 West Thirty-fifth street, has filed a petition in bankruptcy, with liabilities $6,619 and no assets. Of the liabilities $5,000 is a claim of the International Tooth Crown Company for royalty on a patent.
